An Editor's Fall.

Brigham City News: Warren Foster, editor of Loving Issues, gave The News office a pleasant and fraternal call yesterday. The gentleman came to Willard Tuesday evening to see his son who, with John R. Lindsey company, was taking part in a play that evening. Early the next morning Mr. Foster met with a painful and peculiar accident. He, peculiar for an editor, in his hurry to catch the morning train, he slipped on the ice, cutting his hand quite bad in falling to spit afterward, being unable to catch the train, he found an empty whisky bottle dropped out of his pocket. How the possession of such wealth can lay claim to being a socialist is beyond our ken.

HE WANTS HIS FEES.

Justice of the Peace Sommer Wants Money for Trying Pull-Tan Suits.

Justice Sommer appeared in the police court Friday and presented a petition in behalf of the City Council, and in the name of the people of the state of Utah, requesting the council to pay him $2 for each case tried in his court in which the defendant was found guilty. The petition stated that Morris Sid was arrested on a charge of selling liquor without a license, that Morris Sid was found guilty and fined $50 and costs, that the costs in the case amounted to $2, that the city council had sold out the entire stock of liquor belonging to the said Morris Sid and had received the money therefor, that Morris Sid was unable to pay the fine and costs imposed upon him, that Morris Sid was a poor man and had a family to support, that Justice Sommer was entitled to the fees in the case, that Justice Sommer had tried the case and found the defendant guilty, that the defendant had appealed the case to the district court, that Justice Sommer had been compelled to go to the expense of $2 in order to get the case into the City Council for the purpose of having the fees appropriated for him. The committee on claims recommended he be paid for. Mayor Bransford said he would like to see the law on the matter. He will take $20 to make the case go to the district court. Justice Sommer was elevated to see the city.
