

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The office of Dr. Karl G. Maeser, which formerly was at 124 Oak street, San Francisco, has been removed to 17½ Oak street.

The St. George Temple will close for ordnance work on Friday, the 23rd day of March, and will re-open on Tuesday, the 24th of April.

DAVID H. CANNON,
President of St. George Temple.

Indian Agent Ray had 300 head of cattle driven off the Shoshone reservation last week, and in driving them over the ice on Wind river the ice broke and about 100 head of cattle were drowned.

Kimball Bros. have been running a stage between Park City and Salt Lake daily during the past week and have received a very liberal patronage; every stage has had its full complement of passengers.

Joseph Kimball, of Logan, has returned from Omaha, to which place he went with seven car loads of cattle which he succeeded in disposing of to good advantage. Very little beef has been shipped from Logan by the farmers during this winter.

Information was received from Selectman Bamberger's office March 5th to the effect that a shipment of 267 rabbits had just been received from Mt. Pleasant, over the Rio Grande Western, for distribution among the poor of this city.

Farson, Leach & Company, the Chicago bond-buying firm to whom the board of education sold its last issue of bonds amounting to $225,000, paid the third installment on the same March 2nd when they telegraphed to Treasurer Duke the following sum: For bonds, $50,000; interest, $1,041.66; premium, $100; or a total of $51,141.66.

Montana and Utah, says the San Francisco Chronicle in an editorial note, are making fine exhibits at the Midwinter Exposition. That of the former is now nearly completed and is attracting a great deal of attention. The Utah exhibit will be an excellent one, which will fully display the resources of the Territory.

The B. Y. A. Summer Institute for 1894 promises to be even a greater success than that of last year. The services of Professor Hinsdale, who fills the chair of pedagogy of the University of Michigan, have been secured. Prof. B. Cluff Jr., who is now making an educational tour of the East, will secure the services of a number of other eminent professors before he returns. The institute opens in June.

The five acres of land generally known as the baseball park has been sold by auction by Sheriff McQueen for $5,000, under an execution issued by the district court for the satisfaction of a judgment secured by the Pacific Investment company against Samuel Groesbeck and wife. There were only two bidders—Herman Bamberger, who offered $4,500, and the plaintiff in the action, who secured the property upon a bid of $5,000.

March 4th a burglar entered the residence of Mrs. Sarah Dinwoodey near the corner of First South and Fourth East streets. Mrs. Dinwoodey was away from home, and on returning heard some one go out at the back of the house. The thief had broken a window in the rear through which the entrance had been effected. The only article missed was a long, double necklace. It is evident the burglar was frightened off before finishing his work.

On Saturday evening the home of A. F. Whipple, situated near the mouth of Provo canyon, was burned down, says the Lehi Banner. It appears Mrs. Whipple had just filled her lamp and as she entered one of the rooms with the lamp in her hand she caught her foot and fell, the lamp coming in contact with the stove. In an instant the whole place was in flames and nothing was saved. The damage was about $2,000 and insured for $1,000.

At the Davis Stake conference, held Saturday and Sunday, March 3rd and 4th, Elders F. D. Richards and H. J. Grant, of the Council of the Apostles, were in attendance. On Sunday afternoon Elder John W. Hess, of Farmington, was set apart as President of the Stake in the place of Wm. R. Smith deceased, and Joseph Hyrum Grant of West Bountiful as first counselor. A large number of people were in attendance, and an enjoyable time was spent.

PROVO, Utah, March 6.—Miss Tena Berg, 18 years of age, daughter of O. H. Berg of this city, died suddenly last night at 10 o'clock. She went to Ephraim, Sanpete, a few days ago to visit her sister and appeared as well as usual until about 9 o'clock when she was seized with vomiting. A physician was sent for, but before he arrived the young lady had expired. Heart disease is said to be the cause. Mr. Berg goes to Ephraim today and will bring the remains of his daughter back with him.

A telegram received in this city February 28 conveyed the intelligence that W. L. Dykes Sr. had been shot and killed at Flagstaff, Arizona. His son, W. L. Dykes, was formerly a deputy marshal in Idaho, but is now a resident of this city, and is engaged in mining. The deceased was one of the early prospectors in Utah, and was well known in this Territory, having lived in different parts thereof. He took part in the Buckskin mountains gold excitement, and afterwards moved to Flagstaff, where he has resided ever since.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Senate committee on Indian affairs today authorized a favorable report on the bill for the removal of the Southern Ute Indians from Colorado to Utah in accordance with the agreement made with the Indians. The committee recommends several amendments, one of which provides that any Indians who man elect to do so can remain upon the land at present occupied by them, taking land under Dawes's severalty act.

The committee strikes out the provision of the bill granting the proceeds of the sales of the lands of the present reservation to the Indians.

The following is a report of the public schools of this city for the month ending February 23rd, 1894. Average number belonging, 8896; average daily attendance, 7724; average daily absence, 672; cases of tardiness, 1322; number not absent nor tardy, 3443; per cent of attendance, 92; per cent of punctuality, 98; visits by members of the board, 38; visits by patrons and citizens, 434; visits to patrons, 349; cases of truancy, 18; total enrollment of the month, including promotions, 9011; enrolled since September 1st, 1893, 11,006; colored pupils enrolled, 39; not absent nor tardy during the year, 538.

A dispatch was received this morning, March 5, at the President's office, from Elder Canute Petersen, president of the Sanpete Stake, announcing the death of C. C. N. Dorius, bishop of Ephraim South ward. He departed this life at 10:30 o'clock p. m. Sunday, March 4. The deceased has for years taken a prominent part in affairs connected with the advancement of the kingdom of God and has won numerous friends, by all of whom he was much esteemed. It has been known for some time that he was losing in physical strength, but the announcement of his demise will be a surprise to many outside of his immediate circle of friends.

A large number of friends of Mother Maria Chunn met at the residence of Thomas Varley in the Nineteenth ward March 1st and celebrated the 80th anniversary of that respected lady. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation, song and story. It was a matter of wonder to many of those present that the guest of honor had retained all of her faculties to the extent that she has being apparently as strong, bright and healthy as she was twenty years ago. Her friends trust that these blessings may be continued with her as long as she sojourns among them which time they are anxious to have extended as long as it shall be wise and well.

Saturday afternoon a boy named Daniel Goodfellow had his foot badly crushed by a Union Pacific coal train. It appears that a great many boys are in the habit of boarding the trains while they are switching in the vicinity of Ninth North street for the purpose of picking up the lumps of coal left in the cars. As the boy Goodfellow was attempting to do this this afternoon the train reversed and in some way his foot was caught with the result stated. Mr. T. C. Harris, who was passing in a buggy, seeing the accident, signalled the engineer, and the train was stopped. The boy was taken to his home at the glass factory.

Wellsville knows how to treat departing missionaries. Charles Lloyd, William F. Darley and James Kerr were to leave on Thursday morning, and on Wednesday evening a grand farewell party was tendered them in the large meeting house and a fine program was rendered; speeches were made by Bishops Maughan, Molen and others; a nicely prepared farewell ad-