EVERYTHING IS READY FOR THE CO

Both Men in Perfect Condition, Ready to Enter the Ring.

OFFICIALS ARE SELECTED.

Jeffries and Rublin Issue Signed Statements, and Each is Confident of Victory-The Local Go.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 15 .- Everything is now ready for the contest between Jim Jeffries and Gus Ruhlin for the heavy-weight championship of the world. Both men are in perfect condition and ready to step into the ring, which, if the program is carried out to the letter, they will do at 9:15 o'clock

THE FIGHTERS' SECONDS.

Jeffries will have for his seconds his manager, Billy Delaney, Bob Armmanager, Billy Delaney, Bob Armstrong, "Kid" Egan, Jack Jeffries and De Wit Van Court. Ruhlin will have behind him Billy Madden, his manager; Ed Martin, Charley Goff and "Young" Gibbs Geo. Harting will be the time-keeper for the club. Phil Wand will act in a like capacity for Runlin. Jeffries has not yet selected his time-keeper.

PRELIMINARY EVENTS.

The first of the preliminary events—between Mile Curtin and Billy Condon—will be put on at 8:15, and as soon as it is over "Spider" Wellch and Joe Fields will step into the ring. They will be limited to eight-round goes and they will be bustled out of the way in less than an hour. The doors to admit the general crowd will be opened at 7 o'clock.

OFFICIAL PHYSICIAN REPORTS. Dr. Eidenmuller, physician of the Twentieth Century club, before which the men will fight, has examined the puglists and filed his report with the police. "I found both men in perfect physicial condition," said the physician. "I examined Jeffres right after he and been at violent exercise for over an been at violent exercise for over an hour and his heart then was beating hour and his heart then was beating at a pulsation of about 68 per minute, showing that his training has been such that the extreme exercise had not quickened its action beyond that of normal. Ruhlin I found to be a pherometon. His heart was beating at the rate of 42 2 minute. The organ was perfectly sound and in regard to it I can only pronounce him a physical freak."

BETTING ODDS AT 2 TO 1.

The betting now varies at odds of 2 to 1 to 100 to 45, Jeffries being the favorite. On the mutual board the fighters have about an equal number of backers that the fight will go the limits of severals.

going to take no chances. I will finish Ruhlin in the first round if possible. If not, I will fight him until I do whip him, if it takes 20 rounds. While I shall be cautious, I shall not prolong the contest. By that I mean that I shall finish it as soon as I can. I have no idea how long the battle will last, and will not venture a guess. I expect to enter the ring at 212 pounds.

"JAMES J. JEFFRIES."

RUHLIN'S EXPRESSION.

Ruhlin expresses himself as follows:
"I will endeavor to beat Jeffries from the start to the finish in our coming contest. Aside from that I have no idea how or when I will win. It may be in the first round, or it may be in the be in the first round, or it may be in the twentieth, but should the contest go to the limit I will certainly expect to be returned the winner. Henry Blanken, who is a good prophet, says that I will win in eleven rounds. Perhaps he is right. However, when I step into the ring tonight it will be to put up the fight of my career and I will not stop unless I am forced to."

"GUS. RUHLIN."

GIANTS WILL FIGHT. Efforts of Ministers to Prevent It Have Falled.

San Francisco, Nov 14.—With the Jeffries-Ruhlin championship battle but twenty-four hours away, public interest is keyed up to the highest pitch and the sounding of the gong that will bring the Los Angeles bollermaker and the Akron giant together, is awaited in feverish anxiety. All day long enthusiasis have been flocking into the city from various points, remote and enthusiasts have been flocking into the city from various points, remote and otherwise, and the sale of choice seats has already run its length. It is evident at this time that the Mechanics pavilion, where the great struggle will take place, will be taxed to its utmost capacity and that fully 10,000 persons will witness the big event.

A group of ministers of the gospel have been striving all day today to induce the authorities to interfere and stop the mill, but they have received no encouragement. Tonight they paid their respects to Mayor James D. Phelan and there received the same information which was imparted to them by District Attorney Byington and by District Attorney Byington and Chief of Detectives Seymour.

In other words they have been apprised of the fact that while a state law prohibits prize fighting a local orlaw prohibits prize fighting a local or-dinance countenances boxing exhibi-tions held under the auspices of an in-corporated club, and that the latter measure precludes all possibility of the city fathers stopping the fight at this juncture. The police, if they believe the mill will be brutal, and therefore beyond the pale of a legitimate exhibi-tion with gloves, may enter the ring and stop the bout after it starts, but not before.

and stop the bout after it starts, but not before.

Gus Rublin spent a day of inactivity and quiet speculation. He has been in close consultation with Billy Madden several times during the day and has been filling up with the parting shafts of sound advice from his manager. The Akron fighter ate a hearty breakfast, took a long stroll along the ocean beach in the morning and played cards a pertion of the afternoon. He chatted with friends and whiled away the hours in perfect ease and with the apparent assurance that he is soon to ascend to the championship.

Jeffries was a trifle more active, but his exertions were provoked by demands made upon him by admiring friends, whom he walked and talked with during the long afternoon. The trainers of both fighters are anxious now simply to keep their men from getting a trifle stale, or possibly mentally depressed. Jeffries is full of life and smilingly declares that he will beat Ruhlin along about the tenth of twelfth round. But few bets have changed hands today and in all known instances Jeffries was on the long end and riding at even better odds than yesterday. Harry Corbett, who will referee the fight, says he is in condition to part Jeffries was a trifle more active, but the big fellows if they resist him or fail to follow his commands and he will rigidly enforce the rules of the game. A picture company placed a myriad of lights in position today and will take kinetoscope pictures of the struggle, the assurance having been given both Jeffries and Ruhlin that the heat from the electric lights will not be severe and will in no way annoy them.

ALL INDIAN TEAM.

McAndrews Will Organize a Team in Denver.

"Indian McAndrews, of the D. A. C. football team, and Fred Crolius, both former Dartmouth players, will be at the head of a football team composed of former Carlisle Indian players next season. Crolius and the "Indian" have been in correspondence for the past three weeks about the matter, and more than ten of the former stars of the Carlisle Indians have encluded to join Carlisle Indians have concluded to join the organization. Crolius will manage the team and McAndrews will be captain. Crolius in a letter to the "In-dian" yesterday stated that he had alfavorite. On the mutual board the fighters have about an equal number of backers that the fight will go the limit of 20 rounds.

Both Jeffries and Ruhlin have given out signed statements regarding the fight. Jeffries says:

THE CHAMPION'S STATEMENT.

"While there is no doubt in my mind as to the outcome of the battle I am going to take no chances. I will finish Ruhlin in the first round if possible. If not, I will fight him until I do whip star aggregation, McAndrews says that the team will have with them Bemis, Pierce, Hudson and a number of the other great stars of Carlisle, who made the school preeminent in football.

Crolius is at the present time playing Crolius is at the present time playing at Homestead, Pa., with the athletic club of that city. The team on which he is playing is composed mostly of college stars, and a few weeks ago they beat Pennsylvania State university by a large score. Crolius was at one time engaged as coach of the D. A. C., but failed to fill the contract which he stered signed.

"I think that the aggregation which Crolius and myself are going to get together," said McAndrews yesterday, "will be one of the fastest that ever stepped on a gridiron. We have been assured of substantial financial backing, and as we have games with all of the larger college teams of the east, every man on the team will make money. We will make every effort to get in the best possible trim. The men who are backing the scheme have arranged to have us train together for a month before the season opens at Long Island. In this space of time we will be able to get in splendid shape. We will have twenty-two men, so that in case of injuries we will not be short of good players. No man will be engaged who has not made a first class reputation on the gridiron. 'Baby' Rhinehardt, one of the greatest guards the football world has ever seen, will coach the aggregation, and as he has a perfect knowledge of the game, I am quite sure that our team work will be marvelous." ing, and as we have games with all of "Indian" is very much taken with his new venture and the majority of the football men at the D. A. C. are of the opinion that both he and Crolius will be able to carry it through with much financial success.—Denver News.

DETROIT CLUB SOLD. New Magnates Control American League Organization.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 14.—The Detroit American League baseball club has passed from the control of Messrs.
Burns and Stallings and is now owned by a party of local men, headed by S.
F. Angus and Ed. H. Doyle, capitalists of this city. The new owners today purchased from James D. Burns, former president of the club, his entire individual holdings and are this afternoon negotiating with George Stallings, former manager and part owner, for the equitable interest he still has in the organization. Mr. Angus obtained a control of the majority of the stock several days ago by the purchase of some notes from the Peninsular Savings bank on which the stock was pledged by Messrs, Burns and Stallings as security. He then proceeded to acquire the individual holdings of Mr.
Burns and it is expected that by tonight Mr. Stallings will have disposed of his interest of the new owners.

Interested with Angus and Doyle in the club are James McNamara, Frank C. Cook and John Fitzpatrick of this city, minority stockholders in the organization last year. The club will be reorganized with the following officers:
President, S. F. Angust treasurer, Ed.
H. Doyle; secretary, Frank C. Cook, Overtures have been made to Frank Dwyer, the former National league pitcher and umpire, to accept the playing managership. It is said that John

The new management say that already seven members of last year's team have signed contracts for next year, and that Detroit will have as good a team as money can secure.

New York, Nov. 15.—At the anniver-sary dinner of the Automobile club of Great Britain and Ireland to commemo-rate the completion of the fifth year since the light locomotives on highways act of 1895 came into existence, just held at the Hotel Metropole, some inter-esting speeches were delivered on auto-mobiling in England, the difficulties at-tending it, and whmat ought to be done to render it more popular, says the Herald's London representative, Mr. Roger W. Wellace, chairman of the Au-torophila, child accompanies of the Automobile club, presided. Sir Francis Keune, proposing "His Majesty's Gov-ernment" said he could not forget that one at least of his majesty's ministers, Mr. Arthur Balfour had manifested a hearty interest in automobiles and au-

Mr. Chapin proposed the success of the automobile club and its affiliated clubs. He said the subject of automobilism was daily becoming of more importance and interest to the public. Automobiles had come to stay in his opinion, rightly, for undoubtedly they had many component incomes and advanged to the public of the publi many compensating uses and advan-tages which might become of real im-portance in relation to otherf present day questions.

LOCAL EVENTS.

BURNS VS. ROWAN. Measurements of the Two Local

Boxers - Interest in the Event. The rooms of the Salt Lake Athletic club will be the scene of a lively boxing match for points tonight. The principals are Jimmy Burns of Spokane and "Dummy" Rowan, Both men have quit training and each declares himself their street clothes, Burns lookes a giant compared with the mute but when they are stripped the difference is. not nearly so noticeable. The mute has been training in Anaconda while Burns has been working at Prof. Eugene Thompson's private gymnasium where he has had the most modern apparatus for physical development to work with.

Both men have many admirers, but all look for the bout to go twelve or fourteen rounds before a decision is given. "Dummy's" friends declare if he rushes the fighting he will win but if the men box at "long range" Burns is likely to outpoint him.

Considerable betting is being done,

Considerable betting is being done, but the money is about even.

Two good preliminaries have been arranged for. Sammy Clark and Roy Condie and "Silent" Rowan and Young Green of Butte will box six rounds.

A great deal of interest is manifested in the bout and also in the returns of the Jeffries-Ruhlin mill. A special wire will carry the details by rounds of the championship etruggle and Man of the championship struggle and Man-ager McNamee will announce them be-

Salt Lake Rifle Club Will Hold Two of Them.

The Sait Lake Rifle club is going to have two interesting turkey shoots; one a week from Sunday and the other on the following Tuesday.

The one scheduled for Tuesday will be the event of the season, as the shooters will be divided into classes so that the poor shots will have a chance. The classes will be a 30, 40, 50, 60 and above 60 classes, and the man scoring the greatest number of points in his class will be owner of a turkey.

JEFFRIES WILL WIN.

At Least Low Housman is of That Opinion.

In speaking of the big fight which takes place tonight in San Francisco Lou Housman, a well known authority has the following to say in the columns of the Chicago Inter-Ocean:

"Considered from any standpoint, Jeffries stands head and shoulders over this presentity component as far as nu-

"Considered from any standpoint, Jeffries stands head and shoulders over his prospective opponent as far as puglistic form is concerned. Ruhiin has several times tasted the bitter cup of defeat, while big Jim has yet to experience the unpleasant sensation of lying prone on the padded floor as the strident voice of the referee drones forth the fatal seconds. Physical advantages are all upon the champion's side. His great size, bull-like strength, combined with unusual activity for such a tower of human flesh and muscle, render him the most formidable monster that has ever donned the stuffed mitts with the object of belaboring a fellow-man's features.

"Overmatched in weight and hitting power, if not in science, Ruhiin will indeed be fortunate if he succeeds in wresting the title from his dangerous antagonist. Nobody doubts Gus' gameness and ability to stand the gaff. He has demonstrated on many occasions that he possesses the courage of a lion when in action, and can be depended upon to fight to the last breath in his muscular body. But—and this is a large and significant but—gameness does not always win battles against overwhelming odds. Gameness did not save gallant Jack Dempsey from defeat at the hands of gaunt Bob Fitzaimmons. Gameness did not aveil Bob himself when he staggered and fell before the terrific punches of the man whom Ruhlin has chosen as his foeman in the coming fray.

"Ruhlin will in all likelihood give Jeffries a desperate tussle and fight like a tiger to land the right auctioneer on the ex-boilermaker's law. But meanwhile Jeff will be doing a little slugging himself, slamming in mighty hooks and body punches, that are apt to make Gus feel weary and ill before the fistic joust has lasted many rounds.

"To sum the whole matter up, I be-lieve that Ruhlin's sole hope lies in the chance that every game, strong, young fellow possesses of landing a lucky and unexpected blow during a whirlwind windup. Also there is the possibility of a foul committed by either of the men, but a victory under such circumstances would not be considered a fair test of their abilities.

"Barring accidents, Jeffries should be returned the victor and retain the title he has defended so ably since the jth day of June, 1899."

HIGH SCHOOLS TO PLAY.

Teams to Meet Tomorrow Afternoon at Walker's.

OFFICIAL COUNT NOW COMPLETE.

Canvass Finished and It Does Not Show Material Changes.

THE FORTY-NINTH DISTRICT

Tally Sheets Were Not Marked and Some Canvassers Wanted District Thrown Out-Official Totals.

The City Council board of election canvassers completed its work last night. As expected the official count showed no material change from the figures published in the "News" on Nov. 6, and the general result is the same as announced on election night. The count went like clockwork last night, and the fifth ward was almost completed when the board ran across the worst snag it had yet encountered in the 49th district. From this district the judges, McPhillips, C. S. Nichols and Edmund Wilkes, simply sent two tally sheets, one of them entirely blank, and the other with only the totals, the tally marks being entirely absent. The tally marks being entirely absent. The tally must have been kept on another sheet. The utter disregard of all rules created a sensation. Robertson was for throwing it out entirely, as there was no possible way of checking it. Mr. Philips was reached by phone and said that the tally sheets were probably in the ballot box. On the advice of the city attorney the totals on the sheets were canvassed and if any of the candidates want to make this action the ground for a fight, it is up to him to do it. Including eleven scattering votes for mayor, the total vote cast for the head of the ticket was 15,616. At the last city election the vote was 14,984, while at the general election a year ago 19,547 votes were cast for governor.

The following figures show the result of the official canvass. The first names for each office are Republican and second Democrat and the third the Socialist Labor. Among the judges, the order is Republican, Democrat. Independent and Socialist Labor:
