An undertaker was passing by a fruit stand. No one saw him, as he supposed. He stepped out and patted a large cucumber patronizingly, as if to "Good boy, old Cueu. Go for Steboy. Seize'em. Gripe'em." A good story is told of a clergyman who forgot his notes on Sunday morning and as it was too late to send for them, he said to his ardience by way of apology, that this morning he would have to depend upon the Lord for what he might say, but in the afternoon he would come better prepared.

In England a country villa with eight rooms, gas and water, with an acre of land, besides lawn, gardens, and shade trees, and excellently located goes a begging for a tenant at a rental of $140 per annum.

A lady writer says if women were as particular in choosing a virtuous hus-tand as men are in selecting a virtuous wife, a moral reformation would soon legin which would be something more than froth and foam. When this restop to marriages for a time at least .-

The Jews of New York City are said to be seriously considering the expediency of transferring their weekly religious services from Saturday to Sunday. Several of their synagogues through the country are now opened on both days. The greatest cause of the alarming apread of infidelity among the Hebrewa is alleged to be the lax observance of their present holy day. This laxity is inevitable, many of them think, under the present system. If some plausible method can be devised, the change will probably be speedily made. speedily made,

New York, 26.—The London Times of the 15th says the Paris papers publish the following text of the invitation issued by the grand council of the International Association, to its adherents to the earnst congress which is to be held at the Hague, September 2: Gitizens, the grand council of the International Association sitting in London, having resolved, in consequence of the events which have recently occurred in France, to introduce great modifications into the statutes of the association, has determined to invite all adherents to the great principle to meet in general congress at the Hague. You are, therefore, invited to that meeting, where Carl Marx will read a report upon the various labors of the French, German, English and Russian associations. Citizen Rouer, ex-member of the Paris commune, and citizens Andrews Brelley, Royeer, etc., will address the congress.

LOCKPORT, N.Y., 26.—The "straightout" Democrats of the 29;h district will meet at Niagara Falls to-morrow, to select delegates to Louisville.
COLUMBIA, S. C., 26.—The Republicans reassembled and completed their electoral ticket. The bolters nominated J. H. Hague (colored) for governor, Macon B. Allen (white) for secretary of State, Gen. E. C. Garray (white) for treasurer, and B. L. Roberts (colored) for superintendent of education. A platform was adopted endorsing President Grant and the Philadelphia platform; and denouncing the State gov-ernment as imbecile and corrupt; pledging the State to pay all honestly and legally contracted debts; and promising a honest administration and a reduction of taxation.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

San Francisco, 26.—It is rumored that a Captain Buckley, who has located 640 acres of diamond ground adjoining the first company's location, will arrive here in a day or two with an one sack full of diamonds, rubles, sap phires, etc. As yet the rumor has had no perceptible effect on the price of diamonds at jewelry stores.

The Eureka Typographical Union, which has been disorganized since the last strike, was re-organized yesterday. J. M. Hard was chosen president, and W. C. Ford secretary.
WATSONVILLE, Cal., 26. — A man named Brown, known as Uncle Johnny, was dangerously stathed by a teamster named Taylor to-day while engaged in a dispute. Taylor was arrested, and the examination was post-poned until the result of the stabbing is ascertained. At present Brown's wounds are thought to be fatal.
