

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Yesterday was the 75th anniversary of Father Samuel Neale's birth.

Christine Nilsson, the celebrated prima donna, will give a concert in this city on the 22nd of December.

To-day a buckskin, purse, containing a sum of money, was lost. The finder will oblige by leaving it at this office for the owner.

James Glade, of the 18th Ward, was picked from the street in a state of unconsciousness on Saturday night, and remained in that condition until half past noon last evening, when he died.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The Message.—A large portion of our space to-day is given up to the Message of President Arthur.

Dow's Lecture.—Dwight S. Dow gives his lecture at the Theatre to-night. Admission free.

The Beaver Mandamus Case.—In the Beaver mandamus case to-day Judge Twiss overruled the demurrer and made the writ peremptory, but allowed a stay of proceedings until the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. The ruling is precisely the same as that given by Judge Emerson in the Weber County Probate Judge case.

Too Small.—Every Sabbath demonstrates the fact that the Assembly Hall is much too small for the large number of people who flock to it to worship. Yesterday hundreds who reached the building by two o'clock, the hour for commencing services, were compelled to turn away, the house being completely filled in every part by that time.

The Special Meetings.—We remind the Latter day Saints residing in this State of the special meetings arranged to be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, December 12th and 13th, in the Assembly Hall. The Presidency of the State are especially desirous that Presidents of Quorums and presiding officers of Wards be prepared to report. The hours of meeting are 10 a.m. and 2 and 7 p.m. each day.

Anniversary.—Yesterday, December 3d, was the 75th anniversary of the birthday of Father Samuel Neale, of the 18th Ward. He received the congratulations of eight children, thirty-nine grand children and ten great grandchildren. The respected veteran has been a resident of Utah twenty-nine years, long may he live and rejoice.

The Reason Why.—Mr. W. G. Newson called to-day and requested us to explain why he did not sing. J. K. Emmert's "Lullaby," at the Theatre on Saturday night as announced on the bills. He states that when he went to the green room to get his banjo he found the instrument out of order, and had not sufficient time to get it repaired or procure another.

Mrs. Nilsson Coming.—In conversation with Mr. David O. Calder we learn that Mrs. Christine Nilsson, the celebrated prima donna, with her company, will give a concert in this city on or about the 22d of December. Mr. Calder informs us that in consequence of the Madame preferring to use the Haines Bros' piano at all her concerts, he has ordered one selected expressly for her use in this city and which will arrive in a few days.

Postal Delivery.—After Sunday, Dec. 3d, the following change will be in effect at the general delivery of the postoffice. The ladies and gentlemen's names will be mixed and divided by the alphabet. Those whose surnames begin with letters from A to L will call at one window; those from M to Z at the other. Notices will be posted over both windows. The very large increase in the gentlemen's calls has made this a necessity.

Lost His Leg.—We learn from the Ogden Herald that F. H. Quinn, brakeman on a westbound freight train, when leaving Corinne on Friday night, was trying to uncouple the second and third cars from the front, when he fell or was thrown to the track. The whole train passed over his right leg, a little above the ankle and he was considerably banged around, receiving a number of bruises on his head. He was conveyed to Ogden, where the mangled man was amputated by Dr. Carnahan. Quinn is about twenty-two years old.

A Dastardly Desperado.—The Beaver Unionist says that at Camp Apache, Arizona, a fellow named Joe. Sweet recently shot and dangerously wounded a man named Geo. Reid. The military immediately arrested Sweet and placed him in the guard house to await the result of the injuries, the latter being taken to the hospital, with, however, but faint hopes of recovery.

The man, Sweet, formerly resided in Beaver County, where he bore an unenviable reputation as an avowed horse and cattle thief. He was one of two prisoners who, about eight years ago, broke out of the Beaver County Jail, afterwards setting it on fire so that it burned to the ground.

President Taylor and Party.—Of President Taylor's party, who went to Utah County on Friday, the following brethren have returned: President John Taylor and Joseph F. Smith, Apostles Wilford Woodruff, Counselor D. H. Wells, Elders George Reynolds and John Irvine. On Friday evening meetings were held at American Fork and Pleasant Grove; on Saturday and Sunday the usual conference meetings at Provo, with a Priesthood meeting on Saturday evening. On Sunday evening meetings were also held at Lehi and Alpine.

To-day Apostles B. Young and F. M. Lyman held meeting at Fairfield and Cedar Fort.

SUDDEN DEATH.

JAMES GLADE FOUND DEAD THE STREET IMMEDIATELY ON SATURDAY, AND DIED ON SUNDAY.

About half-past ten o'clock on Saturday night, Mr. James Glade, of the 18th Ward, was found lying upon the street, in the vicinity of the City Hall, in an insensible condition. He was taken charge of by the police, and medical assistance procured, but resuscitation appeared beyond human reach. Yesterday morning he was taken in a conveyance to his home in the Eighteenth Ward. He continued in a comatose condition until half-past seven o'clock last evening, when he expired.

Deceased had been in poor health for many years, and had, probably with a view to finding relief from his sufferings, been more or less addicted to indulgence in strong drink, and finally to taking morphine. In consequence of his enfeebled condition of body, his mind was occasionally affected, so as to render him scarcely responsible for his acts.

A little over two years ago he took an overdose of morphine, and was only saved from death on that occasion by the strenuous and intelligent exertions of the Dr. Benedict, who worked upon him an entire night.

Deceased had been working for a year past at the Beardsley House, Ogden, and came down from that town on Saturday, to visit his family, and was probably on his way home when he fell to the ground unconscious.

With the exception of the habits to which we have referred, Mr. Glade was an inoffensive and respectable citizen. There being some suspicion that his death might have resulted from morphine, Coroner Taylor was notified of the occurrence. An inquest was held, but it did not appear that had been the cause of his demise.

Deceased leaves a large family, for whom their many friends entertain the most profound sympathy.

The funeral services will be held at the family residence at 1 p. m. to-morrow, Dec. 5th.

At the City Hall To-night.—Dwight S. Dow's final course in book-keeping and writing begins to-night at 7 o'clock. His instruction in practical penmanship is doing much good to a large class of our young men. In his teaching in this department there is no waste of time on systems and authors' theories, but he teaches his class a style of plain, useful, rapid business handwriting. Mr. Dow's work is filling a long felt want in Salt Lake City. His theory of teaching book-keeping is his own—more simple and thorough than any other. Some of his students have already taken responsible positions that his teaching has prepared them for.

Obsequies.—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Mary Coult, wife of Father Wm. Coult of the Ninth Ward were conducted at 1 p. m. to-day in the 11th Ward School House. She died on Friday afternoon at 4 p. m., at the residence of James Coult, in the 11th Ward. The services were conducted by Bishop A. McKee. Bishop S. A. Woolley made some remarks upon the good standing and faithfulness of the deceased, and was followed by Elder C. W. Penrose on subjects of faith and hope. Sister Coult was an old member of the Church, and died in full faith of the everlasting gospel. May the Lord comfort the bereaved.

Theatre.—"Under the Gallies" was ably performed to a large audience on Saturday night. Every actor appeared to advantage. Miss Sarah Ellersbick played the part of Pearl Courtland in a very praiseworthy manner, and after a little nervousness in the first scene, moved, spoke and acted like a professional and gained great favor. The new woodland scene by H. C. Tryon brought several rounds of applause, and the whole play was a success. We have not space to particularize but all the performers were worthy of praise.

Not Expeditious.—We received the following note dated November 29th, from the Co-operative Institution of St. Charles, Bear Lake Valley:

"The parcel of books enquired to us December 6th, 1881, came to hand yesterday, 29th, and is in good order; also a parcel for Bloomington Co-op., which we will forward the first opportunity. Had the railway company kept the books a few days longer they would have been one year coming from Salt Lake City."

That beats ox-team transit all to pieces.

Judge Strickland Stricken Down.—This morning O. F. Strickland was stricken down in a fit of apoplexy in the Overland House. Mr. Strickland was a former Associate Justice of the supreme bench of this Territory and took an active part in the McKean anti-Mormon crusade. He has been going down hill for several years until of late he has been an object of pity, and wreck of his former self. On account of his already impaired condition, it is doubtful if he can survive the attack with which he was seized to-day.

The Funeral.—We are requested to state that the funeral of the little daughter of Mr. Frank L. and Mrs. Martha Hines, of the 20th Ward, will take place on Wednesday, at 2 p. m. Mr. Hines, the father of the child, was absent at his demise, and is expected home from Laramie to-morrow night. Friends of the family are invited to attend the services at the family residence.

President's Message.—The President's message was said to be "comparatively short" but it has been coming in broken doses all day and continued to pour in up to the time of our going to press. We only give about half of it this evening; the rest will appear to-morrow.

W. E. HOOPER'S CONDITION.

A DECIDED CHANGE FOR THE BETTER.

The hosts of friends of Hon. W. E. Hooper will be pleased to learn that a very marked improvement has taken place in his condition, and hopes of his recovery are correspondingly strengthened. Yesterday there was a visible change for the better and the favorable symptoms have increased up to the hour of our going to press. To-day he was enabled to take considerable nourishment. On account of the universal public interest taken in the Captain's condition, we are pleased to be able to communicate the welcome news of his favorable progress.

Leg Broken.—Yesterday Lewis Cannon, son of Hon. Geo. Q. Cannon, was climbing into a wagon, from the rear end, at the farm at Riverside, a short distance southwest of the city, when his leg was caught in the revolving wheel. The limb was badly fractured a short distance below the knee-joint. The lad is ten years of age.

Seventies' Meeting.—The Seventies' regular meeting will be held at the Council Hall, on Wednesday next, the 7th inst., at 7 o'clock p. m.

DECEASED.—In the Sixth Ward of this City, Dec. 3d, of heart disease and dropsy, Mary, daughter of Thomas and Jane Goughly Winter, born Aug. 26, 1825.

Funeral services at 11 a. m. Dec. 5th, at the 24th Ward school house. Friends are invited.
