The majority of the shareholders are ladies solely depend-ent upon the bank's dividends for their income. Owing to the large unsecured indebtedness of the Munster Bank, the Bank of Ireland yesterday decided to stop supplies, and this resulted in the suspension, which is likely to bring great suffering upon the south of Ireland. The directors claim that by careful realization the bank's assets are ample. It would appear that the recent litigation in which Shaw, M.P., was largely concerned, was the cause of a run from which the bank was unable to recover.

ROCK. PHE HALF-MAST INDIGNATION HAS REACHED IDAHO-WHAT IT TAKES TO AROUSE RAGLE ROCK INDIGNATION.

EAGLE ROCK, July 9, 1885. Editor Deseret News On the evening of July 7th, the loyal citizens of this Christian town assembled in the hall of Gien, Wheeler & Co., over their store, for the purpose of holdingan INDIGNATION MEETING, on account of the national flag having been insulted in your quiet and orderly der, the call was not loud enough to be heard, and it did not "get there," for was its lack of order. It was a mixture of a great deal of bad whisky and a very little brains. The speakers were unusually abusive, especially one law-yer by the name of Smith and an old man from Chicago.

LAWYER SMITH is quoted as having said that there is Is quoted as having said that there is not a woman in the "Mormon" Church but what is a G-d-w-, and he would like to see the d-"Mormons" all swept from the land, even if it had to be done at the point of the bayonet, and hoped to see the day, and he would prophesy that within three years there would not be a Mormon found in the mountains with a fine-tooth comb. Of course at the end of this Christian lecture the delighted audience whooped, yelled, abouted and pounded the floor until some one else mounted the stage. THE CHICAGO MAN came to time like a prize fighter. He mounted the stage like a John L., commenced by selling up his sleeves to the elbow, made a few frantic clutches at the air and pranced back and forth upon the stage until finally he gave vent to his feelings in a regular tirade of slang, falsehood and other "Christian" weapons used to reform the "Mor-mons." He said he knew old Joe Smith, and knew him to be a G—d—horse thief, and that all his followers are the same, and he was ready to shoulder his musket and help to rid the country of the unholy pest. The next was A MINISTER of the Gospel. He said he knew no-thing about the "Mormons," (which was the case with all the speakers,) and he did not wish to say a great deal about them; but as he warmed up to the work he got the spirit of the meeting and found the only way to be applauded was to say something against the "Mormons." However, he proved to be one of the light weights, and soon wound up amid shouts, yells, and tremendous pound-ing on the floor. RESOLUTIONS were passed condemning the "Mor-mons." copies are to be sent to hand-some Ell, and the President of the United States. Now, I am not acquainted with the President, but I would suggest to him that when the resolutions reach him, that he call the Cabinet at once and consider the matter; for Eagle Rock is offended, and when Eagle Rock becomes disgusted things are pretty bad. With all the frauds committed at the last election she was not disgusted. the last election she was not disgusted, and when the legislature last winter, the most disgusting, fraudulent body over convened under the sacred name of law-makers, disfranchised one-third of Idaho's best citizens, there were no indignation meetings gotten. were no indignation meetings gotten up in Eagle Rock. Oh, no, her virtue does not run that way;

HER PATRICTISM runs differently. When a small flag floating over Goldberg a Wright's store, by some means, slipped from the top where it was supposed to be securely fastened, and stopped about half way down, some of the patriots loaded with whisky took their guns and shot away the mast and let the flag they pretended to have so much respect for fall to the ground.

There are many good, respectable There are many good, respectable citizens in Eagle Rock who are not in sympathy with the "Mormons" who condemn the actions of the speakers in the meeting of the 7th lnst.

umns of the N5ws, to make a few corrections in relation to an interview had with various newspaper reporters between New York and Salt Lake, part tween New York and Salt Lake, part of which was reported in your issue of the 3d inst. Mr. Gibson agent of the Guian S. S. I told him I thought the entire immigration for the season from Europe would amount to about 1,200 souls, instead of the September company numbering that many. I never mentioned Posen or being imprisoned there for two months, but that I had traveled and was imprisoned in Prussia for nearly one month. which statements are belegraphed over the country, and as is generally the rule, every editor seems to find it nec-essary to add a little more untrath and slang about the "Mormons."
