Ogden, Oct. 26.—In the district court yesterday the greater portion of the day's session was taken up with the case of J. D. Skene against County Attorney E. T. Hulaniski. The only new witnesses examined during the day were Joseph Stanford, chairman of the board of county commissioners, and John C. R. Hollingsworth. County Clerk David Mattson was also put on the stand for further cross examination.

Mr. Stanford refused to reply to any of the questions put to him by counsel for the plaintiff, on the ground that he might incriminate himself. The court might have given answer to the question as to whether he had the right and he was asked to answer was as to his refusal to answer was as to his residence in Ogden during a certain period.

To establish this fact Attorney E. T. Hulaniski was placed on the stand and gave the desired information. Mr. Hollingsworth is Mr. Stanford's counsel.

The prosecution rested its case with the introduction of the evidence and the defendant promptly moved for a judgment. The motion was argued at length and the court finally took the matter under advisement.

The citation in the case against Joseph Stanford had been previously made returnable yesterday and the case was called immediately after 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

MONROE.

SCHOOL CLOSED.

Heating Plant Not Yet Installed—Smallpox Quarantine.

Special Correspondence.

Monroe, Nev. Co., Oct. 26.—The long delay in the arrival of the heating plant and the cold weather being on has caused the closing of public school this week. The plant is now being run on gas, and may be here any day, and as everything is in readiness for it, it will be installed at once.

The storm which visited Salt Lake valley did not reach these parts. The weather is clear and cold at night, pleasant in day time. Allowing best day to go on unhindered.

The homes of Andrew Brown and John Jundaker are quarantined for smallpox. Teacher A. C. Jones is afflicted with appendicitis but is improving.
