DESERET EVENING NEWS.

FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1895.

MORE REDUCED RATES TO UTAH.

A New Freight Tariff Established Between This Territory and California.

When the heart of the Southern Pacific is opened to this valley, it will make little more to Utah than those that have a water route. It is a short and easy way to almost every point. But that has actually been done and there will be no more. It is a matter of time before the Southern Pacific will be opened to this valley. It is a matter of time before the Southern Pacific will be opened to this valley.

A new and better freight tariff will be in effect from June 27th between stations on the Southern Pacific company's line and stations on the Great Salt Lake, the Great Western, and the Utah Central railways. The new tariff will be in effect from June 27th to June 30th. It is a matter of time before the Southern Pacific will be opened to this valley.

ATTENTION. All those who have a claim against the Southern Pacific company, or who have a claim against the Great Salt Lake, the Great Western, or the Utah Central railways, should immediately present their claims to the Southern Pacific company. It is a matter of time before the Southern Pacific will be opened to this valley.

A list of the water companies in this valley is given below. It is a matter of time before the Southern Pacific will be opened to this valley.

COAST RAILROAD TALK.

Citizen Meet Means Long and Yerman at the Chamber of Commerce.

An informal audience was given by Messrs. Yerman and Long, the two large railroad projects, at the Chamber of Commerce last night by Salt Lake business men.

THE SCHOOL OF EXPRESSION.

The school of expression will close for the summer by giving a double program, the first on Saturday evening, June 29th, the second on Monday evening, July 1st.

COUNTY SCHOOL CERTIFICATES.

The following persons having graduated in the county schools and who underwent examination for that purpose at the University, recently have been given certificates to teach.

DIVORCE SUIT.

Franklin T. Short has filed a suit for divorce against H. M. Short, to whom she was married in Los Angeles on New Year's day, 1893. She alleges that her husband abandoned her a year ago, and has since failed to support her. She says, too, that he carried away at her in May and June, 1894, and frequently called her a liar, and that on one occasion he violently selected for the army without cause, and that he had been in the army for a long time. It is a matter of time before the Southern Pacific will be opened to this valley.

Water Right Dispute.

A controversy between owners of land along Ogden or East canyon creek in Tazewell county over the division of the waters of the creek has resulted in the filing of a suit by T. J. Parker against Martin Shishkin and nine others to restrain them from depriving him of the water. He claims, by virtue of prior appropriation, a right to four-fifths of it, and alleges that the defendants have diverted all the water to their use.

Brigade, Light and Power Co.

Articles of incorporation of the Salt Lake Brigade, Light and Power company, have been filed with the probate court.

Asks Damages.

Stephen H. Newman has brought an action against William Anderson, constable of the Second precinct for $200 as damages for the seizure of his cash drawer during business hours, on April 22, 1895.
