Crean of the Church of Jesus Christ of

and the second second

Letter-day Saints. ICEENIC SNOW TRUSTEE-IN-TRUST.

TURDARD EVERY SYTNING. SAVE RACEPTRY estatut feet i Temple and Last Temple Streets For Lase City, Diab.

Lorace G. Whitney, Business Manager ITESCRIPTION PRICES.

a automes..... Correspondence and other reading minit-

DITOR. A GGITESS All bosiness communications THE DESERT NEWS Sait Lake City, Utab.

NEW YORK HEPRESENTATIVE. F. A. Craig. . 41 Times Huilding CHICAGO REPRESENTATIVE.

R. A. Cralz. SAN FRANCISCO REPRESENTATIVE. C.S. King-Sheridan & Co. 409 Examiner Dis. SALT LAKE CITY, . JUNE 4, 1900.

JOHN JAQUES.

good man were hald to rest, amid the century. - With what - result, history profound regrots of many friends that will moke ; tain, they had to bid him good bye. The In a general way it may be said, that tion. John Jaques was no common mortal. doubly bargiful. He did not shine among his fellows, taken for brilliant mentality. He was oratory. Even in conversation his words were few and sometimes brusque though not antagonistic. He had opin. manner or his language.

John Jaques was for many years a His first literary efforts were known through the Millennial Star. The pen. In poetry and in prose he reflected the light of truth for the benefit and spiritual sentiments were a comsouls

After his arrival in this city he became assistant editor of the Deseret vs, and for many years labored

THE LIQUOR PROBLEM. In her address in the Young Men's Christian association, on Sunday, Mrs. shepard plead for the protection of the rising generation against the evil infuence of the salaon, Like all lecturers m temperance, she charged the liquor traffic with the responsibility for many of the ctimes that are committed, and Charles W. Fenross, - - - Editor much of the existing wickedness in the world.

Speaking about Sunday closing she said, if correctly reported, that she was opposed to the inforcement of the law, but she was in favor of working up a strong public sentiment in favor of closing the science every day in the work. She ihought an earnest agliation and that line would bring the liquor. mers to respect the Sunday laws, in the hope that thereby they might be able to stay the efforts at the total exunction of their business. The sultan question is, and has long been, a serious one. How to solve it has putaled the tenchers of morality in . every country, ever since they commenera to realize the dovastating influence of alcohol in all classics of society. Earnest effort, both from the pulpit and the plantform, as well as throughthe enactments of legislatures, is one

On Sunday, the mortal remains of a of the characteristics of the passing funeral ceremonies in honor of John it is a inlatike not to enforce existing Jaques were held in the Twelfth ward laws. If they are for the good of the chapel and were simple, unostentatious | community, they should be obeyed; if and devoid of any excitement: they not, they should be repealed. Nothing were also earnest, peaceful and sincere, is more demoralizing than the evading and therefore entirely appropriate. of righteous inws, for where that is They were a reflex of the character of done with impunity, contempt for all the departed, whose life and labors law is the nitimate consequence. If were spoken of with so much affec- saloon keepers are, as alleged, constantly violating the law, their work is the Chinese imbroglio?

ith almost bewildering rapidity.

Eastern papers give accounts of a w experiment that is being tried at

t.Luke's hospital, New York, by which is proposed to test the effects of a w treatment of consumptive patients.

The new system is the invention of Frenchman, who curiously enough is ot a physician. His remedy, it is al-

god, has been tested in Paris for five

The new remedy is formaldehyde gas,

his has for a long time been known

be the death of consumption germs, hich to introduce this gas into the patients taken in the second stage.

It is in itself not impossible that a

CRONJE A SCOTCHMAN.

adard reports as follows:

i retreat, was exactly that

ithistanding his stubbor

as a significant fact."

oint of an overload.

place where it is more prevalent.

the foreigners got down to work.

th

ne robber business seems to be the investment in California.

ar is looked for in the Brit-licial market. It should not be to find, since there is no other

The Russian troops sent to Pekin

is had a fight with the Boxers, Now

t, since his Cossacks taught the

the Cast can claim to be the real pacifi-

in mun who does it is getting near ears, and found effective.

o the patlent.

natural principles.

But it would be a mistake to suppose with that glitter that is sometimes that interpretative can be suppressed entirely by law, he it over so conscienretiring in manner and not forward in tionsty enforced. Moral education in speech. He made no special effort at the right direction is the only effective remedy. This works slowly but sureby. The conditions existing today can be traced back through many years of ions of his own, which he was not training. They are not the offspring sfraid to express, whatever might be of yesterday, and cannot be stamped the views of those who surrounded out tomarrow. It takes a long time of him. Yet he was not offensive in his intelligent and persistent effort to attain the desired results. It takes time for a new bud engrafted into the tree, great worker. For full half a century to become one with it, and to fill the he labored incessantly, in that place left vacant by the cutting off of which he firmly believed was older branches. So it takes time for the cause of human redemption. reforms to change the nature of the organfam we cull society.

It was by work in the desired direcbrightness of that luminary received tion that Christianity undertook to much of its lustre, for a considerable change the ancient world. 'Not by period, from his active mind and facile | legal enactments, but by the proclamation of the truth, its exemplification in . lives of righteousness, and faithfulness of his fellows, and his logical thoughts to the entrusted mission, in the face of bitter opposition. There is no other fort and a strength to many honest | effective way of fighting error and sin. Through public sentiment the cause of to have made records proving that temperance must triumph finally, or else suffer defeat. But in the meantime, the laws that do exist on the sub ject should be strictly enforced, without fear of the consequences, for no the medical profession has not found community can afford to convey the inv of them entirely satisfactory, impression that its laws and ordinances Koch's celebrated lymph not excepted. are but so many parts of a farce.

"Boxers." It is also pointed out that | tion is of the situation some time back, he ostensible object of the organizaand that the state of affairs has been an is athletics, though it has taken to admitted officially to have grown much dion as a second consideration. worse since then.

That, too, would explain how its mem-The American military experts in ere became known as "Boxers." South Africa have reported the lessons China has once before had a rebelof the war. One notable feature to n that cost Europe considerable efwhich they give prominence is that at to extinguish. That was the British pressige as a fighting nation apping revolt, which was finally supwas restored by 255,000 British proops. 1 by General Gordon in 1864, against not more than 25,000 Boers, or king having previously been captured olds of over ten to one. French and English troops, and the Wireless telegraphy is to be used in sous Summer palace totally des-New York and San Francisco harbor, It looks as if Peking were to be inby the government. By the way, big ded once more, and in that case, it newspapers that now have to trust to (anbitu) whether the present reignmail trains to bring their news disag dynasty will be continued. The tances up to sixty miles, soon may be picion how is that the rebels are act- | expected to put in wireless telegraphic is harmony with the policy of the plants of their own, and thus be indead of the government, and that the pendent of even the mails in such inal object' is the exclusion from the stances.

try of the foreigners. In the for-Aguinaldo is reported to have been r rebellion the motive was similar, shot and seriously wounded, if not t then the weakness of China was not killed. The circumstances related give iown as it is now. The present disa color of probability to the claim. bances, if not secretly instigated by There would have been much more sat. elen agents, at loast give some of Isfaction, however, if he had been takand-hungry powers an excuse for en alive, in which case the Filipinos king a hand in pacifying the counwould have had a notable illustration of , and keeping it so, which, in South American magnanimity to a failen foe, frica and elsewhere, means annexaeven though he be a rebel. A question of great interest now

, how the division of "spheres of in-The man who is able to and desirous nees" is to be made. Will Russia of disposing of ten thousand bushels of in the greatest share? What will first class wheat, delivered in Salt Lake the attitude of Great Britain? Will City at harvest time, at the rage of . United States make its voice heard three bushels for the dollar, ought to make himself known through the "News," if he wants his offer accepted by investors who realize that such a purchase will be a decidedly good thing

> The New York Tribune's London correspondent figures out that in South Africa, the Dutch being in the majority, they will be the practical governors of the country, under the English system of colonial representation. The correspondent forgets that, where occasion demands, the English fix that. In British Guiana, for instance, the Dutch residents have about as much value of representative government as do the American Indians or the Chinese in this country. Ratio of population does not always count.

A Denver dispatch to the "News" ut no means was formerly found by gave the readers of this paper the information that C. E. Wantland, land ongs without causing violent and danagent for the Union Pacific, has gone erous fits of coughing. Now the in-East to meet the Boer envoys, and to nious Frenchman, Mr. Crotte, is credendeavor to induce them to buy Union ted with the invention of electrical ap-Pacific lands for their people, that these neatus, by the means of which the may settle in free Colorado. Those who bject is accomplished without danger know the rustling Mr. Wantland-and there are a host in Utah who have en-The claim is made that in Paris all joyed his acquaintance as a member of cases of consumption treated have been | the Salt Lake City Council, a hustler cured, and M. Crotte professes to be of "home industries," and a clever and sure of healing about 75 per cent of the popular business man-will not doubt that the envoys will see a brighter pic Even in the more advanced cases, which ture than ever South Africa presented. are usually called hopeless, he claims when they view the word-painting that Mr. Wantland is sure to display. He three out of every ten will yield to has great faith in the bright future of

as the Boera have never possessed un-der their narrow and tyrannical regime

Kansas City Star.

DESERET EVENING NEWS: MONDAY, JUNE 4, 1900.

In abandoning the line of the Vanl river, almost without a fight, they gave up a chance of inflicting damage on their enemy which they are not likely to see repeated. It is this constant abandonment of opportunities that gives rise to the belief that the Boers will never find the last ditch at which they will make the stand so glorious for them and so destructive to their memies. The fall of Johannesburg without defense, once seemed the most improbable of events.

Chicago Times-Herald.

Possibly the two republics may be consolidated for administrative purthis will become a permanent policy, since each is large enough for a sep-arate establishment. The drift finally will be toward that South African federation of which there has been so much talk of late.

RECENT PUBLICATIONS.

besilo's Weekly for May 26, is a "Decoration Day Number." Its prom-nent features are patriotic subjects reated in a most artistic manner. The trontispiece is entitled "Under One Plag." It is drawn for the Weekly by E. N. Blue, Another full-page picture is entitled, "Reunited—A Decoration Day Idyl." It is drawn by B. West linedinst. There are numerous illustra-tions of scenes in Paris, and an article m how to see the Exposition for $250. What Should the South Do?" is the theme on article on the situation in that part of the country, by J. S. Wise, "The First Tap of the Speaker's Gavel," is a double page picture of a characteristic scene in the lower house of Congress, There are numerous other features of great interest.—No. 110 Fifth Ave., New York.

One of the striking features of the June number of McClure's is a naval story of the Japanese-Chinese war by Adachl Kinnosuke, who is almost the only existing Japanese writer whose literary reputation has been estab-lished by his work in the English lan-guage. How the Hiyei ran the gauntlet of the Chinese squadron, how the valiant Yamaji fulfilled his dedication by his dying father to the service of the emperor of Japan, all this is graphically and thrillingly told. The pictures are full of action. In addition to this, there are several other good short stories. There is also a story by the Rev. C. T. Brady—the story of the greatest fight in the history of Ameri-can privateers.—The S. S. McClure Co., New York

LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS

A lovely line, in white and colored. There is not a poor one in the whole lot; every one is good, and up to date in make and style. You cannot do better elsewhere in choice goods, and in prices for the same quality you cannot do so well. Come and examine prices and goods, and you will be convinced.

Z. C. M. I.

Ducks, and the Burlap.

LADIES' SUMMER SKIRTS.

The Choicest and Largest Assortment ever shown here. Nothing so elaborate and stylish has been offered in the line of merchandising in these articles. Ladies you will like them, because they are good in quality and seasonable in style. They are in Picques, Crashes, Denims,

YOU WANT THE BEST BARGAINS, YOU GET THEM AT

T. G. WEBBER, Supt.

A great drama is being enacted on world's stage; the scenes are shiftic, and the interest is being drawn om one part of the stage to unother la a business way. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

New York,

daily in its interest. He not only contributed much editorial matter, but aided in collecting news items and selections from other journals, suitable to its columns. He was a safe man The editors-in-chief under whom he served could trust him implicitly. They were not afraid to leave him in charge when necessary. His judgment was good and his heart in the right place, and he was always at his post. Though of fron constitution, he almost wore himself out in his incessant daily grind, from which he never flinched, and which he did not relinquish until honorably released to work in the office of the Church Historian.

In the new field thus opened to his exertions, he exhibited the same integrity and tireless devotion to duty that had previously distinguished him. He was made assistant Church Historian when President Wilford Woodruff was the chief, of the man; was the confidence and esteem reposed in him by that beloved leader in Israel, who held him in high | regard and placed in his hands the management, not only of the affairs of of the sand pile, but adjacent property the office, but personal concerns of great moment.

John Jaques served in the Legisla- McCarmick estate. The Hilmois courts ture of Utah just previous to the pasof its efficient workers. He was al- Washington ures as were for the evident benefit of 1897, ruled in favor of Streeter, and the public, and tended to the welfare of those who had bought lots of him. But he was seriously III, departed quietly Hut the story is not yet ended. Streetfrom the sphere of his earthly tolls, and entered the abode of the blest in the founds and some of these think preclate his presence as they will perflesh. His joy is certain, his reward is mure The Deseret News extends sympathy meis for the score faktor, one in the same may anticipate.

The Church on this side of the year should exist between neighbors, has lost a stalwart advocate and defender. Utah has lost a worthy and honorable citizen. His family have lost for a season a kind and loving Very little sectors to be known conhusband and father. But the other country the Chinese organization, "The

CHICAGO'S WAR.

Chicago has just had a little war of the proper remedy known. Even death its own-a miniature rebellion. Some- itself shall be overcome at last, all on thing like one thousand policemen, ably supported by an armed tug with machine guns, carried the day against a deflant squatter and his friends.

It appears that some years ago one Archmology is indebted to an amateur Captain Streeter had a take steamer for the reading of Egyptian hierowrecked in the shallow water off St. glyphics, and if astronomy, in the same Clair street. In the course of time the | way, has opened some of its secrets to lake piled up an area of sand about the lis most humble and unpretentious dewreck, and in 1891 it was several blocks | votecs, medical science may be expect-Inland. This ground, the captain ed to do the same. At any event exclaimed, is government land, and he periments for the purpose of finding a took possession of it in the name of his | remedy against tuberculosis are of inwife, whose former husband had been | terest to millions of human beings. and one strong evidence of the goodness a soldier and had obtained a grant en- That disease carries off more victims titling his heirs to claim any vacant than do the apparently more devastatgovernment land they might choose to lng scourges of mankind.

> So Captain Streeter fook possession The London Standard quotes Sir owners objected. Among them were N. James Crichton Brown as authority for K. Fairbanks; John V. Farwell and the decided in favor of them, and Capt. sage of the Edmunds law, and was one Streeter annualed to the land office at ways found on the side of such meas- Land Commissioner Lamorieux, in

He was faithful to the end. He decision and concert the squatters. Lamorieux's successor overruled this worked while it was possible to sit upon These, however, returned and organthe high seat at his desk in the Hiz-torian's affice, and part of the time was to overthrow this imperium in imwhen he should have been resting at perio that the police force and the home. When his strong constitution gave way it was like a col-lupse. He rapidly succumbed, and stretch of land succenders of the sandy stretch of land succenders of the sandy while but few of his friends knew that stretch of land surrendored uncondi-

the Paradise of God. There he has they can see an opportunity of raising foined many noble spirits, who will ap- international questions in consequence of the held of. They claim that the ognize the value of his works in the schief of poince violated the treaty with Opent British, prompting to which there shall be to more than two armed venand condulence to the family of John Viss of Canada, and one belonging t Jaques, knowing what a loss they have the Unfiel States. Capibin Rivecter, I sustained in his departure. May they be said, will his builts acclinat while he comforted and consoled in the as- Kipley, Marter Haritson and others, on I surance of his worth, and in the core of this openiton is carried out, It is tainty of a reunion with him, if also not impossible that international quesfaithful, where each individual will be dions will come by for consideration. known and valued for what he is, and The fight about the saint pile has alwhere no man will reap what another ready useful for years. It is not poshas sown or wear another man's crown. sible to foresed the end of it, nor what There John Jaques will shine with far questions may yot mile. But perhaps greater glory than mortals can under. Great Britain will overlook the alstand, or even his former associates leved violation of the treaty, in a spirit of that kindliness which always world has gained a steadfast spirit. Boxers," which is causing so much stirvaliant for the cause of right, a son of at the present time, in the empire of the God bearing the elemai Priesthood who "celestials." The Chicago Times-Herald will mingle with the just and work mays the Chinese name of the order is demonstrations meant death whenever where he is wanted, for the uplifting of "Yes Ho Chuan," which is translated, those who are in darkness and the sal- "righteoneneas, narmony and fists," sigvation of the erring who need help and mitying the alm of the society to be the light. Fareweil, dear brother John establishment of a new order of things, affairs in the Bombay presidency, Brit-Jaques, for a little season. May we even if violence must be risorted to. things, it is india, as told by Louis Klouseh, it not fail to impress people with that merous of late years, and some of fact. them have been widely advertised, but

THE CHINESE "BOXERS."

Kansas is one of the great grain States, and here is what State Grain Inspector A. E. McKenzie says of the prospect there this year: "While Kan-Possibly M. Crotte's remedy will have sas will raise the largest wheat crop the fate of others. And yet, there is this year in the history of the State, I to disease that is not curable, were do not believe that the yield will reach 100,000,000 bushels or anywhere near it The largest crop the State ever raised was $2,000,000 bushels. I believe that we will raise $5,000,000 bushels this year. I ayman should find the key so many have been all over the wheat belt redoctors have been looking for. If cently and the prospects could not be finer. The millers all expect it to be the banner crop. Harvest will begin in the outhern part of the State within the lext ten days, and there is much activty displayed by the farmers in securing elp. No man needs be out of work in Kansas this summer. The chances are that outside help will have to be secured during harvest ilme."

THE COLLAPSE OF THE WAR,

New York Evening Post.

Sir Alfred Milner, in a speech which he made at Cape Town a few weeks ago, in answer to the address of a deputation of the "Guild of Loyal Women of South Africa," rose to the true point of view when he said that it was an essential part of his creed as an im the statement that Gen. Cronje, the perialist that South Africa "should be uptured lion of South Africa, is of aptured lion of South Africa, is of cotch descent. At a meeting of the southsh Border counties' association, ir James made a speech, which the andard reports as follows: ealed to and cultivated in the highest possible degree, at the same time that he would wish all South Africans to be-Cronje was the Dutch rendering of name McCrone, Gen. Cronje's jeve it for their highest Interest to be included in "that great association of free and self-governing communities her came from the Haugh-of-that he was really a Galloway which is known as the British empire.

d it was curious to note that the of warfare which he practiced Spokane Spoksaman Review. Africa, by foray, ambush, sur-If Kruger had not been thus blinded, ers. The Galloway men had been distinguished by their he would not have gone to war with Freat Britain. Instead, he would have at about the cultivation of cordial relawhen "lifting" cuttle, and this red by the exceptional length legs, and by the possession of ons between his people and the people t the British South African colonier le would have taken pains to convinc nags-mentioned by Shakes-prototypes of the Basuto British statesmanship that the Trans-vaal would never menace Natal and Cape Colony, and he would have main-tained an intelligent propaganda throughout the British isles, designed to cultivate the anti-war spirit which evided among a large upportion of the a survey of the whole of le's career, he felt bound to existed among a large proportion of the British people. Along these lines the independence of the Transvaal could Paardoberg, Scotchmen di ve that he had only Bos veins, Historical accuracy have been maintained indefinitely. it desirable that the Milwaukee Wisconsin. if the caged bird of Lord Roberts' "turning movements' Id be known. It should also seem to have been the means of com-pelling the Boers to turn from every that no universal regret was listrict when his father, old position which they attempted to hold But the story that Kruger and Steyn oft Sanguhar, Dumfriesshire America, whence he subse-grated to the Cape. There monthan of a testimonial on have complained against flanking move-ments is a reflection upon their common sense that is not justified by the record which the Boers have made as c, and that, in the case of united man, must be re-strategists, in some of their battles. Boston Herald.

It is reported that the Boers have now fixed upon the hills along the line now fixed upon the bills along the line of the Klip river, some fifteen miles north of Vereeniging, as the scene of their desperate defensive stand, and, no doubt, the strategic situation requires that the British advance should be checked at that point, if the Boers can muster strength enough to do so. But after abandoning the lines of the Vet, the Zand, the Rhenoster and the Vaal, it may well be doubted whether Gen. Louis Botha can make a very stubborn fight on the banks of the Klip. Gunton's Magazine.

The name republic will disappear, but if these two little countries are finally organized under a system of govern-ment such as Canada or Australia has they will be practically as independent as they are now, with the additional immense advantage of a set of institu-tions that will really guarantee permeet in joy in the regions of the bleat! This would account for the name is well to remember that his descrip- sonal, civil and religious liberty, such | see samples.

