FRAGMENTS.

A yellow flag at No. 263 W. North Temple Street, indicates a case of scarlet fever.

Chief Justice SANDFORD will leave for New York this evening. He will return after the Presidential election.

The suit of Franklin C. Thurston vs. Herman Hill occupied Judge Sandford's attention in the Third District Court today.

In the Police Court today George Brown was fined $5 for drunkenness, and Carl Schmidt for stealing a ride on the D. & R. G. W.

DR. O. C. ORMSBY was to be in attendance at the Third District Court at 4 o'clock this afternoon, to receive sentence for unlawful cohabitation.

TONIGHT "Natural Gas" bubbles forth at the Theatre. No doubt a full house will be present. The piece is of the hilarious sort which compels the auditor to laugh not only.

ELIZABETH TAYLOR was fined $50 yesterday for vagrancy, for the reason for the heavy sentence being her frequent appearance before the court on this and kindred charges. She was committed to the care of the sheriff.

If Samuel Simpson, who, when last heard from, resided in this city, will call upon Edward Snelgrove, 27 E. Second South Street, he will learn of something that will interest him.

This evening Elias Morris, Esq., leaves for Kansas. He will visit Fort Scott and look into the sugar manufacturing operations there, with a view to obtaining information that will prove useful in the event of the establishment of sugar works in Utah.

W. E. SEBREE, general agent of the Portland Water Company, Portland, New York, is in this city. The company has branch offices at Brooklyn, Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, Buenos Ayres, and Sydney. Mr. Sebree is located at 209 Market Street, San Francisco.

We have received from Elders Jensen, Stevenson and Black, a souvenir of their recent visit to historical localities associated with the rise of the Church. It is a photograph of Liberty Jail, where the Prophet Joseph and other brethren were confined. The building has a neglected and dilapidated appearance.

TODAY we met Elder Andrew Jensen, who has returned from his eastern trip. Our readers have already been made aware of much of the route taken, by the interesting correspondence which has appeared in the News from Elders Jensen, Stevenson and Black. The three brethren left about six weeks ago, and before they separated, Elder Jensen to come home; they traveled together for nearly a year, visiting all the important localities connected with the Church history in Missouri, Iowa and Illinois. The trip was an exceedingly pleasant one, and the brethren were treated with uniform kindness and courtesy wherever they went.

Editor Deseret News: In injustice to those who signed the sewerage protest on blocks 35 and 39, and whose names did not appear in the printed list, allow me to say that I marked the protest sheets on Tuesday morning at half past eight, in the box marked "City Letters," at the post office. Said protests were placed in a large envelope, and addressed to Elder M. Wells, City Hall, Salt Lake City.

On enquiring of Mr. Wells on Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, he stated he had not received the letter, although he called or sent for his mail twice a day.

Some one should rise and explain. G. H. TAYLOR.

The names were as follows: Brock, John; John Smith; John McDonald; George S. Taylor; Mary Currie; Jane Taylor; Ann Lattimer; Eliza Woolcott; David Johnson; Ellen Beattie; Lavina Johnson; Elizabeth Whitmore; Geo. E. Bourne; Emma S. Taylor.

Ogden Jets. A large stock train containing about 50 cars pulled out from Ogden yesterday afternoon on its way east. The stock came from Southern Utah. It was pulled by three engines.

What might have proved a serious conflagration yesterday occurred in the S. P. yard. A U. P. car, loaded with sulphur, caught fire from a passing yard-man. Rushed into the car as soon as the fire was noticed, but the suffocating smoke drove them back. After some difficulty they at last succeeded in putting out the fire. A few sacks were destroyed.

A fire was happily averted yesterday morning at 2 o'clock by the presence of Thomas Lutz, the night watchman. Having occasion to go into the center of the block he saw a glowing heap of ashes and clinders near Driver's drug store, which had been thrown out carelessly by some party. He called a couple of officers who at once put out the embers. Had there been a conflagration the result might have been very disastrous.

Yesterday morning some of the burglars who have been plaguing the stamping ground, attempted to break into Kunge's hardware store. Wm. Furber had worked half an hour later than usual the evening previous in order to finish putting in some iron bars at the back of the store. The thieves succeeded in breaking out two of these with a piece of scissoring, but it is rather difficult to make an opening large enough to suit them, gave up the attempt. Another loss of cutlery would doubtless have been the result had the protective bars not been put up in the nick of time.—Ogden Standard, Oct. 18.

THE ABBOTT OPERA SEASON.

Sale of Seats for the Great Musical Feast.

Tomorrow morning the sale of seats for all of the operas to be given by the Emma Abbott English Opera Company next week will open at the box office of the Salt Lake Theatre, and there is every indication that the Theatre will be crowded next week with the music-lovers of this community. The repertoire selected is a most popular one, opening with Verdi's melodious and beautiful "Il Trovatore" with Emma Abbott as "Leonora," her ideal role; Tuesday Flotow's charming opera "Martha" will be given. In the Wednesday matinee Emma Abbott and the entire strength of the company will appear as "Children of Norway." Wednesday night she will appear for the first time in "Rose of Castile," by the composer of the "Bohemian Girl," an opera which is much esteemed in point of musical beauty, while the story—one of love and romance—is even more fascinating. On Thursday night Emma Abbott appears in her ideal role of Marguerite in "Faust," a character which Gounod the composer said she filled his conception of in every respect. The Abbott engagement will close with a grand revival of "Norma" with a magnificent cast. As the Abbott Company embraces 15 artists and carries a grand chorus and orchestra, and an entire new wardrobe of rich and gorgeous costumes, next week will be one of the greatest operatic seasons known in stage annals in Salt Lake.

New Railway Company.

Yesterday afternoon the Summit County Railway and Transportation Company was organized in this city. The subscribers are: Ben. Wood, 10 shares; L. C. Karkick 10; Louis Seckels 10; Nathan Shaw 10; George B. Bowring 1; Chester Howe 1; Theodore Brough 1; Jas. E. Fulton 200; M. L. Sprout 10; Robert Gardner 50; A. G. Best 10; total $100,000. The capital stock of $1,000,000 is divided into shares of $10 each. It is estimated that the road will cost about $800,000, and is to begin at a point in the city of Coalville, west of the present line of the Union Pacific Railway, and running in the most feasible and practical route, which is to be determined upon by engineers of said company, northeasterly up Chalk Creek to the southwest corner of Wyoming Territory, being a distance of about twenty-five miles, with the following divergencies: First—commencing at a point about six miles from Coalville on the main line, and running up the south fork of Chalk Creek in a southeasterly direction, a distance of about six miles. Second—From main line at a point about ten miles from Coalville, and running in a northerly direction to the south fork of the stream (a branch of Chalk Creek). Third—From main line at a point about fourteen miles from Coalville and running about five miles in a southerly direction to the creek to a point near Thomas Welch's saw mill, taking in all about forty-six miles. The directors are M. L. Sprout, J. E. Fulton, Ben. Wood, L. C. Karkick and Chester Howe.

From Grass Valley.

Mr. Volney King, of Marion Ward, Panguitch Stake, is in the city on business. His home is in Grass Valley, near the line between Plate and Garfield counties, a portion of the Marion Ward being in each county. He expects the people in that part of the county as in a prosperous condition. Fine crops of wheat, oats, etc., have been raised this year. The root crop has also been good. The soil is excellent, and summer grain yields largely. From its location Grass Valley does not lie very deep. In the mountains, however, the fall is heavy. It is a good stock country, and cattle and horses winter well on the south sides of the mountains. Grass and water are plentiful. There is considerable stock in that section, and of cattle, Holssteins are being largely bred. Among horses, the Norman has been bred for some years, and more recently the Hambletonian has been introduced and there are now some fine representatives of that breed.

A new schoolhouse has just been completed in Marion Ward. In this and other districts in the valley, through the people are scattered, yet the school houses are very good, and there is in that part of the Territory a good foundation for a thriving and energetic community.

Alleged Forger Arrested.

On Monday evening United States Marshal J. Gray, Colo., asking him to look out for a man named Mead at Oquirrh for forgery. It was suggested that Mead would sail under the name of Wilson, in receiving letters from his wife. Last night a description of Mead came by mail, and this morning Deputy Wilson treated him as he was getting a letter addressed to Frank Wilson, from the post office. Mead at first denied his identity, but he finally became convinced that this was useless, and now says that he will return with the Colorado officer, who will be here in a couple of days, without a requisition from the governor.

Brilliant Lectures.

The famous Quakeress, Mrs. Dr. Longshore-Potts, will give a series of her brilliant lectures at the First Presbyterian Church next week, comprising five evening lectures to both sexes commencing Monday, and four afternoon addresses to ladies only, beginning Tuesday at 3 o'clock. Her talks are made particularly interesting by means of a large array of skeletons, life-sized manikins, oil paintings and other interesting paraphernalia. She is said to have created a great furore in this country, as well as in Europe, where she has been lecturing for the past six years.

Mutual Improvement.

The Tenth Ward Y. M. M. I. A. made a permanent organization last Tuesday night with the following officers: President, S. E. Baxter, counselors, F. B. Strong and J. E. Paul; secretary, Demore Demare; assistant secretary, A. Ashkan; treasurer, Albert Braby. At the election of officers for the Twenty-first Ward Mutual Improvement Association, last evening, the following were chosen: President, Josiah Burrows; counselors, W. S. Owen and Alma Ash. The remainder of the officers will be elected next Wednesday.

THE case of Anna Hansen vs. Rosa Karkick, for custody of the former's child, was being argued before Judge Boreman this afternoon. Judge Zane made his first argument as an attorney since his arrival in Utah, and the effort was certainly an able one. In speaking he made one remark that brought on a bit with Mr. Dickson, whom the Judge referred to as one who had so long filled the office of prosecuting attorney that he had come to look upon all who were opposed to him as criminals. This as a bit with Mr. Dickson met by a retort.

HON JOHN T. CAINE

Telegraphs His Acceptance of the People's Party Nomination.

This afternoon the following self-explanatory telegram was received: WASHINGTON, D. C., October 18, 1888. Col. John R. Caine, Chairman Territory of Colorado, Committee of the People's Party. Having learned from the papers that I was nominated by the People's Territorial Convention as Delegate to the Fifty-first Congress, and as my duties will detain me here several days yet, I take this means of notifying you that I accept the nomination, and am deeply grateful to my constituents for this renewed evidence of their confidence. If elected, I shall, as heretofore, use my best efforts to faithfully represent the whole people of the Territory.

First District Court.

Proceedings at Provo, yesterday, before Judge Judd: United States vs. James P. Hansen; unlawful cohabitation; trial; jury could not agree upon a verdict and were discharged; the case continued for the term. United States vs. Richard Jenkins; unlawful cohabitation and adultery; plea of not guilty. People vs. Wm. Broadhead; misdemeanor; plea of not guilty. United States vs. Henry Saunders; unlawful cohabitation; plea of not guilty withdrawn; plea of guilty entered and sentence set for Oct. 20. Business transacted by Judge Henderson, at Ogden, yesterday: The case of J. P. Emerson vs. W. C. Heistmark was taken up, and disposed of, the jury bringing in a verdict in favor of defendant, no cause of action. In the suit of A. C. Reno vs. M. H. Beardsley an order was entered allowing an amended complaint to be filed and defendant given twenty days in which to answer. The case of David H. Jenkins vs. John Martin, concerning a tract of disputed land, was put on trial, but was not concluded before adjournment.

Third District Court.

Proceedings before Judge Sandford today: United States vs. Chas. M. Nokes; unlawful cohabitation; sentence 30 days in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $150. Edward A. Swensen vs. E. N. Rideout; motion for new trial set for Nov. 16. S. G. Sheldon vs. ———— Ehlisen; dismissed. Franklin C. Thurston et al. vs. Hermann Hill et al.; evidence submitted; arguments to be made Nov. 24. F. C. Thurston et al. vs. C. W. Symons et al.; set for Nov. 22. Matilda Openshaw vs. Utah & Nevada Railway Co.; motion for new trial denied. United States vs. John Irving; unlawful cohabitation; motion for a new trial overruled; defendant sentenced to pay $500 fine and be imprisoned four and a half months.

Court took a recess till 4 p. m., which time was set for passing judgment upon O. C. Ormsby for unlawful cohabitation.

John Irving Sentenced.

In the case of John Irving, of West Jordan, convicted of unlawful cohabitation, Mr. Irving's attorney made a motion in the Third District Court today, for a new trial, on the grounds that the verdict was contrary to the law and the evidence, and errors of law by the court. The motion was overruled. In giving his decision the court remarked that Mr. Irving's admissions on the witness stand were more damaging to him than was any other testimony; they were enough to convict him. Mr. Irving was then called for sentence. The court reminded him that he had put the government to the expense of a trial, and leniency could not be shown to any great extent. In consideration of his age, there was some relief, and the sentence was that he be imprisoned in the penitentiary for four and a half months and pay a fine of $200.

Monday in Court.

The following cases are set for hearing in the Third District Court, before Judge Boreman on Monday: 193. Adolph Anderson vs. J. E. Mark et al.; attorneys: Hoge & Burnmaster and P. L. Williams. 194. Annie S. Cutler, administrator, vs. Chas. B. Lunden; attorneys: Bennett, Kirkpatrick & Bradley and M. M. Keighin. 195. Bridget Grant vs. M. Shaugnessy; attorneys: Arthur Brown and George H. Hargreaves. 196. Salt Lake City vs. Thomas Hargreaves; attorneys: F. S. Richards and S. H. Lewis. 197. Wm. Groesbeck et al. vs. Thos. Oakley et al.; attorneys: Bennett, Kirkpatrick & Bradley. 198. George C. Staley vs. M. H. Murray et al.; attorneys: Arthur Brown and Hoge & Burnmaster.

The "Liberal" Nominee.

Yesterday afternoon the "Liberal" held a convention at Park City, to nominate a candidate for Delegate to Congress. There were two names put up—Robert N. Baskin and P. L. Williams. The first ballot stood: Baskin 25, Williams 25. The nomination of the former was made unanimous. Virulent anti-"Mormon" resolutions were adopted. C. M. Nokes Sentenced. Today Charles M. Nokes appeared in the Third District Court for sentence on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, to which he had pleaded guilty. The judgment of the court was that he be imprisoned in the penitentiary 35 days and pay a fine of $150.

A SAD STORY.

The child coughed. The mother ran. No remedy was near. Before morning the poor little sufferer was dead. What a sad story! Dr. Acker's English Remedy sold at R. C. M. Drug Store.

THE BURLINGTON ROUTE.

Are you now making a winter trip? Are you planning to visit the beautiful city of Denver and St. Louis. The Burlington Route is the only reliable route between Denver and Chicago. For rates and further information apply to R. J. Calkins, Agent, 148 Main St.

Its information, instruction and advice in regard to marriage, social and sexual functions and relations, its facts and laws of mental, magnetic and temperamental adaptation in marriage and parentage that children may be healthy, happy and viable, etc., make it more valuable to suffering humanity than any poor words can express. What a vast amount of saving information for the people of large book of 300 pages for only $1.50. Prop. J. H. Cook.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 15, '88. To District School Teachers: I have seen the Battle of Gettysburg on exhibition, and I think it is a valuable lesson in history to school children. In consideration of the fact that the admission to school children has been reduced to fifteen cents each, I am accompanied by their teachers, and recommend that you encourage their pupils to see the exhibit. Respectfully, W. M. NEWART, Co. Sept.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS.

The Senate Adopts a Resolution to Adjourn on Saturday Next.

A Disobedient Conductor Causes Another Railroad Collision in Pennsylvania.

By Telegram to the News. Adjournment, Resolution. WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Senator Allison says he will today offer a resolution for adjournment on Saturday, as a substitute for his recess resolution of yesterday.

Settlers Will be Indemnified. CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Dr. J. L. Gunling, of Amsterdam, who represents the Dutch bondholders in the Maxwell land grant in the city. He says arrangements will shortly be made at Washington to indemnify the settlers on the grant who bought when Secretary Cox of the interior department decided the Maxwell grant not valid.

What the German Doctors Say. BERLIN, Oct. 18.—Prof. Virchow and Dr. Waldeyer have signed a document declaring that the protocol drawn up after the post mortem examination of the remains of Emperor Frederick did not mention an abscess in the cavity of the trachea, and that none existed. They further say the tissues in which Dr. Mackenzie asserts Dr. Bergmann made a false passage attempting to insert a cannula were in a normal condition and not calcified. The trachea was opened to the bronchial tubes.

Still Another Railroad Collision in Pennsylvania. SHIPPENSBURG, Pa., Oct. 18.—Two passenger trains on the Cumberland Valley Road collided in a curve near here this morning. One man was killed and a great number injured. The accident resulted from disobedience to running orders on the part of Conductor Linn on the west bound train, which had on board about 200 passengers and baggage. Both engines and baggage cars wrecked. Charles Bitner, baggage master was killed. The number of the wounded cannot be ascertained at present. Among the injured are Alexander Linn, Conductor George Brown, conductor of the east-bound train, Wm. Hyesson and Jacob Fuller, engineers of the west bound train, and Harman Brinkman, mail agent. Several members of the quartette club of New York are more or less injured. The wounded are being cared for at Shippensburg.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

SENATE. WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Senator Brown offered a resolution for adjournment on Saturday, as a substitute for Allison's resolution. Adopted. Gray, in the absence of the Connecticut senators, presented the memorial of 350 citizens of Connecticut, workmen and manufacturers of raw materials (particularly wool, salt, lumber, etc.), asking that the tariff on duty be reduced to the table. A resolution for adjournment on Saturday, Nov. 19th was taken up. Pending moved to amend by making the recess begin on the 27th and end on the 12th of November. Brown, of Georgia, offered a resolution for the final adjournment of this session at 4 o'clock next day, and he said he did not believe the passage of the tariff bill would be facilitated by a prolonged session. If the democrats are successful at the coming Presidential election, something like the Miller bill will be passed. Popular opinion on the subject will be known after the election. A discussion followed, and Allison accepted Brown's resolution, and on a vote a majority of democrats voted in the affirmative; a majority of the republicans in the negative.

HOUSE. WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The announcement that the Senate had passed an adjournment resolution, made to the House at 1 o'clock, was warmly applauded by the handful of members present.

Naples, Oct. 18.—Emperor William went to Capri this morning. London, Oct. 18.—Michael Davitt has written to Lord Salisbury, saying that he did not wish to accept the scheme proposed by the Government for the settlement of Ireland, unless an Irish parliament is allowed to solve the land question and fix responsibility of the matter.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—It has just transpired that Nat. Goodwin, a comedian, was previously married here a few days ago to Nellie Baker, said to be a prominent society lady. Goodwin, however, while admitting the marriage, declines to say where his wife is now.
