"POLITICAL" INSPECTORS DIS-CHARGED. "

Eardley introduced a resolution prostructures introduced a resolution pro-viding that the services of the five special sanitary inspectors of the health department, appointed during the pleas-ure of the council, be dispensed with. Fernstrom favored the resolution be-cause he had been informed that the structure of the grant of the service of the servi cause he had been informed that the extra men had been doing more elec-tioneering than inspecting since their employment. A. J. Davis wanted the resolution referred to the sanitary com-mittee so that the health commission-ers could be heard in the matter. Eard-ley insisted that the men should be discharged in the interest of economy. The resolution was finally adopted. The resolution was finally adopted.

Chamberiala's Cough & (1997) No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanenty, but prevents these diseases from re-sulting in pneumonia. It is also a cer, tain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into considera-tion it is not surprising that people in Chamberlain's Cours R. 1 M tion it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, es-teem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. DASTARDLY DRIVERS. Teamsters Racing on State Street Collide With Lady's Buggy.

druggists.

Mrs. F. B. Smith of Forest Dale feels that it is about time the peace officers at Murray took some action to prevent reckless driving on State street. Frejuent complaints have been made of late of careless drivers who apparently have little or no regard for human life. A day or two ago Mrs. Smith, in company with a lady friend, was driving along State street in a light buggy. when they were run into by two mer racing with heavy lumber wagons. Mrs Smith's buggy was completely demoi-ished and both women were throwr violently to the ground. But for the fact that the horse Mrs. Smith was driving was a very gentle animal, both wo-men would have been seriously, if not fatally injured.

Mrs. Smith related her experience to the "News" last evening. She said she was just in the act of turning east off th main road when she noticed two lumber wagons racing down the road. lumber wagons racing down the road. She did not have time to get out of the way, and the next moment there was a crash, she and her friend were thrown to to the ground. The buggy was smashed to pieces. She said that one of the wagons was in charge of a man named Erickson and the other man was Chris Hansen. She said she believed the men were intoxicated, but whether that was the case or not they showed that was the case or not they showed absolutely no regard for the safety of others. Mrs. Smith was advised to lay the matter before the county at-torney and issue warrants for the ar-rest of the two men.
