The scene at the bedside of the young cartoonist during his last moments is described as being heartrending. He was conscious to the very last, fully recognizing his young wife and friends. With his arms about the neck of his associate, Mr. Dutton, Mr. Lovey sang "Auld Lang Syne" with his dying breath. Mrs. Lovey, with a dying gasp, tried to cause her baby to laugh or to cry to arouse the dying man from the eternal sleep into which he was sinking. Physicians and nurses, unable to witness the pathetic ending, withdrew from the room.

COUNCIL AFTER THE RAILROADS

Very Interesting Session is Now Scheduled for Next Thursday Night.

FRANCHISES ARE THREATENED

Ire of City Fathers Aroused Owing to Refusal of O. S. L. and R. G. W. To Haul Garbage.

As the result of the adoption of a resolution introduced at the city council meeting last night by O'Donnell, the officials of the Oregon Short Line and Rio Grande Railway companies will be requested to appear before the council as a committee of the whole on Thursday night and show cause why their franchises should not be revoked for failure to comply with the terms thereof. Nearly all the councilmen took a dig at the railroad companies for their failure to make certain necessary improvements along their tracks, which they agreed to do when the franchises were granted. The most important grievance, however, was the refusal of both roads to even make a proposition to the city to haul the garbage out of the sewer farm north of the city.

Several weeks ago the mayor, health commissioner and the sanitary committee took up the question of hauling the city's garbage and of additional dumping ground for the same, as the present dumping ground west of the city is practically exhausted and some other place will have to be made before the hot weather arrives. It was proposed that a spur track be built by the city a distance of about 100 feet to the city's expense, and the Oregon Short Line or Rio Grande tracks and thence to the sewer farm. This would permit of the garbage being shipped by rail at the city's expense and dumped onto the sewer farm.

The matter was taken up with the railroad officials by the committee and the Rio Grande officials refused to entertain any such proposition. The Short Line officials after some consideration also refused to have anything to do with the matter, and both refused to give any rate on the hauling of the garbage whatever. This action on their part aroused the ire of the committee and hence O'Donnell submitted his resolution citing the railroad officials before the council to show cause why their franchises should not be revoked.

In support of this resolution, O'Donnell told of the refusal of the companies to do anything for the city in the action of the railroad officials before the council to show cause why their franchises should not be revoked.

AGAIN HELD UP BY "AMERICANS"

Petition of Business Men on Main Street Still in The Air.

THE LIGHTING IMPROVEMENTS

Granted Twice Only to Go Over Each Time for Reconsideration—Session of City Council.

Again has the city council granted the petition of the business men on the east side of Main street, between South Temple and First South streets to install light poles in front of their property containing a cluster of lights at absolutely no cost to the city, and again has an "American" member of the council held the improvement up by serving notice of a reconsideration of the matter next Monday night.

Last Monday night the petition was granted, and Martin served notice of reconsideration simply because the petitioners wanted to put the poles closer together than the plan proposed by City Engineer Kelsey. After a squabble lasting about an hour last night, the petition was again granted and it was amended so as to make the poles 39 feet apart instead of 32 feet apart as originally proposed. The vote on the petition was nine to four. Carter, Ford, Martin and O'Donnell voted against it. Crabtree announced early in the debate that he would vote in the affirmative just in order to move for a reconsideration, and after the roll had been called, he served notice of reconsideration. Wells raised a point of order against Crabtree's notice of reconsideration, and after the roll had been called, he served notice of reconsideration. There is one other matter to which we must call attention, and that is the stake conferences at which you expect official visits from missionaries.

Please decide definitely what time and place will be most suitable for your stake, and be ready to report at the April conference in writing, so that positive arrangements may be made in good time for the visiting sisters, and the branches in your own stake be aware, when and where the conference is to be held, to avoid misunderstandings.

In closing this letter we wish to express our commendation of your labors in general, as far as known to us, and to wish you success in your future undertakings, and the fulfillment of the laudable work in which you are engaged, and may every blessing you desire in righteousness rest upon you here and hereafter. Amen.
