TROUBLES OF THE CROSSES.

Mrs. Lillie J. Cross, was evidently very much dissatisfied with the judg-ment of Judge Howell Saturday evening, when he discharged her husband ogar Cross, holding that the charge of disturbing the peace had not been proven against him. Mrs. Cross left the court room not in the best of spirits and yesterday morning the word was brought to Cross that she was after his scalp and was carrying a pistol While he was walking along one of the streets, he met his wife and she commenced to pull the pistol from under her coat, but it caught in some way, and before she could Cross caught her by the arms and wrenched the revolver away from her, he then left her and took the weapon to the police station where he turned it over to the officers. He said he did not desire to swear out a complaint against his wife charging her with an assault with a deadly weapon, but thought the best thing for him to do was to leave the city before something serious should take place. Three boys named Clare Boyle, Earl Farr and Emil Boyle were arrested by Officer Jensen Saturday evening on the charge of destroying private property. They were caught in the act of making a hole in the opera house door so they could see the show.

SHADRACH HOLDAWAY'S FUN-ERAL.

The funeral services over the remains of Shadrach Holdaway were held in the Tabernacle Saturday attended by many relatives and friends of the de-parted. Bishop T. N. Taylor presided, and the speakers were Patriarch An-drew Watson, Elder Abraham Halladay, Apostle John Henry Smith, Presi-dent David John and Bishop Taylor. The industry, public spirit and integrity of Brother Holdaway were ex-tolled and his descendants and friends admonished to emulate his many good jualities, and words of comfort and consolation were spoken to the widow and children.

Boshard and Pyne brothers quartet and the Third ward choir rendered beautiful vocal selections. Six of the grandsons of the deceased acted as pallbearers.

Little Genevieve had been to see a circus parade, and when she got home her mamma was asking her what she saw. "Why," said the child, "the ephlants was the funniest things. They hadn't any feet but just walked on the ends of their legs, and they had tails on their faces, too."-Chicago Little Chronicla.

The probabilities are that there will be a machine shearing plant put in soon. The wether flock shears on an average about 10 pounds for the second and third fleeces. Owing to the introduc-tion of English mutton sizes to increase the size of the shear the last verifies the size of the sheep the last lambs will not shear this amount. ewe flock averages eight pounds wool to the head. The average cost of running the sheep is 55 cents a head, leaving a nice mar-
