vatives in the House of Commons has been determined on to consider the course to be taken on Glad-stone's resolution in regard to Bradlaugh, which will be introduced on Thursday. O'Donnell has written a long letter fiercely attacking Parnell and sther home rulers, for supporting Bradlaugh, whom he describes as a revolting atheist. In Trafalgar Suuare, at night, un-der the impression that Bradlaugh would proceed to the House of Com-mons, after making his address, some thousands of persons who had been attending the meeting in Trabeen attending the meeting in Tra-falgar Square, rushed down Parlia-ment street to the Palace Yard, and some 3,000 or 4,000 got Into West-minster Hall, but the police charg-ed them and drove them through the gates. Meanwhile, several thousand persons had assembled outside the railings. Reinforce-ments of police, however, removed them to the opposite side of the street, in order to clear the way to street, in order to clear the way to the House of Commons. A Paris dispatch says: In the vot-ing of the Bureau of State yesterday for the committing of the plenary 02 and 304, Washington Ave., ST. LOUIS, for the committing of the plenary amnesty bill, 98 pronounced for am-nesty, 119 against it, and 4 for amendment to the bill, including murderers and incendiaries. There was seventeen blank votes and seventy absentees, so that the fate of the bill is uncertain. The Conser-vative Senators mostly voted for amnesty and the Moderate Repub-licans opposed it. Although these proceedings are not conclusive as to the ultimate result, the coincidence fere.
