EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, March 20, 1878.

TO THE BISHOPS AND PRE-

SIDING ELDERS IN ALL THE

SETTLEMENTS OF THE LAT-TER-DAY SAINTS.

DEAR BRETHREN: It is our desire to commence again to assist the scattered part of God's people in gathering to Zion. To aid in the accomplishment of this purpose we request the Bishops and Presiding Elders in the various settlements to give especial attention to the collection of the debts due to the Perpetual Emigration Fund from those who have been assisted in past years. In view of the near approach of the season of the year when our emigration leaves the shores of Europe, we desire that our brethren give this matter their immediate attention, that we may be enabled to do as much good as possible this present year.

It is the duty of all the Saints who have the means to assist in the gathering of these of their brethren and sisters who are still scattered in Babylon, and we should be pleased to have the local authorities solicit donations from those who are not in debt to the P. E. Fund, and who are able and willing to do their part for the gathering of scattered Israel.

Your Brethren,

BRIAN H. YOUNG,

DANIEL H. WELLS.

William C. Dunbar, Esq.:

Dear Brother:—We have invitations to Virginia and may go there before we go back to Burke Co. We have many calls to fill here before we can leave. It may be one or two months before we can leave here. You know what this presiding out in the world is. We try to obtain the highest of things. We try to be as good as we can and what we shall say, I can assure you we have been much blessed on this mission, in a remarkable manner.

Our prayers have been answered and our ministrations remarkably blessed, certainly increasing our testimony as to the truth of the gospel of the Son of God being resurrected and the power of God manifested through the holy priesthood.
Of course we find much prejudice and opposition in the minds of the people, but God has blessed us with much boldness and plainness of speech, has raised up friends for us on all hands and has manifested his kindness and mercy towards us, so that we have been protected in the midst of wicked men who would run us out of the country in their blind zeal. Scourgeous publications, in various forms, to poison the minds of the people, are scattered here. But these things we regard as a small matter, when the people hear us preach under the influence of the Holy Ghost and feel of our spirit in their every day conversations with us and the influence of our Heavenly Father gives us, we have their sympathies and their friendship, and they do for us what we have to kind enough to us. We are preaching all the time; that is, every opportunity we can get. On Sundays we hold a meeting, and that is a necessity to us. We hold the Private Bible, the large and smaller ones, and the large ones for Ladies and Gentlemen, are now open.
Amen.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

State Convention.

HURLINGTON, 29.—The Republican State Convention to select delegates to the Cincinnati Convention, assembled this morning; Russell R. Russell was chosen President, with a list of vice-presidents.

After the transaction of routine business the convention took a recess.

$20,000 Fire.

NEW ORLEANS, 29.—Last night a fire originated in the house of Leopold Thompson, 31 Annette St., third district, which was totally destroyed; the flames then extended to the adjoining house at the corner of Annette and Morales streets, and owing to the total absence of water and a high northeasterly wind blowing, the fire spread with great rapidity, and half a block of houses, including the Morales, Urquhart and St. Anthony streets, comprising about fifteen small buildings, was consumed; the loss was roughly estimated at $20,000.

Ohio's Choice for Next President.

COLUMBUS, O., 29.—The Republican state convention, to-day, declared that the thanks of the people are due to President Grant for his services as a soldier and civilian, and recommended an able and honest patriot, R. B. Hayes, to the national republican convention for nomination for President of the U. S., and the state delegates were instructed, and the district delegates requested to use their earnest efforts to secure his nomination. After three cheers for Hayes, the next President, and a short speech by ex-Governor Noyes, the convention adjourned.

Read—The River Rising.

MEMPHIS, 29.—Dr. H. S. Braver, a member of the California senate, died here to-day, of aneurism of the heart.

The rise in the river is very slow, but it has almost reached the danger line, and the reports from above show that the present flood will exceed that of February, or last August, and all the territories below here are at flood tide, there is much uneasiness below here among planters.

Pennsylvania's Choice for Presi-

HARRISBURG, 29.—At the State

Republican Convention, to-day, the following was among the resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That in recognition of the eminent services rendered by the field and cabinet, of the rare executive ability and unwavering resolute character of John P. Hartman, with just pride, present his name to the consideration of the convention as the choice of Pennsylvania, and to give him earnest support, and to instruct the delegates to cast the vote of Pennsylvania as a unit, as the majority of the delegation shall direct.

David Allen, Henry Haas, Jno. M.

Purvis, and Wm. Foster were elected delegates to the Cincinnati Convention.

A Steamer Ashore—Accident at the Centennial Grounds.

PHILADELPHIA, 29.—The French steamer Labrador, on her way from this city to New York, was ashore near Fort Mifflin, Delaware, today, and had not got off at last accounts.

At seven o'clock this a. m., an arch, in the addition, being constituted at Memorial Hall, Centennial grounds, fell and eight workmen were injured; one of them, John H.

Keeney, a native of Ohio, who was building in the grounds, was killed; the building is not greatly damaged.

Resignation of Governor Ames.

JACKSON, Miss., 29.—In consequence of the following letter which he read during the session of the House, Governor Ames resigned his office and withdrew from the arrangements of the Centennial.

"Executive Mansion,

Washington, D. C., July 20, 1878.

Meers, Durant and Pryor.

Gentlemen:—In reply to your suggestion, I beg to say that, in consequence of the resignation of Governor Ames, I found myself confronted with a hostile Legislature, and endeavored to carry out my plans for the Centennial. I received from you a letter of resignation, and I resolved to resign my office as Governor of Mississippi, and to accept of the position of a private citizen. I have no other business to announce to you, and I am, very respectfully, Yours truly,
J. M. Ames.

The people of the State of

Mississippi.

I hereby respectfully resign my office of Governor of the State of Mississippi.

Signed, J. M. Ames, Governor.

The resignation of the governor was a complete surprise to all, except to a few who agreed to this action last night. The publican-ism is in the air, and the people are in a state of excitement.

Worcester, Mass., 29.—About 3 clock to-night, an alarm was given throughout the city that the dam of the Lyndbrook reservoir was giving way. The work of clearing out dwelling houses and other buildings in the valley was at once begun and the excitement was great. The water was pouring in torrents through the valley, and house, and an entrance was forced to the gate house, but the waste gate could not be opened, it being filled with stones and gravel, and the iron rods with which it is worked being bent. The reservoir covers 140 acres, and stores 670 million gallons of water.Later, 1 a. m.—The danger is increasing. The gap is widening, and the dam is not expected to hold together until sunrise. All hopes of preventing a terrible disaster is now abandoned. The fire hydrants and the water pipes in the city are being opened to draw off as much of the water as possible.

2 1/2 a. m.—The break is enlarging largely, and the stream below is rising at the rate of two feet an hour. Since 12 o'clock the dam has been anxiously watched, and word is sent through the valley to expect disaster at any moment.

2 3/4 a. m.—All the water has stopped running through the city pipes, and it is thought the dam has given way bodily; if such is the case there will be no communication, except on foot, with the city.
