COURT AT HEBER.

The matter was talked over and the Judge Booth and Stenographer Robopinion was general that in addition to taking a large quantity of land in Utah county out of the cultivable area. erts went to Heber yesterday, and opened the December term for Wasatch unty; there being no cases ready for trial the court was adjourned till tothe backing of the water and its recession in the summer time would prove very injurious to the health of the peomorrow (Wednesday) and Judge Booth and Mr. Roberts returned last even-ple in the county. It was decided to ing. appoint the county attorney and the SUIT AGAINST ATTORNEY.

Mrs. Dell D. Watts has commenced suit against J. E. Crook of Payson, pare a protest against any action of Congress setting the lake apart as a whom plaintiff alleges she appointed her attorney in fact to transact business for reservoir and against Congress making her in September of this year. It is alany appropriation for the purpose of raising the lake. The protest will be leged that as such attorney he has reeived into his possession about the sum of $440 in money. Plaintiff also trans-ferred to defendant 20,000 shares of Vicpresented to the various cities and towns in the county for signatures, toria Gold Mining company's stock at the value of about 8 cents per share, either by the municipal corporations or County Attorney Page reported his for the purpose of having de findings on a proposed county road from America Fork to Alpine raise money for plaintiff on said stock and that defendant has only accounted plaintiff for 15,000 shares of sala stock Plaintiff alleges that upon an accounting being had, the defendant will be found indebted to plaintiff in the sum of $750, unless a return of the nining stock can be had. Plaintiff asks The county attorney was instructed for an accounting and judgment for such an amount as may be due plaintiff. She also asks for judgment in the sum
