PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LANE. FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS. SENATE.

Washington, 18.—Sherman in-troduced the bonded spirits bill, agreed on to-day by the finance committee. Grover, from the committee on public lands, reported a bill author-izing the sale of public property at Upper Astoria.

Voorhees, of Indiana, saked its present consideration.

Ingalla objected. The bill ver on objection of Ingalia. Vest submitted the minority redered printed,
The bill repealing discriminating duties on goods produced east of the Cape of Good Hope passed.
Pugh offered an elaborate amendment to the civil service bill.
The Indian appropriate the civil service bill.

The Indian appropriation came up and the civil service Beck said he had called for information in regard to the direrepancy between the appropriation and the reported expenditure, and thought it satisfactorily explained in a communication from the Secretary of Dawes, in charge of the bill, made a brief statement of its provisions. The amount appropriated last year was $5;477,000; the appropriation this year would be $1,522,000 less than last year. The bill was then read and nearly all the amendments reported by the committee on Indian effairs were agreed to. an sflairs were agreed to.

In the discussion Beck said that making appropriations to pay teachers, blacksmiths, etc., upon reservations in accordance with our absurt treaties, was a waste of money These appropriations were made year after year, while among many of the tribes no school-houses are ever opened. Young Indians could hardly be caught with the lasso, much less confined in school-houses. The money was spent on supern
