FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Police business is looking up a little.

The weather continues cool and breezy.

President W. R. Smith is in from Davis County.

"Muggins" Taylor is out on the Yellowstone.

A carload of oranges have arrived for Cutler Bros.

The bleak wind of March is walking away with the mud.

Spring goods are arriving in large quantities at S. P. Teasdel's.

The City Council will consider the liquor question to-night.

Henry Dinwoodey has just received a carload of furniture.

Edwin Williams is now postmaster of Peterson, Morgan County.

"The World" will again be presented at the Theatre this evening.

It is expected that the Northern Pacific will reach Missoula this year.

The anti-polygamy bill was up in the House yesterday. See telegrams.

Discussion on the Edmunds bill will probably be renewed to-day in the House.

The Seventies' regular meeting will be held at the Council House to-morrow evening at 7 p. m.

The Chief Justiceship refused by Conkling and Edmunds, is now offered to Judge Blatchford.

The Secretary of the Territory is now authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds, etc.

In another column will be found an interesting and well written letter from our London correspondent.

Two carloads of horses came in from the east yesterday, one for Malloy & Paul, and one for J. Davidson.

Conkling declined the Chief Justiceship, now Edmunds declines it. Now let us hear from Judge Blatchford.

Sister Zina D. Young left by yesterday's train for Provo, on a visit to her daughter, Mrs Zina Y. Williams.

The funeral of Bishop R. V. Morris took place to-day at 12 o'clock from the Nineteenth Ward Schoolhouse.

Carpenters are busy at work on the new and elegant meeting house in the 18th Ward, which will soon be completed.

The Territorial Enquirer says that Provo will have the workshops of the Utah division of the Denver & Rio Grande R. R.

Just received, a pamphlet "The Life and Trial of Guiteau." Isn't it a little premature? Mason may get another shot at him.

The bill defining the qualifications for territorial delegates, which passed the House on the 6th ult., was reported to the Senate yesterday.

There will be no "World" matinee to-morrow, as announced. The piece requiring so much labor that the manager could not do justice to it.

The well known J. B. Dixon, of the firm of Brooks & Dixon, connected with the "Grand Circuit," is here with "The World." He is welcome.

A young man named Wm. Johnson, of Spanish Fork, was thrown from his horse on Tuesday last, while returning from water, and was killed instantly, his neck and skull being broken.—Enquirer.

The Butte Miner says: The north bound train on the U. & N. Road, which was due last night at twenty minutes past 10 o'clock, was delayed for a number of hours by a blockade, and is expected to arrive some time to-day.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Burglars.—It appears to us that a reward for the apprehension of the burglars who are operating in this Territory just now would be in order. Some special effort for their capture is, in our opinion, necessary. Detectives or shot guns, or both, seem to be called for. Let the desperadoes be hunted down at once.

Personal.—We had a pleasant call to-day from E. A. Hartshorn, Esq., President of the Cable Flax Mills, Troy, New York, who is on his way home from a visit to the Pacific Coast. He returns by way of Texas, New Orleans, etc. He was introduced by his cousin, Mr. Mattison, of the Mitchell wagon establishment in this city. He is pleased with what he has seen and heard in Utah.

Broken Arm.—We learn from the Ogden Herald that yesterday a two-year-old daughter of T. A. Halgren, of that city, while going down stairs from the bedroom into the kitchen, fell from the second step to the floor, lighting on her right arm, fracturing the radius about the middle. Dr. P. L. Anderson was called, and set the limb. The patient is doing as well as can be expected.

Those Memorials.—The Butte Miner says, over 50,000 people, old and young, in Utah, have united in memorials to Congress praying that body to suspend further action on all bills relating to Utah, and to appoint a commission of honorable men and women to inquire into and determine the condition of affairs in that Territory.

Yes, and you may safely add at least 25,000 more signatures on the way.

"The World."—The Theatre was crowded in every part last evening, to witness the famous play of "The World." It is one of the most intensely interesting sensational plays ever seen on the Utah stage. The excitement of the audience was kept up till the close af the performance. The scenery, novel stage effects and general properties are all brought with the company, and are well worth seeing. The performers are well adapted to their respective parts, and some excellent acting was done last night. Mr. A. S. Barnes, as Sir Charles Huntingford, Mr. Roland Reed as Mo Jewell, Miss Ellen Cummings as Mabel Huntingford, and Miss Alice Hastings as Mary Blythe, are especially worthy of mention, but every performer sustained his part with a vim and accuracy very pleasant to witness. Everything went off like a charm and the applause was general and vehement.

We suggest the propriety of raising the curtain a little distance, and opening the entrance doors a few minutes after the explosion scene to clear the house of the powder smoke.

The play will be repeated to-night and will no doubt draw another full house, for it is A 1 of its kind.

Meeting at Tooele.—Sisters Emmeline B. Wells and E. S. Taylor returned yesterday from their trip to Tooele, where they attended the Ladies' Stake Conference. The meetings were well attended, an excellent spirit was enjoyed, and several of the brethren were present, among them Apostle F. M. Lyman, Counselor H. Gowans, and several Bishops. Mrs. Emily Warburton was installed as a Counselor to Mrs. M. A. Hunter, Stake President of the Relief Societies in place of Mrs. Elizabeth Clegg, deceased; and Mrs. Sarah Hale, of Grantsville, was chosen as President of the Stake Primary Associations in place of Mrs. Rebecca Williams, who had removed. The ladies also attended the Young Men's meeting and the Sunday School meeting, and speaks very highly of the good feeling that prevailed.

Horse Stealing.—The arrival in Butte of the mother-in-law of Mr. Al. Dell, yesterday, says the Butte Miner, brought the first news of the missing men and horses, whose suspicious flight was mentioned in yesterday's issue. Horse stealing in Montana is becoming too frequent to be wholesome for the boys. The "601" of this Territory were famous some years ago, and have not forgotten how to swing a halter. Both of the fugitives were in the employment of Connolly's stable, at their corral, from which the horses were stolen. When last seen, they were on foot, leading the horses along the road from Deer Lodge to Pioneer. The distance between these points is eighteen miles, and the distance from Pioneer to Missoula, to which the thieves are supposed to be directing their course, is seventy miles. There is no telegraph office at Pioneer, but dispatches were sent at once to Deer Lodge and Missoula.

Police Court.—One drunk, arrested last night, was fined $5 this morning.

A soldier who was caught in the act of committing a trespass last night in the neighborhood of East Temple Street, was taken before Justice Pyper and fined $50; being short of funds, by instructions of the commandant at Fort Douglas, he will be retained by the city officers to work it out.

This is a step in the right direction. It is not right to make the distinction that is sometimes drawn in such cases in favor of soldiers over civilians. We are satisfied that such co-operation on the part of the civil and military officers in favor of law and order can but result in good.

A New Magazine.—We learn From the editor Mr. Andrew Jensen, that to-morrow will be published the first number of a new magazine devoted principally to history and biography.

The initial number will contain a biographical sketch of Hon. Erastus Snow, a statistical report of the Skandinavian mission, a summary of the important events of 1881, and other interesting matter.

As will be seen by the title "Morgestjernen," it will be published in the Danish language.

Found Drowned.—Bro. David Candland writes from Chester, Sanpete County, March 9, the following sad tidings:

"This day the body of And. W. Jorgensen, aged 22½ years, was found dead in a hole of water on the county road, this precinct. The little fellow was bound to go home, and started for Moroni, the residence of his father, who is now on a mission to Europe. Verdict of the jury, accidental drowning. This is a sad affair for Bro. James, this being the second child lost by death since he left, as I am informed."

Meeting-House Burned.—We learn by letter from J. C. Andersen, of the destruction by fire, on the night of the 4th inst., of the meeting-house at Koosharem, Piute County. It is supposed that some coals left in the fire-place, rolled on to the floor. The alarm was given by Sister Rasmussen and her daughter shortly after midnight, but no water was near and the building, which was a good log structure, built about two years ago, was entirely consumed.

BENEFACTORS.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.

ORGANS

WITH

MEDALS AND TESTIMONIALS

VERSUS

Organs Without Them.

LISZT.—GOUNOD.—OLE BULL.—STRAUSS.—WAGNER.—SIR JULES BENEDICT.

THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN COMPANY HAVE entered into Competition with American and European makers of Organs at all the World's Great Exhibitions with their various styles of Organs, from one stop to the [most elaborate, and at each one of them they obtained the FIRST PRIZE and HIGHEST DISTINCTION OF DEMONSTRATED SUPERIORITY over all of the Most Celebrated Makers of Organs in Europe and in America. The most eminent Musicians, Organists, Artists and Musical Critics in all countries have declared, in written communications, that these organs are unequalled by any others in the world. The principal musicians in the Territory, recognizing these facts, have purchased the Mason & Hamlin Organs for their own use in preference to all others. There are makers, and they are in the great majority, who never presumed to compete with first-class manufacturers at any of these exhibitions, some of whom now advertise that they "Never exhibited their instruments to compete for premiums" for the reason that "Awards are made the subject of the Grossest Misrepresentation and are but a source of jealousy, corruption and falsehood." These charges cannot apply to the Mason & Hamlin Organ Company, because a fac-simile of all the medals and diplomas awarded to them, and the certificates of the jurors, are published in the official documents of the directors of each of the World's Expositions, and sent boardcast throughout Europe and America, (copies of which can be obtained at my office.) It is not probable that European jurors would have permitted an American firm to carry away evidences of so many victories over their own countrymen, if they could have honestly prevented it. If "management, intrigue and bribery" could have been used to influence the jurors in their decision, who will doubt that the awards would have been retained on the other side of the Atlantic? If, as one firm has the effrontery to aver in its own case, the non-competition for awards is to be regarded as good evidence of greater honesty and a higher standard of uprightness in business, and superiority of instruments, then the vast majority of manufacturers are to be congratulated. But for the energy and success of the Mason & Hamlin Organ Company, resulting in the opening of an entrance for American made Organs to the Markets of Europe, these non-competitors and self-proclaimed makers of a superior class of Organs would not today have an agency in England. They sailed in under the colors of the Mason & Hamlin Organ Company.
