Persons inquiring for the above letters are requested to state when advertised. J. M. MOORE, POSTMASTER.

Miss Grundy, in the New York Graphic, says, "I hear that the Pennsylvania Avenue merchants are becoming alarmed about Mrs. Hayes' economical dressing, and fear as much loss from the example set by her in that regard as they experienced from the summer exodus of the last administration. One vendor of costly articles of dress sent word to the wife of a cabinet minister, 'Oh, try to stop this, or we shall be ruined. The idea of the President's wife receiving in a black silk with simple white fulls at her throat!'"

EDITORIAL NOTES.

San Francisco fears a water famine. Cat bites as well as dog bites sometimes cause hydrophobia. An epidemic of baby shows is complained of in the States. A German editor remarks that in America thieves are so scarce that rewards are offered for them. The champion slanderers of this city are engaged in circulating east and west reports of an incipient rebellion in this Territory. What will be the next weak invention? It is thought England will hold aloof from the European war as long as she is able to do it, and fight when she can't help it, which is soon enough for any nation or individual to begin to fight. "Startling news from Utah!" is a common newspaper headline just now. Who's startled? Take a lantern and find one of those startled people in this part of the country, if you can. The British residents of Petersburg, Va., anticipate having a good time on Queen Victoria's birthday, May 24. The co-operation of the Dominion dignitaries is expected, and the attendance of members of all the British Societies in the United States and Canada is invited.

DIED.

In Virgin City Ward, on North Creek, April 21, LEROY WINSLOW, son of George B. and Harriet M. Gardner, after a lingering illness. For about two years he suffered considerable at times for breath, but at last went without pain or distress like the snuffing of a candle; was a very promising youth, very free and kindhearted, generous to a fault. We feel that he is gathered home to his father and friends that have died in the faith of the everlasting gospel as revealed by Joseph Smith the Prophet, and those we have administered for in the house of the Lord, and we feel to say blessed are they that die in the Lord from henceforth, for they shall rest from their labors and their works shall follow them.—Com.

In the 8th Ward of this city, May 7th, of teething and an affection of the lungs, CLAUD MORONI, son of John and Martha Needham, aged 1 year, 6 months and 8 days.

In Parowan, on the evening of April 27, 1877, MARY AIKENS SMITH, in the eightieth year of her age.

Deceased was born in Barnard, Windsor County, Vermont, August 13, 1797. At an early age she moved with her parents, Nathaniel Aikens and Mary Tupper, to Potsdam, St. Lawrence County, New York, where she attended the Academy and afterwards taught school for a number of years. On the 4th of March, 1823, she married Silas Smith, of Stockholm, in the same county in which she resides. In 1836 her husband having become identified with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, she with him moved to Kirtland Ohio, taking with her letters of commendation from the Congregational minister, to whose fellowship of any others of that faith with whom she might become acquainted. A few months after reaching Kirtland she became convinced of the divinity of the latter-day work and joined the church. In 1838 she with her husband moved to Missouri, but had not found a permanent residence before the Saints were expelled from the State. Here the second of her three sons died, a victim to exposure and privation, caused by mob violence. In September, 1839, her husband died near Pittsburg, Pike County, Illinois. She reached Nauvoo late in the fall of the same year. Sharing in the hardships of the great exodus from the States, she arrived at Winter Quarters in November, 1846, and at Salt Lake Valley, September 25, 1847. She settled at Baby with her sons in 1851. She was a faithful Latter-day Saint and enjoyed a comfortable home and the society of her two sons, Silas S. and Jesse N. Smith, their families, and a large circle of relatives and friends. She had but one wish ungratified, and that was a desire to officiate in the Temple at St. George for herself and on behalf of her kindred. She had a severe attack of pneumonia some months before her death, from the effects of which she never fully recovered. Her faculties remained unimpaired to the close, and she was able to walk about her room until half an hour before her death.—Com.

Coughing Congregations.

Clergymen who are annoyed by fits of coughing and nasal trumpetings so common in churches and meeting-houses at this time of the year, cannot do better than recommend to their flocks an immediate resort to "Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar." The result of the advice, if taken, will be comparative quiet on the succeeding Sabbath; for this potent remedy will by that time have effected a general cure. Many pastors know from experience the value of the preparation as a cure for bronchial affections, and can therefore conscientiously endorse it. Sold by Druggists everywhere at 50 cents and $1. Great saving by purchasing large size. Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Why Advertise?

People sometimes ask why does Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., spend so much money in advertising his family medicines, which are so well known and surpass all other remedies in popularity and sale. It is well known that A. T. Stewart considered it good policy, and undoubtedly it paid him, to spend many hundred thousand dollars in advertising his goods, yet nobody questioned the excellence of his merchandise. The grand secret of success lies in offering only goods which possess merit to sustain themselves, and then through liberal and persistent advertising making the people thoroughly acquainted with their good qualities. Men do not succeed in amassing great fortunes, establishing thriving and permanent businesses, and founding substantial institutions like Dr. Pierce's Grand Invalids' Hotel at Buffalo, which costs over two hundred thousand dollars, unless their business be legitimate, their goods meritorious, and their services which they render the people genuine and valuable. Dr. Pierce does not attempt to humbug you by telling you that his Golden Medical Discovery will cure all diseases. He says, "If your lungs are half wasted by consumption, my Discovery will not cure you, yet as a remedy for severe coughs, and all curable bronchial, throat, and lung affections, I believe it to be unsurpassed as a remedy." The people have confidence in his medicines because he does not over-recommend them, and when tried they give satisfaction. His Medical Adviser, a book of over nine hundred pages, illustrated by two hundred and eighty-two engravings and bound in cloth and gilt, is offered to the people at so moderate a price (1.50, post-paid), that it is no wonder that almost one hundred thousand have already been sold. His memorandum books are on every druggist's counter for free distribution. dsw

Triumphantly.

Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts have stood the test of science and of practical use triumphantly, and now are taking precedence over all others. They are justly entitled to the reputation they have acquired, for their strength, purity and delicacy of flavor. 2
