B.H. ROBERTS ADDRESS M.I.A.'S

Need of Young Peoples' Associations Being Loyal supported in Every Community.

VACOS MURDER CASE TUESDAY

Eighth Grades of City Schools Consolidated—Elite Dye House Robbed—Temperance Lecture.

OGDEN, Sept. 6.—Under the auspices of the Mutual Improvement associations of Weber stake, Elder Brigham H. Roberts addressed a large gathering of young people at the Tabernacle, last evening, on topics of vital importance. He pointed out the necessity of having these organizations loyally supported, stating that they supply the demand for social and secret clubs and educational societies, which are being organized on every hand. In speaking of the seeming lack of interest manifested in some communities toward the young men's association, especially, he said: "We are not trying to keep the organization alive simply because we have it on our hands, but because there is an urgent need of it in every community of young men." Great interest was manifested by all present in the entire address, which Elder Roberts delivered in his clear, characteristic manner. During the service, special music was rendered.

VACOS MURDER TRIAL TUESDAY.

OGDEN, Sept. 6.—An order was issued by Judge Howell to subpoena the witnesses named in the affidavit in the case of the State of Utah vs. Nick Vacos. This case will come up for trial in the district court on Tuesday, Sept. 7, and a special venire of 50 jurymen was drawn. Vacos is held for the shooting of John Contos, a former prominent merchant of Ogden, and the case is being watched very closely.
A. D. Shurtliff, T. A. Whalen and H. McFarland were appointed represents of the estates of Eliza O'Neil, Alexander Ross and Milson Ross.

EIGHTH GRADES CONSOLIDATED.

OGDEN, Sept. 6.—The board of education has made assignments for teachers for the coming school year. A very important change has been made in all the city schools by taking all eighth grades from the various schools and having them placed in a separate building, the sub-high school, under Principal D. H. Adams. Mr. Adams is a specialist in the eighth grade work, and will undoubtedly demonstrate the advantages to be gained in this new method of dealing with that particular grade.

JENSEN-BURTOFT NUPITALS.

OGDEN, Sept. 6.—A marriage license was issued to Fred Burtoft of Salt Lake City and Eliza Jensen, of Milford, Utah. The ceremony was performed by Judge Howell.

DYE HOUSE ROBBED.

OGDEN, Sept. 6.—Thieves entered the establishment of the Elite Cleaning & Dye works on Washington avenue, near the Ogden river bridge, and stole several suits of clothes and dresses. This is the second robbery which has occurred at this place this summer and it may be a warning to the town as well populated with race track followers.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.

Ogden, Sept. 6.—Tonight at the tabernacle, Mayor David E. Rose, of Milwaukee, Wis., will lecture on the subject, "True Temperance." It is understood that Mr. Rose, who is said to be a very fine orator, favors a high license and strict regulation of the liquor traffic as against the prohibition idea.

OGDEN BIE'S.

Saturday afternoon the Twenty-first U. S. infantry, in command of Col.
Nelson Ames, arrived from Fort Logan, Colo., and later departed over the E. P. for Mars Island, Cal.

Prof. Squire Coop has returned from a trip to Alaska and the northwest. He reports a delightful trip and was great-

CONFERENCE OF NORSEMEN AT RICHFIELD.

RICHFIELD, Sevier Co., Sept. 5.— Norsemen are gathered here in large force from all parts of the state to attend the annual conference of the Scandinavian Laborers' Union.
Among the distinguished visitors attending the conference are President Anthony H. Lund, J. M. Skoldahl, editor Deseret News and others from the capital.

The many visitors from other sections of the state were welcomed by the reception committee and taken care of during their stay. Yesterday the band was out to give zest to the welcome accorded the visitors by all citizens.
The railroad company, with its usual respect of this section, only provided three passenger coaches for the accommodation of the people coming by train to Richfield, and as a result many of the passengers had to stand during the journey here.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN BINGHAM MINE.

(Special Correspondence.)

BINGHAM, Salt Lake Co., Sept. 5.— At 3 o'clock this morning at the Boston Consolidated mine Herman A. Kinn Finch, was caught in a cave-in and instantly killed. He was working in a tunnel of the mine, when a great mass of rock and coal, loosened by the heavy rain, came down and buried him.
When the rescue party dug away the rock and dirt they found his body crushed beneath the great weight of earth.
The body was taken to the branch under-taking establishment of Eber W.
Hall at Bingham, where it was held for a week and had been in America about two months.

DAVID J. ROSS IS DROWNED AT FREEDOM, WYO.

(Special Correspondence.)

FREEDOM, Wyo., Sept. 3.—David J.
Ross, well known in Utah in the sixties, and who was a guard at President Brigham Young's gate, was drowned in a shallow creek at Freedom, Wyo., Aug. 29. He had just entered his eighty-eighth year, and his mental powers were much impaired. It appears that he waded into the water and took tramps and then fell over and was drowned.
He was a colonel in the Naavoo Legion and was among the few who had a military training in early days, which he acquired in the Highland regiment in Scotland, and so he became active in drilling the Legion throughout Utah.
He possessed poetic talent of very fair degree, and took delight in sending his intimate friends letters in verse, the poets John Lyon and Henry W. Naisel being among the number.
His only son, a student in his taskmaster of the truth of the restored gospel. He left a sister, Margaret, in Salt Lake, a brother, Alexander near Ogden, three sons and a daughter with large families.

The burial took place at Freedom, Sept. 1.

RECENT DEATHS

CORBIN.—The people of Wallis-ville were shocked last Thursday August 26, to learn that Mrs. Anabella Corbin had passed away due to an attack of heart failure. She was a highly respected and well known and one whom the community will miss. She was one of the earliest settlers in Cache Co., and since early womanhood has been one of the most earnest workers in Wellsville, both in a church capacity and as a citizen. Mrs. Corbin was born Aug. 21, 1821, and she leaves a family of six children, five boys and one girl, all between 18 and 30 years of age. Funeral services were held in the Wellsville tabernacle Sunday, August 29.
The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Among those to speak words of consolation were John Wyatt, Kahapihi Owen, Robert Baxter, Peter M. Maughan, William H. Maughan and Bishop Franklin Gunnell.

HANSON, BOLETTE M.—At Birmingham, Hotel county, Aug. 20.
Mrs. Bolette M. Hanson, wife of the late George F. Hanson, died of a heart after a long illness. Mrs. Hanson was one of the early pioneers of Utah and was the first Scandinavian woman to come to Boulder county, while her husband was one of the first five men to locate in Brigham City. The funeral was held in the Brigham City First ward hall Wednesday, Sept. 1. The speakers, besides Bishop George W.
Watkins, who presided, were Elders William Hordley, S. L. Hansen, Jonah Mathias and President Oleen N. Stohl.

ROOTH, DAVID—At Plain City, Weber county, Sept. 2, David Rooth died of Bright's disease, after a long illness. He was among the respected pioneers of Plain City, he having settled there in the early days and helped to build up that section of country. He was born in England, Nov.
26, 1821, and came to Plain City in the early 40s. He is survived by a wife and one daughter. The wife lives at Plain City and the daughter resides in Mountain.

NELSON, RUPHO.—At Brigham City, Boxelder county, Sept. 4, after a severe illness of over three years from apoplexy, Rupho Nelson found relief in death. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs.

A DISCUSSION.

"Blood Atonement and the Origin of Plural Marriage."
A pamphlet containing over a hundred pages, has just been issued. This pamphlet contains a discussion on the questions quoted, between Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr., and Mr. Richard C. Evans, the latter gentleman being second counselor to the president of the "Reorganizers." The questions are entered into exhaustively by both sides, and a great deal of valuable information is given. Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr., shows by historical data and incontrovertible deductions that the possibility of his opponent is untenable.
