BIG SURPRISE AT FAIR RACE TRACK.

Miss Williams, an Ogden Horse, Captures the Biggest Prize Of Meet.

MINE WILKES WAS DEFEATED.

Cold Storage Does the Trick and Travels a Very Fast Half Mile-Darkness Ended Program.

There was another big crowd of enthusiastic race fans at Agricultural park track yesterday afternoon to witness what proved to be the best race meet of the season. The races lasted for fully four hours and then darkness came and the finish of one event had to be postponed until today. The events were poned until today. The events were marked by red hot finishes and big sur-prises. Probably the greatest surprise to the race wheacres was the victory of the unte Ogden mare, Miss williams, in the freefor-all for a purse of $100. The little barse had but few admirers, but she man-aged to beat such animals as Toreon. Mark Green, Osmond and Kangareo. The me had been looked forward to with a great deal of interest by the turf patrons and it proved to be a good one, requiring four fighting neals before the winner ware ind sured. Toreon and Sarah Green ware the favorites, while Osmond was reour nighting heats before the winner main announced. Torecon and Sarah Green where the favorites, while Osmond was re-mided with suspicion. In the first heat he two favorites made a very poor show-ng while Miss Williams, kangaroo and mond got well away to the front. The genamed was never passed but had a and night with kangaroo in the hnish. The second heat Osmond was picked to ip but became rattied at just the wrong gene. Kangaroo jumped quickly to the ront, but joreon came up with a rush, assed kangaroo and captured the heat. I the second heat Osmond was picked to ip but became rattied at just the wrong gene. Kangaroo and captured the heat, is the third heat Miss Williams got away jeely and maintained her lead to the fin-h, Kangaroo getting second. The other areas acted contrary. In the fourth heat as race was between the little Ogden are and kangaroo until the home picteh was reached, when Osmond woke g and tried hard to secure the lead, liss Williams was never headed, how-ver, and captured the event. Kangaroo at-second place. The unflushed avent the 2:22 nore and shed event, the 2:22 pace and alf was covered in 1:05. As the two bases passed under the wire at the half, iting this terrific pace. Cold Storage peared to be strong and enger, but June olkes was seen to worken and was not the running after that. Five heats of the special trot and pace were run but darkness prevented the fin-h and it will be run this afternoon. The aming events also had to be continued still teday on account of darkness.
