AMONG THE LADIES

The brilliant, fascinating tints of Complexion for which ladies strive are chiefly artificial, and all who will take the trouble may secure them. These roseate, bewitching hues follow the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm—a delicate, harmless and always reliable article. Sold by all druggists.

The Magnolia Balm conceals every blemish, removes Sallowness, Tan, Redness, Eruptions, all evidences of excitement and every imperfection.

Its effects are immediate and so natural that no human being can detect its application.

Maine Ship-building.

NEW YORK, 25.—The Commercial Bulletin says: Ship building in Maine appears to be carried on just now with considerable activity, that State doing pretty much all the sailing vessels building contracted for in American yards. Various yards have evidently their hands full. Steel as a substitue for iron in the construction of hulls is exciting some discussion. It is claimed that steel is lighter and in the long run much less expensive than iron. It is believed that its introduction in ship building will work a revolution in that art and turn the tide of business into our ship yards.

The list of vessels bound for Baltimore, published on Saturday, shows the total to be 265, of which 23 are steamships. The majority of these vessels are already chartered for grain and represent a carrying capacity of 10,000,000 bushels. Many are now fully due and arrivals during the next few weeks will probably be the largest ever recorded in Baltimore.

Trouble in Hayti.

Dispatches from Port au Prince, on August 10th, says: A provisional government has been formed with General La Motte as president. The city is quiet as also the southern provinces. The northern provinces, however, are much disturbed.

The north is under the control of the liberals under Bazalais and the south is under the nationals. The provisional government dispatched a war steamer called the "1804," with troops against the liberals, but the vessel returned, being unable to land troops at Cape Haytian or Gonaives. On the 8th the "1804" blew up in Port au Prince harbor, and became a total wreck. Several persons were killed and wounded. The catastrophe deprived the country of the only war steamer. The explosion is supposed to be the result of party spirit among the officers. It is affirmed that the national party has sent for General Solomon, now living in Jamaica, to become the head of the government.

Fatal Accident.

POTTSTOWN, Pa., 25.—Samuel Lauer, member of the town council, was killed, and John Hoffman, Prise, Willer, Wharton, Bell and a man named Boyer, fatally injured this afternoon by the falling of an arch, which was being removed to make repairs at the blast furnace of the Pottstown Iron Company.

Mrs. Hood Dead.

NEW ORLEANS, 25.—Anna Marie Heunen, wife of Gen. Hood, died at their residence on Third street, near Constance, of yellow fever. The character of the disease developed but a short time before death.

Doctors Smythe and White decide that Mrs. Hood died of puerpal fever.

St. Louis Strikers.

ST. LOUIS, 25.—All the Chinese cigar makers in the city, eight in number, have signed the terms of agreement of the Cigar Makers' Union, and joined the strikers. Twenty-two cigar manufacturers have agreed to the Union price list, and others are expected to follow.

All the stove foundries in the city excepting two, the proprietors of which have agreed to demand an advance in the prices, are idle.

Careless R. R. Officials.

PHILADELPHIA, 25.—The coroner's investigation into the cause of the collision on the narrow gauge railroad, on the 14th inst., resulted to-day in holding to bail on a charge of manslaughter, J. L. Veriz, assistant superintendent, Chas. E. Redmon, telegraph operator, at Camden, Elwood Johnson, engineer of the freight train and John A. Ewings, conductor of the freight train.

Two Men Fight and Kill Each Other.

KANSAS CITY, 25.—Jas Dobbins and Michael Burns, farmers and neighbors, living six miles west of here in Kansas, had a desperate and fatal encounter on Friday evening, in which both were killed. It seems Dobbins owed Burns money, and on the evening named, while passing Burns' place, was dunned offensively for it by Burns, the latter having a revolver in his hand. Dobbins said, "You have the drop on me now, but if you'll wait till I come back, I'll be ready to meet you." Dobbins then drove home, got two revolvers, went back to Burns' house, found him sitting on the door step and opened fire on him. Burns went into his house, got his revolver, and rushed on Dobbins. Several shots were exchanged at very close quarters. Dobbins received two shots in the chest and one through the head, while Burns was shot in the abdomen, the ball passing clear through the body, and in the right arm. Notwithstanding these terrible wounds, the men clinched in fierce and deadly struggle, Dobbins falling underneath. In this position Burns beat Dobbins over the head with the butt of his pistol till he thought him dead, and had partially risen from the ground, when Dobbins turned him and was about to beat him, when neigbors arrived and separated them. Dobbins died before he could be taken home, and Burns died early the next morning.

YELLOW FEVER.

MEMPHIS, 25.—Miss Birdie Goff died of yellow fever last evening.

The Howard Association to-day sent a nurse to White Station, some ten miles east of the city, on the Charleston railroad, where a negro lies sick with fever.

During a storm last night a frame building occupied by Mrs. Holds and two children, in South Memphis, all sick with fever, was blown down. Mrs. Holds will probably die from exposure.

Miss Lizzie Rhodes died of the fever this morning, three miles out on the Raleigh road. The facts show that cases are spreading to the country towns.

Ten new cases are reported this morning. Eight deaths have occurred since last night.

A telegram was received from the Mayor and President of the County Board of Health contradicting the report that yellow fever exists at Starkeville, Miss.

The weather is clear. The thermometer at daylight this morning indicated 64 degrees.

WESTERN.

THE LATEST FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

The "Chronicle's" Statement—The Messenger's Story, etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, 25.—The Chronicle's leading article this morning on the shooting of Kalloch is as follows:

We do not intend to comment in detail upon the deplorable event of Saturday morning. The time has not yet come for a calm and candid discussion of the merits of the case, but if there is in this great city one human being in the shape of a man and pretending to the dignity of manhood, who could tamely have heard the mother that bore him assailed in language too vile to be repeated without offence to modest ears, let that despicable creature throw the first stone at the avenger of the greatest insult ever offered to a woman, venerable in years and irreproachable in character. When men present themselves before people as candidates for office, they become fair and proper subjects for criticism. If their antecedents and their record are ventilated, they have no right to complain. From the moment in which they offer themselves a candidates they become public property, but their households and homes should be sacred; whatever may be the blots upon their record, these mothers, wives, sisters and daughters should not be brought into the fight. No manly or chivalrous antagonist would resort to so despicable a system of warfare, and no human being with natural instincts which belong to us all as sons, brothers and husbands, can be expected, without special grace from on high, to hear those who are nearest and dearest to him coarsely aspersed and vilified before the public without experiencing an overwhelming impulse to resent the outrage. Let those who are disposed to indulge in harsh judgments in this case make it their own. Let them consider what they themselves would have been impelled to do had their own mothers and sisters been subjected to brutal insult before a public assemblage.

In another article it takes exceptions to the Bulletin editorial telegraphed as written with a view to incite mob violence. It also alleges that the Bulletin and Call encouraged Kalloch to take the course he did by advertising his meetings and intention in their news columns. It also compliments the authorities and conduct of the police and military in preserving order.

The excitement of the past few days has toned down to-day, and the interest in the result of Kalloch's wounds, and universal inquiry on the street, is as to his condition. This afternoon a decided change for the better was noticeable, as a result of which physicians express the opinion that there is a strong probability of his recovery. Notwithstanding these favorable symptoms there is still a good deal of talk among workingmen as to the course to be pursued in the event of a fatal termination

Among the rank and file there is a strong desire visible to put up Kearney for mayor should a change become necessary; but the desire is shared neither by the agitator nor his friends, and it may be considered certain that nothing of the kind will be done.

At the police station vigilance has been relaxed during the day, and only a few officers were on duty and a few militia men. Workingmen's specials, sworn in for the purpose of making sure that De Young is not spirited away, still remain on duty. A crowd has lingered around the Metropolitan Temple all day, but otherwise there have been no street assemblages, except around the bulletin boards.

The leaders of the Workingmen's party held a conference with Kalloch's medical attendants to-day, to consider the expediency of putting up some other man for mayor. The physicians informed them that at present they saw nothing in the condition of Kalloch to render such a course necessary, intimating a probability of his early recovery.

Charles De Young was brought before the police Court to-day, and waiving an examination, was held to answer the charge of assult to murder without bail.

Great interest is manifested to obtain a statement from the American district messenger boy, who accompanied De Young in the coupe, at the time of the shooting, but a difficulty was experienced in finding him, as his name at first was kept a secret. A number of contradictory statements were given out as to the course adopted by De Young immediately by a reporter of the Bulletin to-day, and the statement published is a follows:

About 9 oclock on Saturday morning a gentleman drove up to the branch office, at No. 961 Mission street, in a coupe and called for the messenger boy. It was my turn to go out, and I went with him. I did not knew the gentleman in the coupe, never having seen him before. We drove on to No. 2134 Nineteenth street. He told me to go to the house and inquire for Mr. Kalloch and tell him that a lady in the croupe wanted to see him. The door was opened by a boy. I delivered the message, and the boy told me that Dr. Kalloch was not in. That gentleman told me to enquire what Mr. Kalloch's office hours were. I was told that he was at his office from 10 to 12. We drove from Mr. Kalloch's house along Mission Street to Fifth. Before reaching Fifth Street, Mr. De Young lowered the window of the coupe, we turned down Jessie Street to the entrance of the Temple, passing a buggy before stopping. When we stopped Mr. De Young peeped through the curtain of the rear window of the coupe, and said: "You see that man with a white ulster on?" Tell him that a lady in the coupe wants to see him." I went to the gentleman in the white ulster. He was in a buggy accompanied by another man, and in the act of picking up the lines when I delivered Mr. De Young's message. He at once stepped down and approached the coupe, cautiously as if he anticipated something wrong, peering sideways at the window of the coupe. When he reached the coupe a shot was fired, which frightened me so that I ran as fast as I could back to the office. The boy had not read the accounts in the papers of the impending difficulty between De Young and Kalloch. He did not suspect at any time during the ride that the person with him in the coupe intended to do any harm. The gentleman was cool and there was nothing about his person to indicated that he contemplated the deed that was committed.

One of the police on duty at Kalloch's stated that about half-past seven he got an opportunity to look through the window, and saw Kalloch sitting up in bed with a pillow behind him. He professed to believe that the reports of his critical condition were greatly exaggerated.

Only Christians.

John Wesley once was troubled in regard to the disposition of the various sectaries and the chances of each in reference to future happiness or punishment. A dream one night transported him in its uncertain wanderings to the gates of hell.

"Are there any Roman Catholics here?" asked thoughtful Wesley.

"Yes," was the reply.

"Any Presbyterians?"

"Yes," was again the answer.

"Any Congregationalists?"

"Yes."

"Any Methodists?" by way of a clincher, asked the pious Wesley.

"Yes," was answered to his great indignation.

In the mystic way of dreams, a sudden transition, and he stood at the gates of heaven. Improving his opportunity, he again inquired:

"Are the any Roman Catholics here?"

"No," was replied.

"Any Presbyterians?"

"No."

"Any Congregationalists?"

"No."

"Any Methodists?"

"No."

Well, then," he asked, lost in wonder, "who are they inside?"

"Christians!" was the jubilant answer.
