DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1901.

12.4.8

Weddings have been the predominant events of the week, and Wednesday has, as previously, borne off the palm for the number of nuptial affairs transpiring on that day.

With the end of June the dizzy record of the past four weeks will suffer an appreciable diminuation, the summer months being comparatively unpopular for hymeneal events. A number of other pleasant affairs have added to the social activities of the present week.

On Wednesday night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. B. Shoe-bridge, Bishop O. F. Whitney per-formed the ceremony which united in marriage Miss Carol Shoebridge and Monroe Wilkinson of Mammoth. Only the members of the two families and intimate friends of the bride and bride's gown was of white silk mull, with gold trimming, and the bridesmaid Miss Lorena Hughes, wore blue mull. The little flower girl, Lorena Tribe, wa in white. Mr. Lou Ensign acted as best man and little Kenneth Young wa-ring-bearer. Mr and Mrs, Young left on the 8:20 train for an eastern trip, and on their return will reside at 144 South Tenth East streed. South Tenth East streed.

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Saville on Wednesday night, when their daughter, Miss Mabel Saville, and Richard Wright, were united in mar-riage, Bishop O. F. Whitney officiating, in the presence of relatives and inti-mate friends of the bride and groom. mate friends of the brue and groun. A reception followed in the evening, the rooms being beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers and vines. The bride was prettily attired in white, Refreshments were served in the flower Refreshments were served in the novel adorned dining room, relatives and friends of the bride assisting. Mr, and Mrs. Wright will be at home to their friends shortly on Fourth East street.

. . . At the home of Rev. F. L. Arnold on Wednesday, Miss Anna Reid and Josiah Thomas were married, the Rev. Arnold performing the ceremony at 4 o'clock and a reception following later at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Agnes Cut flowers and smilax were Reid. used in profusion throughout the house and a large number of guests were present to extend good wishes. The bride word a handsome gown of white which took place at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Caleb E. Pye in the evening, the marriage hav-ing been solemnized in the Temple dur-

Among the many marriages solemand pretty feature was a large recep-tion tent, brilliantly lit, and decorated that of Miss Frances Farnes and Alfred with flowers and the American and English flags. The dining room was in the ceremony. A reception was held in assisted by Mrs. J. T. Harris, Mrs. Filer, Miss Burke, Miss Thorn, Miss Dern, Miss McMillan, About 200 guests were present.

KING EDWARD'S NEW FAVORITE.

On Wednecday Miss Rosalia Jenkins and Mr. Carl A. Badger were united in marriage at the Temple, Apostle Heber J. Grant performing the ceremony. In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bidden events 60 month home of the bride's parents, 659 south West Temple, about 130 guests being present. The lawn was lit with Chinese lanterns and the rooms pretily decorat. ed with Jupe roses. A musical pro-gram was rendered by W. C. Clive, Horace Ensign, James S. Griggs, Mrs. Maud Griggs, Miss Lutie Grant, Miss Virginia Finer, Delicious refresh-ments were served, and the evening was delightfully spent. Mr. and Mrs. Bad-ger will reside at 659 south West Temple street.

Next Tuesday evening Mr. Tracy Y Cannon will be tendered a testimonial in the Cannon ward meeting house by the members of that ward. A select musical program has been arranged for the occasion. Mr. Cannon leaves early in July for 大学大学 England to engage in missionary work.

3477-134

が東京 Prof. J. A. Anderson and his sister, Mrs. H. W. Early, gave a delightful musical at his residence on East Brigham street, on Wednesday evening, in honor of Prof. E. C. Heffley of Pitts-burg, Pa. The lawn was pret-tily lit with Chinese lanterns and inside, the rooms were NTHERE AND A DESCRIPTION OF bright with June flowers, while a mu-sical program rendered by the dozen artists present made the entertainment a most notable one. Refreshments were served and a delightful time spent. Following were those who participated: Prof. Anderson, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. D. Walker, Miss Cecelia Sharp, Miss F. Walker, aliss Cecella Sharp, aliss Hattle Jennings, Miss Louise Richards, Miss Lottle Anderson, Miss Lucile Clinton, Miss Hortense Anderson, Mr. Xavier Sager, Mr. Matterson, Mr. P. T. Farnsworth Jr., Miss Read, Professors Stayner, Welhe, Lund, Shephard, Heffley. . . .

Instructor Alexander J. Nielson of the University Branch Normal and Miss Andrea Jessen were married in the Salt Lake Temple on Thursday, Bishop John 凶 R. Winder officiating. A reception was held in the evening at the home of the recent's sister. Mrs. H. Peterson, 123 groom's sister, Mrs. H. Peterson, M street, where immediate room M street, where immediate relatives gathered in honor of the occasion. The rooms were prettily decorated and a dainty supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Nielson will live in this city, and will be at home to their many friends at No. 375 Eighth East street.

At the residence of Mrs. R. Van Steeter on Thursday, Mrs. Emma Hof-fenbeck and Mr. Frank Y. Tr. nto were married, the ceremony being performed by Mr. Albert Seare at 8 o'clock. A number of guests were present and the event was a most delightful one. Flowers filled every appropriate place and the mandolin club furnished choice musical selections during the evening. A sumptuous repast was served in the prettily decorated dining room. The bride wore a becoming gown of gray Venetian cloth with trimmings of pink silk. Mr. and Mrs. Toronto will be at home at 643 West South Temple, after July 1st.

Thurslay with saed the marriage of M'ss Fannie L. Parry rd Mr. Joseph Lu bldg, the ceremony being per-formed in the Temple by Bisnop J. R. Winder, and a reception to the friends and relatives of the newly, married couple being held at the house of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Parry. The bride wore a dainty cosof white chiffon with trimmings of white satin and applique lace. The house was prettily decorated and a delicious wedding supper was served,

Photo by Johnson.

HALL AND LIBRARY IN W. A. NELDEN'S HOME.

The above cut shows a portion of the hall and library in W. A. Nelden's residence on the corner of First South and Twelfth East streets. The hall is handsomely finished in redwood, its curved staircase, and ceiling with crossbeams of the polished wood, with walls tinted in terra cotta, being notably rich and attractive in effect. The parlor, which opens from the hall, is in white and gold, with tapestries of pale green; and the library, which also opens from the hall, is done in walnut, with shades of tan in walls and furnishings harmonizing with the wood. The dining room is finished in oak and is done in the old English style, with high wainscoting, etc., the walls being tinted in old rose. The sleeping apartments are up stairs, and are in harmony with the rest of the tasteful and convenient interior.

pleasantly, and it was late ere the informal party broke up and dispersed to their homes.

Mrs. W. W. Riter was hostess at a delightful dinner party on Monday given in honor of Col. Thomas of Lon-don. The table was decorated with roses, sweet peas and carnations with smilax prettily intertwined. The guests were Col. Thomas, Mrs. Priscilla Jen-nings, Mrs. B. Y. Dougall, Apostle and Mrs. John Henry Smith, Bishop and Mrs. Walter Beatie, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hyde. Dr. and Mrs. Kingsbury, E. Hyde. Dung. Prof. Lee Young.

The engagement is announced of Miss Hermie Pratt to William W. Rogers. The prospective bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laron Pratt and the grand-daughter of the late Orson Pratt. Mr. Rogers is a prominent busin man of this city. The wedding will take place in July.

Creek, headed by Messrs Bowden, Bar-ratt and Sharp, took possesion of his house. The evening was spent very Bishop Emery. Mr. Isaac A. Emery of Salt Lake were Bishop Emery. driven in a carriage to the home of the bride's parents, No. 545 Twanty-eighth street, where they were received to Bishop Emery. One of July's weddings will be that of Miss Mary Walker, and Emil Wismar, the event to take place next Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs, Don H. Porter and Miss Mamie Porter have returned from the East. * * * Mrs. Hubbard Reed has issued invitations to a tea next Thursday. Miss Ollie Meyers has returned from her Denver trip. Misses Edyth and Clare Ellerbeck have gone to join their mother, Mrs. Emma Ellerbeck, at Long Beach, California. They will remain for the summer.

. . . Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Campbell are at home at 457 South Main street.

bride's parents, No. 545 Twenty-eighth street, where they were received by their relatives and a short time was spent in the guests extending congratu-lations and wishes for a long and prosperous journey through life. The bride and groom with the wedding guests were ushered into the dining room, where a sumptuous wedding repast was prepared and served. The remainder of the evening was spent in music, vocal and instrumental, and conversation. and instrumental, and conversation. The bride wore a very beautiful gown of white silk, trimmed with lace. The home was very prettily decorated with roses, everymens, potted plants, etc., making a very beautiful effect. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Glibbong, pioneers of Weber county She is a young lady possessing many talents is a young lady nonsessing many talents and charms. The groom is the son of Mr, and Mrs. F. C. Woods, and a member of the firm of F. C. Woods & Co., architects. They are both well and om were present during the se but later a reception was given to a large number of friends. As the bridal party entered the room, a mandolin and guitar quartet played the Lohengrin march, and Mendelssohn's at the close of the ceremony. The bride was at-tended by Miss Louie Shoebridge, and Mr. Samuel McIntyre was best man. The bride wore a beautiful costume of white chiffon, trimmed with Valen-sciennes lace, and carried roses. The bridesmaid was gowned in blue mouse line de sole and carried American beauty roses. The bridal party stood in the window alcove, which was festooned with smilax and crowned with a basket of bride's roses and ferns tied with white satin ribbon. Swung from the window to the chandelier were strands of sonilax, completing a pretty bower effect and carnations, roses an sweet peas made up the rest of the decorations. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was prettill adorned with pink and white sweet peas. The punch bowl was presided over by Miss Hazel Shoebridge. Mr and Mrs. Wilkinson will reside at Mammoth.

. . . Miss Hattle Wallace and Mr. Oscar

'A. Peterson were married in the Tem-ple on Wednesday at noon, Apostle Brigham Young officiating, and in the evening a delightful reception was held at the home of Mrs Ame-lia Folsom Young, the bride's aunt. The parlor in which the bridal party received was brilliant with roses, oleanders and ferns, the bow window being embowered in the latter and tastefully decorated throughout with plants and flowers. The bride's gown was a pretty creation of white chiffon and Valensciennes lace. Her little sisters, Ruby and Rhea Wallace, attended her, were daintily who gowned in white, and carried baskets of flowers. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wallace, the parents of the Young, Miss Hilma Peterson, London's social exclusives are shocked at King Edward VII's growing partiality for Liane de Pougy, the notorious Parisian beauty, who at different times has been the favorite of the King of Belgians, Prince Napoleon Bonaparte, Gen. Boulanger, Prince Henry of Orleans and many other men of eminence. Edward has lunched and supped with her many times and shows her many attentions.

were served by Mrs. Frances, Mrs. Brixen and Miss Aggle Campbell. The bride was exceedingly pretty in a gown of white chiffon with trimmings of Mechlin lace. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford will be at home after July 10 at 30 West North Temple street.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Maude Davis, of Murray, and Mr. S. S. Rey-nolds, of this city, were married, the ceremony being performed in the Temple by Elder George Reynolds, father of the groom, and a wedding dinner being served later at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Edwin C. Penrose, at 248 South Third East, to the bride and groom and a few relatives and friends. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses and carnations, the dining room being especially pretty with tables adorned with sweet peas and plumosa. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will reside at No. 2 Barrows avenue.

Wednesday's nuptial events num-bered that of Miss Florence Louise Hughes and Mr. John W. Ensign, the ceremony being performed at 5 o'clock at the bride's home on Tenth East eorge E. Wallace, the street, Bishop Robert Morris performed sided at the punch table and was assisting the ceremony, and afterward an elab-tima Peterson, Miss orate wedding dinner was served in the lining room were Mrs. W. M. Margeret Pyper and Miss Gussie John- | prettily decorated dining room, The Ferry, and Miss Mary Louise Anderson, white and green, and refreshments | the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Farnes, the rooms being prettily decorated with flowers, and a large number being present. The bride wore a becoming gown of white mull with trimmings of ribbon and lace. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will reside at 60 West Capitol street, and will be at home to their friends and will both.

One of the elaborate events of the week was the reception given by Mrs. James X. Ferguson and Miss Keith or Thursday afternoon. The event took place at Miss Keith's home on East Brigham street, and lasted from 2 until o'clock. The handsome residence was beautifully decorated, the parlor being especially artistic in a profusion of crimson rambler roses, the library with vases of carnations, and the hall in nasturtians, the mantel being literally banked. The dining room was beautifully done in pink and green, a large centerpiece of sweet peas being daintily shrowded in white tulle, with pink rib-bons alding in the effect. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Jacob Bamberger, Mrs. Robert Smith and Miss Judge. Mrs. Channing pre-

 NIECES TO STAY WITH MCKINLEYS.

Miss Ida. The three nices of Mrs. McKinley, Miss Kitty, Miss Mary, and Miss Ida Barber, will probably be the guests of the President and his wife at their cozy Canton home. The girls are greatly attached to their amiable aunt.

About 100 guests were present, and the bride and groom were the recipients of the heartlest congratulations and good wishes. . . .

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harris was the scene of a pretty wedding re-ception on Wednesday night in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Maud, and Irvine Strong. The rooms were beautifully decorated and delicious refreshments were served. The marriage ceremony was performed early in the day at the Temple. The bride wore a becoming gown of silver gray silk with trimmings of applique

Mr. and Mrs. Strong will be at home after July 7, at 651 east, Fourth South street.

Among the notable events of Wednesday was the banquet given by Prest. Lorenzo Snow and the general board of the Y. M. M. I. associations to Apostle H. J. Grant, and Elders Ensign, Kelsch and Taylor. Seventy-five guests were present, the tables being laid in the dining room and hall. The guests of honor vere the recipients of many expressions of sentiment relative to their prospective mission to the Orient, and musical program was also enjoyed. the numbers being furnished by Prof. A. C. Lund, Apostle H. J. Grant, Geo. D. Pyper, H. S. Ensign, Miss Lute Grant, and H. A. Kelch.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Gridley entertained at dinner at the Alta club on Wednesday evening. The table was spread in the green room, and the decoations were in pink and white. Pres-nt were: Mr. and Mrs. Gridley, D. E. Burley, Miss Kinney, Miss Fuller, Miss Duchene, the Misses Gridley.

On Thursday night Mr. Burley gave a dinner at the Alta club, covers be-ing laid for eight. American beauty roses were an effective decoration, and he same guests as on the previous vening were presnt.

Mr. M. H. Walker was the host at a Mr. M. H. Walker was the host at a dinner party at the Alta club on Thura-day evening in honor of Mr. James Knox Taylor of Washington, D. C., the other guests being Mr. Witcher Jones, Mr. J. R. Walker, Mr. L. H. Farns-worth. The red room was used and the table was descended with each worth. The red room was the table was decorated with sweet peas.

On Thursday night an elaborate banquet was given at the East Side Bap-tist church in honor of the newly elected officers who are as follows: Presi-tent, Claude H. Smith; vice president, Martha Wisman; treasurer, Irwin Gaumer; secretary, Llydia Wisman; orresponding secretary, Mrs. L. D Edwards; junior superintendent, Miss Emma F. Parsons. The menu served was both sumptuous and delicious, and toasts were made and responded to in the happiest vein, the event being a most delightful one.

The marriage of Miss Clare Wilson daughter of Mrs. Lawrence Warrell, and Monroe S. Evans took place on Wednesday in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom, Rev. S. G. Roper officiating.

Mrs. T. W. Whitely entertained the J. B. McKean Woman's Relief corps at her home yesterday afternoon. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

The Epworth League gave a most enjoyable social on Thursday night at the lliff M. E. church. The price of ad-mission was gauged by the size of the Individual, each being assessed 5 cents a foot, and 1 cent for every inch over. A delightful musical program was rendered and supper was served.

The Misses Hitch, Fowler, Ramsay and Harper, leave next week for a trip to the Pacific coast, including Portland and San Francisco; at the latter place they will attend the meeting of the Epworth league.

Lieut, G. W. Gibbs was the recipient of a pleasant surprise at his residence, 775 Eleventh East Tuesday evening, when some thirty residents of Mill

Mrs. D. O. Calder announces the engagement of her daughter Annie to Robert B. Rogers. The wedding will take place in July.

Miss Hattie Park and George Howard, of Nephi, and Miss Etta Mc-Bride and Samuel A. Snead, of this city, were married in the City and County building, on Wednesday, Deputy Clerk Emery officiating.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Mark's church, have elected the following of-ficers for 1901-2: Mrs. F. P. Dickert president; Mrs. Wallace, vice presi-dent; Mrs. John Houghton, secretary; Mrs. J. A. Reeves, treasurer.

Mrs. S. W. Eccles and Miss Mildred Eccles have returned home from a pleasant visit to Denver.

Francis L. Woods. The ceremony was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple Mr. August Raht entertained Mr. Wednesday afternoon, June 26, Bishop John R. Winder officiating. In the eveand Mrs. Cyrus Robinson of Denver at dinner at the Alta club Monday evening. The green room was used, and sweet peas in various colors were used in the table decoration.

Mrs. Elias A. Smith entertained a number of Park City friends at luncheon Monday at the Alta club.

A large number of theatre parties are being made up for the concert to be given in honor of Mr. Lee Young.

Mrs. Charles Read entertained at a delightful luncheon at the Alta club on Thursday.

Miss Winnie Welby entertained at cards yesterday.

Miss Clara Brooks, who graduated this spring from the Pratt Institute with high honors, returned from New York this week.

Miss Ida Savage is home from her year's stay in New York.

Miss Essle Morris of Helena is the guest of Mrs. Louis Simon. Si spend the summer in Salt Lake. She will Miss Jennie Greene and Mrs. Emma Bledso have gone to Chicago to at-tend the exercises at the medical college from which their brother, R. A. Greene, will graduate.

Dr. A. H. McChrystal and Mr. Mark McChrystal have returned from New York. . . .

Mr. M. Cohn, of Missouri, will spend the next few weeks in Salt Lake visit-ing with his sister, Mrs. H. E. Schiller.

The Ladies of the Maccabees, Banner Hive No. 11, were entertained on Tuesday by Mrs. H. G. Cohn.

Mrs. Albert S. Day will give a recep-tion on July 3rd in honor of her guests, Mrs. M. C. Smith and Mrs. George D.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brownlee have returned from St. Louis.

in Provo canyon. They will be absent two or three weeks.

who have been the guests of Mrs. Abiel Leonard for some time past, left on Tuesday for their home in Chicago.

returned from their bridal trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley and Mrs. Richard Vedder, of Pueblo, Colo., will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Green next week.

summer in Salt Lake as the guest of Mrs. H. A. Joplin.

Miss Miriam Ajax of Grantsville and jaunt to Castilla. A low rate on the railroad has been obtained and all who go evidently have a good time in store as the hospitality of the Opal club is something that was long since demonstrated to be a leading factor in that organization. The special train leaves the R. G. W. station at 9:35 tomorrow morning. There will be two trains re-turning, one at 4:02 the other at 9:30.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

Ogen, June 29.-One of the leading so-cial events of the week was the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Gibbons to Mr.

pepularly known in the city. They re-ceived many beautiful and costly wed-ding presents. Mr. and Mrs. Woods have taken up their home in a praty The excursion to be given by the Opal club and Held's band, which will take place tomorrow, gives promise of be-ing a very successful affair. The pop-ularity of the club and the presence coltage on the corner of Thirty-first street and Sullivan avenue, where they of the band make a combination that is sure to induce a large number to join the excursionists on their pleasure will be pleased to receive their many friends.

. . .

well and

Gorge Lochhead, the well known check clerk for the Union Pacific Rallroad company, was given a very de-lightful birthday party Thursday eve-ning, June 27, at his pretty home. No. 721 Twenty-sixth street. Mr. Lochhead had reached his 49th milestone in life, and his family arranged the party to celebrate the same. There was present a large number of his friends and an evening long to be remembered was spent by all present in music, feasting, playing games. Walter Richey returned this week from an extended business trip to

Idaho. 1.4.4.4

John R. Winder officiating. In the eve-ning the young couple returned to Og-den, and were met at the depot and home Monday evening from a visit of

·····

AN "OPEN IN THE BACK" WAIST.

Crabbe.

Prof. William M. Stewart and family left on Wednesday for a camping trip

Mrs. E. M. Halsted and Miss Halsted

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome O. Cross have

Miss Florence Jones will spend the

