

SENATOR DICK WINS IN OHIO

Secures Re-election as Chairman of The Republican State Executive Committee.

FORAKER'S GREAT SPEECH.

Praises President and Refers in Jocular Way to His Spelling Reform Program.

Dayton, O., Sept. 11.—The victory of Senator Dick in securing a re-election to the state leadership or rather to the chairmanship of the state executive committee, by the decisive vote of 14 to 1, was second in interest in the discussion tonight to the sensational speech of Senator Foraker before the Republican state convention which met here today. Coming after the address by temporary Chairman Herrick and giving the audience a chance to see the senator from Ohio in familiar surroundings, this speech effected a high pitch in the probable effect on the delegates to the convention tomorrow and the possibility of an answer from Congressman Burton during the morning session were thoroughly gone over.

Tonight the endorsement of the president and the two senators is considered probable in the platform, although there is some talk of carrying the fight to the floor of the convention.

What promised to be a simply a routine session of the work of the Republican state convention developed into a somewhat remarkable discussion of party policy this afternoon.

Farmer Gov. Myron T. Herrick, who had been announced as temporary chairman by the state executive committee, delivered the regular opening address in which he denounced bossism, approved a revision of the tariff and spoke at some length on other matters of party interest.

At the conclusion of the speech the crowd insisted on hearing Senator Foraker. After some urging the senator delivered a characteristic address in which he commented on some of the points made by Chairman Herrick, criticizing in a somewhat jocular way some of the matters acted upon by President Roosevelt and especially joking about the matter of spelling revision, called attention to the president's desire for a "stand pat" tariff and the demand in Mr. Herrick's address for tariff revision, earnestly defended his own course in the senate and ended with some remarks on the round the world trip of Mr. Bryan and his home-coming.

The speech was warmly received, especially when the senator paid his tributes to the various prominent Republicans in the convention and talked about Mr. Bryan.

SENATOR FORAKER'S SPEECH.

Senator Foraker opened with an eloquent tribute to Gov. Harris, and concluding said in part:

"Congressional elections are always important, but they are especially and particularly so this year. They are thus unusually important because this year they involve not only the political complexion of the next house of representatives, but as the governor has suggested and others have pointed out, they involve also directly and immediately the question whether or not the Americans propose in November next to endorse and approve the administration of Theodore Roosevelt."

"President Roosevelt has had more to do than any other president ever before with the legislation that Congress has been enacting. President Roosevelt proposes that it was for that reason he himself took the initiative as to this

"First Aid" to the Bowels

WHEN Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Headache, Bad Breath, coated Tongue, Belching of Stomach, Gas, or any of these forerunners of indigestion appear, Old Dr. Cascaret wants to be right on the spot in your pocket.

Dr. Cascaret guarantees to cure the most obstinate cases of Constipation and Indigestion, without discomfort or inconvenience.

His medicine does not gripe nor purge, but exercises, naturally the muscles that line the walls of the Intestines and Bowels.

Want of Exercise weakens and relaxes the Bowel-Muscles, just as it weakens Arm and Leg muscles.

Old Dr. Cascaret goes directly after these Bowel-Muscles. He wakes them up just as a cold bath would wake up a lazy person.

Then he works them (through the nerves) till they get so strong from that Exercise that they don't need any more help to do their duty.

Heavy dinners, late suppers, whiskey, wine or beer drinking, nervous excitement, sudden exposure to cold or heat and a dozen other everyday likelihoods tire the Bowel-Muscles.

In such cases a little Cascaret in time is worth fifty dollars worth of Treatment later on, to say nothing of the suffering, discomfort, loss of Business Energy, and loss of Social Sunshine it saves.

campaign. He took it when a few weeks ago he called in conference with him at Oyster Bay the speaker of the house, Mr. Cannon, and various members of the congressional campaign committee and there determined what our platform should be in this campaign and determined, not that it should be as Gov. Herrick has suggested, merely tariff revision, but that we should stand pat until the next election. If the people of Ohio stand for what ever Theodore Roosevelt stands for, they will not stand for tariff revision this year. For he himself has determined it, has spoken it, has proclaimed it, not alone as the official result of that conference but in his now celebrated letter to Mr. Watson. His idea is that our platform in this contest should be not promises as to the future, but the performances of the past. Let us take an account of stock, says he; let us hold up to the people what we have done and let us find out whether or not they approve of what we have done. Now, what is it we have done? It is too late for me to tell you; the list of achievements is too long for me to enumerate.

"Mr. Bryan, the peerless leader of the Democratic party, has made a speech—one in particular, he has made many, but one in particular in which he has cast the horoscope and in which he has approved all we have done, and does not seek to make the issues of 1908 on account of anything we have done, but says the issues will be two: tariff revision and government ownership of the railroads.

"Mr. Bryan says we must have tariff revision. Some day, my fellow citizens, we will want it and we will have it, but that is a question for the Republican party to determine.

"My fellow citizens, the great mass of the people of the country, while recognizing that schedules are not inviolate, that they are made to be changed, are of the opinion so happily expressed by Speaker Cannon when he stated, in his speech before the convention that renominated him in Illinois, that the Republican party would revise the tariff, not when Mr. Bryan or some other Democrat told us to, but we would do it when revision would do less harm than non-revision would do good. That is the position of the Republican party.

That is the opinion of President Roosevelt. That is the opinion of Speaker Cannon. That is the opinion as I understand, of all the great leaders in the Republican party of the nation. Let us not here today pour a discordant note into the ears of the people.

"Just another word. I am a little touchy about some things. When I am told that I am to stand for whatever some other man stands for, no matter what it may be, I am not going to subscribe to it. It has been my pleasure to stand with President Roosevelt on most of his recommendations, but I cannot go with him on all of them. I draw the line, for instance, on phonetic spelling.

"Phonetically it may be all right, but esthetically it is to me insupportable. No, I am not for it, and I do not think the people will think any the less of me for speaking right out in meeting and saying that I am not for it. And it would not make a bit of difference to me if he did.

"I have always considered it an honor to be a United States senator. I never understood that somebody was to tell me how to vote, either at that end of the line or at this end of the line; especially not about great and profound constitutional questions about which the lawyers differ. I thought I was to work them out; I was to speak for you. I pursue that policy. If that is not right, if on the contrary a man is to be rebuked because he exercises the qualifications with which he is endowed, then I take all the honor away from the office, and so far as I am concerned you can take the office with it if the senatorial office does not carry with it the right of the man holding the office to do according to his own judgment, to discharge according to his sense of duty, free and untrammelled, the official obligation to support and maintain the Constitution of the United States which he takes when he enters upon his office.

"We are going to have a great convention tomorrow, in some respects the greatest in the history of this state, for it is to settle, among other things, the questions I have just adverted to.

"Of course, personally I have some interest in that question, but if I had no interest except that it is a personal one, I would not have the temerity to come here and beg you to endorse me."

OREGON SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Results, One Man Killed, One Dying. Three Seriously Injured.

Salem, Or., Sept. 11.—One man killed, another dying and three more or less seriously injured is the result of a shooting affray which took place in a saloon of William Murphy at St. Paul, this country, tonight. The outcome of a brawl between a crowd of roughs and Town Marshal J. A. Krechter and posse. Marshal Krechter is dead, and an unidentified stranger, was mortally wounded and Alfred Lambert of St. Paul, Or., one of the marshal's posse, was shot in the arm. Two other strangers were shot but their names and the nature of their injuries were not ascertained. Sheriff Culver, was notified and started for St. Paul immediately. The principals in the shooting affray made their escape and it is believed will resist arrest in case they are overtaken. The disturbers were hop kickers and had been drinking all day. Tonight they started trouble in the saloon and Marshal Krechter and a posse went to the resort to quell the disturbance. Several persons were severely beaten in the melee.

METROPOLITAN OPERA SEASON.

New York, Sept. 11.—Heinrich Conried, director of the Metropolitan Opera House, returned to New York today from Europe, and outlined the presentation of the 26 operas for which an expenditure of $250,000 has been made to provide a new score of music, costumes, scenery and properties, this being made necessary by the loss of the old property in the San Francisco earthquake and fire.

Caruso, Conried's leading tenor, will appear this winter in six new parts, singing in "Fedora," "L'Africaine," "Adrienne Lecouvreur," "Madame Butterfly," and "Manon."

Another feature of the season will be the presentation of Richard Strauss' "Salome."

Among the new sopranos are Geraldine Farrar, Lina Cavalieri, Catherine Fischer-Edel, Rita Faria, a California girl and Bertha Moreno.

Among last years artists who have been engaged are Bessie Abbott, Bella Allen, Emma Eames, Olive Fremstad, Marcella Sembrich, Milka Ternina, and Marion West. Louise Homer, Ernst Schumann-Helke and Josephine Jacob, and among the new artists is Kirby-Lynn.

Beside Caruso, Alois Burgstaller, Andreas Dippel and others of the old tenors who have been retained, Conried has engaged Carl Burian, Charles Boussetiere and F. Soubeyran.

VARIETY ARTISTS FEDERATION.

London, Sept. 11.—The Variety Artists' federation, representing Great Britain, and the International Artists' lodge, representing the continent of Europe, are joining forces for mutual protection, and recently sent a delegate to New York to seek the co-operation of the White Rats, and so form an international body with a membership of 10,000.

To protect themselves against such a formidable organization, the European managers held a secret meeting here and formed a federation taking in the proprietors of practically every variety theater in Europe. Today Oswald Stroll, representing the managers, left for New York with the purpose of arranging with American managers a common policy against the forcing tactics on the part of the performers.

BOTH KILLED IN A DUEL.

Macon, Ga., Sept. 11.—Law W. Hicks, until recently a stock man of this city, and J. H. Higginbotham of Brookville, Fla., fought a duel with pistols on the platform of a car as the train was leaving Higginbotham today. Both men were killed.

PRESENT FOR MRS. ROOT.

Lima, Peru, Sept. 11.—The mayor of Lima has presented Mrs. Edith Root with a golden brooch in a mounting of diamonds and rubies and upon which is enameled the coat of arms of the city of Lima.

At the banquet in honor of Secy. Root last night, the secretary exclaims to the important commercial and economic advantage that would come to Peru by the construction of the Panama canal.

After the banquet Mr. Root drove with President Porfirio Diaz and the illuminations. Altogether, the reception was the most brilliant ever seen in Lima.

SEDUCE, SCENE OF MURDEROUS EVENTS

Everywhere in the Streets Are Soldiers Ready to Fire on People at Least Provocation.

JEWES ARE THE CHIEF VICTIMS

Whenever One Appears Chances Are He Will be Wantonly Murdered.

Warsaw, Sept. 11.—With the sanction of the authorities, who provided an armed guard for the mission, the Associated Press correspondent this afternoon visited Siedlce, the scene of the murderous events of Sept. 8, 9 and 10. The railway station at Siedlce, when the correspondent arrived, was crowded with Jews, among whom were many starving women with infants in their arms. Almost on the moment there fell upon the frightened people the sound of a volley being fired in the town, which lies half a mile back of the station. A panic ensued, men trembling with fear and women imploring the soldiers for mercy, anticipating the slaughter of their loved ones and themselves. Gendarmes on guard at the station entered the waiting room and roughly ordered the people to be quiet, assuring them that their alarm was needless.

Proceeding to the town, the correspondent traversed Warsaw street, which presented a desolate aspect, the stores and shops being closed, and all of them showing signs of having been plundered. Pictures of saints were hanging outside the windows of many houses, much appeals to the soldiery and looters to spare the inmates. Everywhere in the street were to be seen soldiers ready to fire on the least provocation. The streets were littered with Jews' hats, torn clothing and damaged carts.

The most severe damage had been done in Plenska street, where the houses were riddled with bullets, and in many instances walls had been demolished with cannon shot. Cows and goats, escaped from their pens, wandered through the streets aimlessly.

At the Victoria hotel the diningroom had been despoiled of its furnishings and the doors of the guest rooms had been broken down and their contents thrown into the streets and burned. From this point the correspondent was obliged to turn back, shooting having recommenced. He was made prisoner by soldiers, but shortly afterwards released by the governor's order.

Refugees state that Gov. Engelke was taken sick a week ago and that control of affairs in Siedlce then passed into the hands of Col. Tuchanowski, an anti-Semite. The people at once began to desert the town, apprehending an attack upon the Jews. It is asserted that paid provocative agents so contrived matters that on Saturday the soldiers began shooting in the streets and bombarding houses, the occupants being forced to flee. It is said that the flames soldiers threw oil upon the burning houses. An army officer stumbling upon a wounded Jew remorselessly killed him. It is related that soldiers killed the Jewish proprietor of a fruit store, put his body under a table and ate his provisions as they were spread upon the table.

Another refugee states that Saturday night the doctors at the Jewish hospital in Siedlce lit the gas in that institution preparatory to operating on the wounded who had been brought in, who numbered 70, when without warning the soldiers in the street opened fire upon the hospital, killing two of the inmates.

As a man was taking his wife and newly-born child to a hospital they were fired upon by soldiers and the wife and child were killed.

A Jew ventured out of his house to bring some water for his thirsting little ones. As often as he reached the door with a pail of water soldiers compelled him to empty the pail upon the ground. This was done 11 times. The twelfth time the father appeared with water for his children the guards washed his boots in the pail and made the children drink the befouled water.

In many cases the soldiers spared the lives of Jews upon payment of $5.

By actual count 140 corpses were picked up in the streets, and it is stated that as many more bodies are hidden in cellars. Only one Christian is known to have been killed, and so far as can be learned no soldiers were killed.

Trainloads of fugitives are leaving Siedlce for the south.

A Jewish child, who begged permission of a military officer to search for his parents, was kicked away by the officer.

The undisiplined soldiery acted with the utmost brutality all through the troubles.

Here in Warsaw there are some fears of an outbreak.

Woman's Kidney Troubles

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Especially Successful in Curing This Fatal Disease.

Mrs. J. W. Lang and Mrs. S. Frahe

Of all the diseases known, with which women are afflicted, chronic kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless early and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Lydia E. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that fatal disease, woman's kidney troubles. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women, and thousands have been cured of serious kidney derangements by it. Derangements of the feminine organs quickly affect the kidneys, and when a woman has such symptoms as pain or weight in the back, bearing-down pains, or aching or burning sensations or deposits in the urine, unusual thirst, swelling of hands and feet, swelling under the eyes or sharp pains in the back, running through the groin, she should lose no time in combating the disease with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the woman's remedy for woman's ills.

The following letters show how successfully it has been used.

Mrs. Samuel Frahe, of Prospect, N. H., writes:

"I thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."

E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I first wrote to you I had suffered for years with what the doctor called kidney trouble and congestion of the female organs. My back ached dreadfully all the time, and I suffered so with that bearing-down feeling I could hardly walk across the room. I did not get any better, so decided to stop doctoring with my physician and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am thankful to say it has entirely cured me. I do all my own work, have no more backache and all the bad symptoms have disappeared. I cannot praise your medicine enough, and would advise all women suffering with kidney trouble to try it.

Mrs. J. W. Lang, of 626 Third Avenue, New York, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I have been a great sufferer with kidney trouble. My back ached all the time and I was discouraged. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure kidney disease, and I began to take it, and it has cured me when everything else had failed. I have recommended it to lots of people and they all praise it very highly.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from kidney trouble, or any form of female weakness, are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. Out of the great volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than likely she has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.
