

Vivid Word Picture of Rock Pile Painted by Police Judge Bowman

If William Delaney, the "fighting engineer" on the Bamberger road, falls to guess right in the forfeit game into which he forced himself, he will find that "Heavy, heavy hangs over your head," is a reality and not the fiction of the play-game. The best guess that Delaney can make is to keep away from Salt Lake, or he will feel the weight of six months on the chain of his neck.

The man who thought that his peace had been disturbed by action of Judge Bowman, Sunday night, failed to put in an appearance to convince the court of the story told the police of his ruffled feelings, and Mitchell was discharged.

Joe L. Alvarado, the man whom another fellow named Halverson accused of wearing a coat stolen from the latter several months ago, but who was charged with having been drunk also, drew a prize of liberty from the police grab-bag.

Robert C. Johnson, after spending eight days in the city jail awaiting trial on a charge of stealing a suit of clothes from William Berger, and which he denied at first, changed his mind this morning and confessed his guilt. He was sentenced to 60 days, the greater portion of which he will devote to the good roads movement.

It being "American" day at Lagoon W. P. Murphy, R. A. Burns, Pat Sullivan, and E. S. Oakley were granted amnesty and their enthusiastic preparation for the day, taken in too liberal quantities, overlooked.

Leo L. Finn, the Italian who because he "never had no money," attempted to obtain some by peddling cloth and linen, was given a fender and advised to seek some town where money can be obtained without having to pay a license to get it.

The time for pleading in the cases against E. H. Whitlock and J. A. Prichard, charged with violation of the building ordinance by refusing to obey the order of the building inspector, was extended until Thursday.

Because the principal witness against Harry Hill and J. W. O'Connell, charged with grand larceny, lives in Idaho and is only visiting in Salt Lake for a few days, the prosecutor this morning attempted to advance the date of the hearing against the men, so as to use his witness, Albert Weeding. Owing to the unpreparedness of the defendants and their counsel, however, the original date of the hearing, Aug. 8, was ordered to stand. Hill and O'Connell are charged with having robbed Andrew Wingo of $7 in money and a watch. The alleged robbery took place on West Temple street, and Weeding is the witness who will identify the defendants as the men who assaulted Wingo.

DAMAGES NOW SOUGHT.

Miss Fannie Frankel, lessee of the Empire theater, filed suit yesterday in the Third district court against the Majestic Amusement company, T. L. Halliday and Harry Reyer, to recover damages in the sum of $1,000, alleged to have been sustained by issuing an injunction against her, prohibiting her from putting on an act in her theater on June 23. The Majestic company secured the injunction on the ground that it had secured a contract to put on the same act. On the order to show cause the injunction was dissolved.

SAYS WIFE IS CUIEL.

P. J. Oullette brought suit for divorce yesterday in the Third district court against Aileen C. Oullette on the ground of cruelty. The mortgage covers part of lots 6, 7 and 8, Arcadia subdivision of lot 11, block 4, Five-acre plat A, Big Field survey. The amount due on the mortgage is $1,302.25.

ADMINISTRATRIX ENTERS SUIT.

Emelle Nordborg, administratrix of the estate of Adolph Nordborg, brought suit yesterday against the Salt Lake & Ogden Railroad company to recover $50,000 as damages for his death. It is alleged in the complaint that on April 8 last, while employed by the company, Nordborg was run down and killed. He was at work between two cars when an engine backed into the cars in front of the depot at Third West and South Temple streets. The impact hurled him to the ground and the wheels passed over his body.

THE SOUTH WELCOMES GRANT

GENERAL FREDERICK GRANT must have been as surprised as he was gratified at the warmth of the reception tendered him in the heart of the South. Brave men cherish few enemies against brave foes, and the Confederate veterans paid a tribute to the son of the Federal commander which brought tears to his eyes. In what other country in the world would the wounds of a great civil conflict have been healed so quickly and completely? The scars which he but they are honorable scars, honored alike by those who bear them and those who inflicted them.

"The old-time 'rebel yell' in Memphis is no longer a menace to a general of the United States army, but a cheer of compliment to the officer who wears the uniform of a reunited country and serves under a flag that waves proudly over us all. The 'Stars and Bars' floated in a thousand banners, not as the rival, but as the companion of the 'Stars and Stripes'.

The recent trip of the battleship Mississippi up to Natchez, the cordiality of Captain Fremont and his officers with the leading citizens of Louisiana and Mississippi, the great celebration at Natchez, in which North and South joined hands, the visit of President Taft to Virginia and North Carolina and the mingling of the blue and gray at Memphis, all point to a restoration of the Southern States to their rightful place in the nation.—Baltimore Sun.

SAYS "KEEP YOUR AWNING DRY."

Man Who Makes Them Declares Damp is Destructive.

"Your awnings," said the awning man in the New York Sun, "would last longer and look better if you'd dry 'em out when they get wet."

"Some folks will leave their awnings down to soak and drip all through a heavy rain. I never could understand why people do that; of course it doesn't do an awning any more good than it does a heavy rain. I never could understand that way and then drip may fall on the awning from the roof and flying soot may lodge on it, and so if you keep things you know they are faded, discolored and dingy."

"If you want to preserve your awnings you want to haul them up when it rains, but if they get wet, why, then when the air is right you want to lower them and let them dry out, and be sure they're dry when you put 'em on before you go away in the summer."

BIG INCREASES IN POSTAL SALARIES

Amounts to $15,800 This Year, Affecting Eighty-Eight Employees.

Postmaster A. L. Thomas received notice today from Washington that increases in salaries, amounting to $15,800, for the fiscal year of 1910, beginning July 1, had been granted the Salt Lake postoffice.

The increase affects 49 carriers, six station clerks, and 31 clerks, besides the postmaster and assistant postmaster. In addition four new clerks and two carriers have been appointed at salaries of $600 per year. A new office has also been created at a salary of $1,200 per annum, which will be filled by Col. Tony Page, who will hereafter act as superintendent of carriers.

The following carriers are affected by the order, each of them receiving an increase of $100 a year: S. C. Adams, R. L. Bandley, G. D. Barton, O. T. Bowman, W. L. Butterworth, J. A. Cederquist, P. A. J. Clark, Elijah Davis, John F. Davis, T. T. Davis, L. D. Eldredge, J. J. Fenton, N. D. Fernin, D. L. Hartwell, W. M. Heath, Fred

Hirst, O. L. A. Houghton, F. E. Keefe, A. B. Knowlton, C. A. Lambourn, S. S. Lawson, A. H. Lewis, E. H. Lund, James B. McGrath, D. E. Manly, B. L. Morris, Hugh Nation, W. S. Navier, S. P. Neslen, J. K. O'Ferrall, F. A. Olsen, E. T. Palmer, P. C. Perry, W. S. Price, S. N. Tansley, S. H. Reeves, Albert Rieven, S. R. Skidmore, J. B. Smith, F. B. Snyder, W. L. Soderberg, A. D. Sperry, T. A. Stahley, D. A. Stephenson, N. O. Trout, W. R. White, Alexander Wanless, E. B. Yeamans, R. P. Young.

Increases have been granted station clerks as follows: P. G. Schramm, $100; D. L. Davis, $100; Harry Coombs, 100; W. D. Mathis, $100; T. L. Halliday, $100; J. H. Johnson, $100.

The names of the clerks who have received increases of $100 each are as follows: W. A. Aubrey, Elias Barnes, J. J. Barton, E. H. Bernhisel, A. E. Bickford, F. M. Bird, E. J. Bost, S. G. Brington, W. J. Butterworth, C. A. Crockett, D. L. Dean, H. E. Dewey, H. G. Eberich, W. N. Evans, Charles F. Gatehouse, F. W. Gundry, Thomas J. Gundry, J. A. H. J. W. H. H. Kirk, J. C. T. Steward, A. G. Taylor, I. P. Tuckett, F. H. McCarthy, G. A. Nielson, J. A. C. Nielson, J. E. Seely.

Charles H. Carr and Kate Mangan have also been granted an increase of $100 a year each from April 1.

The new clerks appointed are Earl E. R. Downing, John H. Lawrence, Brigham L. Moore and F. B. Snyder, each of whom will receive $600 a year to begin with.

The new carriers are E. N. Crane, William Hoffman, Frank M. Langworthy, Conway Sutzner and Albert Mayshoffner, all of whom will receive $600 a year.

The new stations established at the Cashie Pitts Drug store, Main and First, South, and at the State Street Pharmacy, State and Seventh South, will each receive $100 a year, and the postmaster and assistant postmaster also receive an increase of $100 a year, the same as the other employees.

The decision of the department at Washington to increase the cost of running the Salt Lake office by nearly $15,000 a year may be taken as a good proof of the way the local office has grown, and it may be considered an index to what the department at Washington thinks of the future growth of Salt Lake. Thus far this year the increase has been from 15 to 22 per cent every month over the business of last year. The present month bids fair to eclipse everything in the history of the office. "At the same rate for the next 10 days as has been recorded for the past 20 days the increase in the Salt Lake office this month will be all of 25 per cent over last July," said Postmaster Thomas this morning.
