Banking Conditions Show Change With Passing of Taxpayers' Demands.

TRADE IS GENERALLY GOOD

All Lines Report a Sensonable Volame of Business in Holiday And staple Lines.

A feature of the local banking situaa this week is the preparation of inestion papers for the new Citi-State bank of Bingham with a ital stock of $20,000, and with Rodby T. Badger inshier of the Utah Nawent bank of this city as president; rome Bourgard as vice president, ad W. E. Bucholts as cashier and loil manager. Eingham has grown to point where prominent citizens there lieve a second bank would prove ofitable and convenient. The incoration papers will be filed some time coming neek. The banks report he demand for money has kept up wells particularly from the sheepmen. while improved trade conditions among the local merchants have proven a of encouragement. Rates of inare of encourse in the crops have been ret are caster. The crops have been rety moved and tax montes are be-f distributed. Complaints of the high cast of bring are universal. There is good reason for many of these com-plaints but the fact is they are fre-quently being male the most of as an excuse for advances in wages. A far more polent element in the increased cost of living than is readily admitted is the extravagance which has become antitonal characteristic and weakness. This tendency towards extravagance is more syldent even in the home than in business or in public affairs, and that effects in the long run cannot but be infurious. Many totally unnecessary assumements and luxuries are how in-biged in which were never thought of it years ago, and the result must be p dulged in which were never thought of it years ago, and the result must be a gratty diminished national saving gratty diminished national saving over, out of which should come our new supplies of capital. BUSINESS NOTES

Transactions in the local stock list during the week were somewhat limited, the activity of brokers having been transferred to city improvement warrants, which have been largely dealt in at a discount averaging 10 per cent Some blocks of L'tah-Idaho Sugar preferred also changed hands at the figure named below. The sugar factories at continue running at full blast, but will commence shutting down around Christmas time. Reports from the beet fields indicate that nearly the entire crop is out of the ground, but that hauling has been interfered with by the soft roads.

REAL ESTATE and BUILDING

The feature of the real estate market during the week was the invasion of the old "Walker Square" on Fourth South and Main streets, an historic ground which will give way to the march of business. Here the Walkers intend to erect large structures which will have up-to-date store rooms below and office buildings above. The im-provement investment will be well over $100,000. 1. 1. 1.

The United Cigar Stores company added to their Jenses of Jast week and will have, in addition to the Gudbe-Pitts and Kenyon hotel Main street corners, also that of the Clift hotel on Third South and Main This property was secured on a ten year lease and according to the men who have been engineering the tobacco people's cam-paign, terminates their operations in Sait Lake. They have now secured probably the three most valuable busi-ness corners in the city.

A notable event of the week was the announcement of the near building of a big apartment house on -Capitol, hill by Mrs. Carrie Moore Gray. This is to be a $125,000 investment and will give an imperus to residence building in that part of the city. The founda-tion is to be put in during the winter and work on the building started as soon as the weather will permit in the spring. the spring.

Realty deals involving business prop-erty in Main and First South streets and also a sile for flats on South Temple, all involving something like $100,000, were completed during the week. The Main street property is that occupied by the Vincent Shoe company, 14 by 135 feet. It was bought by C. C. Roberts for $42,000. Mr. Reberts sold the property at Broadway and First South to the Western Loan and Savings company for $43,000. This Roberts sold the property at Broadway and First South to the Western Loan and Savings company for $43,000. This is on the cast side of Broadway and includes one-half of the corner build-ing and the ground. There was a transfer of a right of way through Broadway, sold to L. H. and J. A. Young of the Younf & Young com-tany.

any The activity in State street holdings, with Fourth South as a vortex, still continues. There are rumors of all sorts of deals and there is no question but that a number are nearing com-metion. Most of the purchasers are covering because of the desire to ob-tain neighboring property without being subjected to an inflation of values caused by the announcement of their buys. The activity in State street holdings.

Residence properties continue to be active, with investments breaking away from the south and southeast parts of the city, most of the deals during the week being in the north and northeast, on the bench lands. Buying has been very general in this line and the spring promises to see a great activity in the building of homes.
