FOR THE WEEK END.

AMERICAN.

The Work of the Week.

EVANVILLE, Ind., 14.—This morning Alexander Wieser, a German saloon keeper, his wife and a son seven years old, were found murdered in their house. The father and mother were in bed and the boy in an adjoining room, evidently killed while attempting to escape. The heads of all were crushed with a hatchet and their throats cut and mangled in the most brutal manner. An infant of six months was found unharmed in its crib. The most intense excitement prevails, and vigorous efforts are being made to discover the perpetrators. The premises were ransacked, but nothing, apparently, was taken.

Leroy Lenhart, Chas. W. Carter, Philip Vella and a disreputable young man named Joe Byrd have been arrested on suspicion.

About six years ago a man named Yrugg was murdered on the premises, and Leroy Lenhart married his widow and wanted to occupy the premises, but Walter A. Long-lease, Lenhart has been heard, he is said, to threaten to kill Wieser if he did not vacate.

Danahon, Tex., 14.—United States Deputy Young was shot fatally by Jones and Randall, in the Choctaw nation, while executing a warrant at the ranch of Jones. The murders are being pursued with great vigor.

John E. Bradford, a well known hotel manager, and a lieutenant in the Signal Corps during the war, died yesterday at Providence, R. I.

Louisville, 14.—George Egan, the keeper of a saloon on Shelby Street, near Pine, was shot and killed by some one who rode up to his door, fired, and then escaped. The murder is thought to be the result of a political quarrel.

Nashville, 14.—M. T. Bennett, a prominent merchant at Lebanon, was murdered and robbed last night.

Philadelphia, 14.—Albert Harrison, a worthless fellow, while intoxicated, stabbed his son William, inflicting a fatal wound. The son interposed to protect his sister being injured by the father.

Chicago, 14.—A few weeks ago Sweden named Wilding and Robinson, who were arrested in this city on a trivial charge, confessed that they murdered a woman named Sophia Dolberg, in Stockholm, seven years ago. The story was not fully believed, but the men were held pending an investigation. The Swedish consul here has received a report from the Chamber of Police of Stockholm, corroborating the statements of the prisoners as to circumstances which would tend to establish that the story is a fact. Hilding recognized a picture of a woman as Emilie Hultberg, who he says paid for having the murder committed.

Pullman, Ill., 14.—Patrick Mc-Mahon, an employee in the Pullman works, went to Chicago on Saturday night on business, leaving his two little girls, seven and nine years old, in his house. He missed the last train and had to remain in the city all night. On returning home this morning he discovered that the children had blown out the gas and were smothered to death.

New York, 14.—Jesse Hoyt, one of the most prominent business men of this city, died to-day. He has been largely interested in grain and railroad interests at the west and at the time of his death he was a director of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway.

Newark, N. J., 14.—Wm. H. Warner and wife have been occupying rooms in the house of Greenleaf D.
Brown, at 508 West street. Warner became jealous, to-night shot his wife and Brown, both probably fatally.

St. Louis, 14.—Judge William Schley, of New York, formerly of Savannah, died suddenly at the United States Hotel, to-day. Judge William M. Levy, of Louisiana, died at the Pliny House.

Hilgers Crossing, O., 14.—A passenger and freight train on the Cleveland & Marietta railroad, collided here yesterday. Both engines were wrecked. Miss Susie Cole was killed and many passengers hurt.

The Mount Hickory Rolling Mills at Erie, Pa., started up yesterday with no opposition on the part of the old hands.

Youngstown, O., 14.—The mill proprietors here are considering a proposal to have the strikers go to work at the advance asked, with the understanding that the wages will be cut down if the strike at Pittsburg is not successful.

Knights of Labor, at Locksboro, have counseled the tenants of the company to hold out in the strike and all necessary funds will be furnished. The miners have forwarded to the company an official communication, asking them to name a time and place for a conference.

Wm. Penn.

PHILADELPHIA, 14.—The biennial association will soon forward a circular to the governors of the different States, inviting troops to visit the city and participate in a military display Oct. 27, on the centennial anniversary of the landing of Wm. Penn.

Texas Cattle Plague.

STURTEVILLE, O., 14.—Texas cattle fever prevails in this section here and in the neighboring counties in Ohio and West Virginia, among cattle recently brought from the northwest. A large proportion of the animals have died.

A thunder squall to-day lasted half an hour, but no damages, and the physicians are apprehensive of a change in the weather.

Massachusetts.—There were eight deaths for the week, ending at 9 a.m. Total deaths from fever are fifty.

Laredo, Texas.—For the 24 hours ending at 8 p.m. Aug. 12th, Brownville had 25 new cases of yellow fever and one death. Matamoros had 23 new cases and eight deaths.

grain harvest and the completion of the Denver and Rio Grande Railway is completed to Cimarron, 280 miles from Denver and 407 from Salt Lake. As the company has now completed and is operating in Utah about 105 miles, extending eastward from Salt Lake, less than 300 remains to be built to complete the connection on this line. The grading is nearly finished and the preparations for rapid track laying indicate the opening of this new through line by December 1st.

Des Moines, 14.—The Herald's Montreal correspondent says:—The customs authorities have been tracing the destination of all American flour imported from the Western States under bond as shipments to Great Britain and New foundland. The result has been a discovery of a significant fraud upon the revenue since the national hospitality introduced four years ago.

During the past twelve months, alone, as far as inquiries extend, it is found that Lord & Kane, importers, at whose warehouse the late great seizure of flour was made, sold over 10,000 barrels of superior American flour to local bakers and that their warehouse bonds were cancelled for shipping Canadian flour as a substitute thus retaining a duty of fifty cents per barrel.

Cincinnati, 14.—Stephen Aile, the Cincinnati manager of Hemmingsway & Co's fruit packing house at Baltimore, states that his book-keeper Henry Muller, is a defaulter to the amount of from $20,000 to $22,000 and has absconded. The cause is gambling and fast women.

Fire.

GRANT CITY, Mo., 14.—Twelve houses belonging to N. W. Welsh were destroyed by fire last night.
The loss is estimated at $38,000 to $50,000. Insurance $10,000.

Lancaster, Pa., 14.—This afternoon a house belonging to N. Welsh, was burned by an incendiary.
While the fire was in progress, the county insane asylum near by was discovered to be on fire and was destroyed. Loss $10,000; insured, $35,000.
The insane inmates, 114 in number, were all saved.

Yellow Fever.

BROWNVILLE, Texas, 14.—There are 25 new cases of yellow fever, all Mexicans but one, an American.
There has been one death. The northern border has been closed from above, and there is more alarm at a distance than there is cause for yet.

FOREIGN.

Shiraz.

ALEXANDRIA, 14.—It is reported that a party from the gunboat Condor went ashore Sunday and destroyed stores, gun cotton, etc., beyond the Meks forts, belonging to the enemy. The shirazi beyond Meks, reported in a previous dispatch, could not be located. A number of the enemy were killed.
Church services were held Sunday afternoon, in this city.

The enemy's main defenses appear to be intact. It is rumored that Arabi Pasha is sending away the laborers, to avoid the necessity of feeding them.

The Duke of Connaught applied to have the military bridges guarded. This is taken as a compliment to the former.

News is just received of a raid to the westward of Alexandria beyond the Meks Forts. The sailors and marines drove off a number of Arabs with the fire of a small field-piece. There was no loss on the English side.

Foreigners are beginning to grumble, and have formed a so-called vigilance committee to watch the European interests in Egypt.

Transports.

MALTA, 14.—The Tower Hill arrived and proceeded to Alexandria.
The troop ship Euphrates also arrived, and to-morrow takes on board the second battalion of the Manchester regiment and a battery of the Royal Artillery.

Gibraltar, 14.—The transport Grecian Tago and Ludgate Hill passed on their way to Egypt.

The transport Albatross, with the 42nd regiment passed on its way to Egypt.

The Coldstream Guards arrived this morning at Alexandria and marched to Ramleh where the whole brigade of foot guards are now encamped under the command of the Duke of Connaught.

Gen. Allenby having written to the commander of the German gun-boat Albatross that security can now be guaranteed in Alexandria, the German sailors, guarding the German hospital were yesterday withdrawn. This removes the last foreign landing party.

Reinforcing.

LONDON, 14.—The army of occupation in Egypt will be reinforced by the 1st division of the First Army Corps.

A number of regiments are ordered in readiness for active service.
The troops are to take this week about 2,000 additional officers and men to strengthen the regulars already in Egypt, while the regimental detachments of artillery will be sent on the transport Chetiv at Woolwich.

Threatening the Canal.

SUEZ, 14.—Rebels in great force have taken up a position immediately threatening the canal.

Interview with the Khedive.

The New York Herald's Alexandria correspondent had the following interview with the Khedive today in the Palace of Ras El Tin:

Correspondent.—Is it true that Arabi offers terms of surrender?

Khedive.—No, Arabi sent me a message that he was not disposed to recognize me as the Khedive while the English troops were in Egypt, and that it would be better that all Egypt should be in Arabi's hands than in the hands of the English. Arabi thinks that had the Egyptian troops obeyed my orders not to abandon the forts and to remain in Alexandria, the English landing in Alexandria would have been unnecessary.

Correspondent.—What mission had De Lesseps to Arabi?

Khedive.—I was not consulted on the matter. Arabi has given a safe conduct to De Lesseps, and he informed me that he required De Lesseps to meet him to-night at Daman-hour.

Correspondent.—Have Osman Refi and the Circassian officers who have just arrived from Stambul brought your Highness any special message from the Sultan?

Khedive.—No, I shall immediately form a body guard, with these Circassians as officers, and thus form the nucleus of a new Egyptian army.

The Khedive spoke most warmly of the loyalty shown him by General Stoneman and praised the energy of Consul Agent Long.

A formidable enemy.

ALEXANDRIA, 14.—After the guards had been inspected, General Stoneman, in a circular, dispatched to the duties and hardships of campaigning. He reminded them that they must be prepared to meet an enemy of great strength, completely determined and well armed. He concluded them against being too sanguine and over-confident, and to guard against surprises.

Arabi Pasha's force on Aboukir Ridge is drawn in.

London, 14.—Five complete railway trains, consisting of twelve carriages each, were purchased for use in Egypt.

An interview with the Sultan.

The New York Herald's Constantinople correspondent says: In an audience granted to your correspondent at Yildiz Palace, this afternoon, the Sultan expressed himself freely upon the European question. He intimated yesterday his wish for an interview, and appointed 9 o'clock the hour. After the usual delays preliminary to being admitted to the royal presence, and the formalities customary upon presentation, the Sultan, in reply to a question about the relation of Egypt, spoke as follows: The conversation was carried on entirely through an interpreter. "The situation in Egypt," said the Sultan, "was not serious until the presence of fleets precipitated affairs and exasperated the people. Arabi's party took advantage of the situation to inflame the people."

What does your Majesty consider the original cause of the trouble?

"I will explain," there have been in all Egypt, and the Khedive has a great number of English and French employees, appointed and kept in place by the influence of English and French Consuls, and these consuls have been accustomed to the abuse of their places, which they held to the exclusion of Arabs. They constantly extended their own privileges and increased their influence, and the Khedive refused to allow them to do so. When then a Colonel in the service took offense and in this way a breach occurred between Arabi and the Khedive, and the difficulties arose which might easily have been arranged had not the appearance of fleets aroused native feeling and destroyed my plans for the reconciliation of opposing factions and a peaceful settlement of the troubles. I had already sent to Alexandria a commission including Dervish Pasha, Achmed Essad Pasha and Cebid Effendi as arbitrators, but the action of the English rendered their plans useless. Leblid Effendi, who has just returned, will give you a written statement of the case more at length.

The Bombardment.

What does your Majesty think of the bombardment?

"It was most cruel and unjust, the English forbade the Egyptians to fight their own war and they while defenseless opened fire upon them. This was an unjust and inhuman act and contrary to the law of nations. The Khedive has been informed of the bombardment and that case it was England's duty to inform the sovereign power and leave the settlement to the authority instead of taking the law in her own hands. The English say there is no justice among us. Yet let us look at Ireland. The English Irish subjects are simply asking a right which here in Turkey is universally granted to the people. Such troubles as the Irish agrarian riots were protected in their rights.

What is your Majesty's opinion about the result of the present troubles?

"I am sure that when all the facts are known in America and other impartial countries, the action of England will be condemned as arbitrary and unjust. If England's object is to protect her own interests in India she has taken the wrong course. She will never be allowed by the other powers to occupy Egypt alone. France would insist upon the maintenance of a free neutral province or a joint occupancy.
In either case there would
