PRESIDENT AT SACAMORE HILL

His Homecoming Made Occasion of A Great Fete.

WELCOMES HIS NEIGHBORS

Makes Them an Address - Thomks Them From His Heart and is Most Deeply Touched.

Oyster Bay, L. L. June 27-President Roosevelt's home-coming for the summer was made the occasion of a fete nere. His reception was notable for its enthusiastic cordiality and likewise for its vigor. The latter quality was due to a slight factional difference among the townspeople, the result being that the president was accorded a double reception and the friendly rivalry between the factions resulted only in adding to the enthusiasm of the reception.

Under smiling skies the president stpped from his car at 4:30 o'clock, and, while the cannon crashed out its salute and the people cheered, he was escorted by the reception committee to the town hall. The march to the hall was bewaving a tiny American flag. Business houses and residences throughout the town were handsomely decorated with flags and bunting, and scores of large American ensigns gwung across the principal streets.

Arrived at the hall, President Roosevelt unveiled the Civil war trophy gun presented to the people of Oyster Bay by the navy department. Then, standing on a chair placed on the steps leading to the hall, he delivered a brief address to the crowd of his friends and neighbors massed in front of the building. The president said:

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

'My Friends and Neighbors- Ithank express, for your coming out to greet me today. I wonder if some of you re-member what I shall never forget—the way that you came out to greet me nearly five years ago, when I got home from Santago. I thought some of you would remember it.

would remember it.

"Since I last saw you I have been across the continent, I have traveled from the shore of the Atlantic ocean, across the Mississippi valley, by the side of the Great Lakes, over the Rocky mountains to the above of the Pacific, and the thing that has struck me most in that tourney of nearly 15000 miles. in that journey of nearly 15,000 miles, right across the continent, has been the essential unity of our people—that wherever an American president goes here in the United States has feels himsif to be at home among those who feel as he does, and who have the same ideals to which he can appeal.

"And now I am coming back to you, whom I know so well. The older among you I have known for some 30 years and over, and my children are growing up here, just as I grew up, and I hope they will do better in keeping out of mischlet. And netwelly the leases we mischief. And naturally it pleases me very greatly to have you show me the feeling that you have this afternoon. When I get back here I am not the president; I am your old neighbor and friend, and in welcoming all of you I want to say I am particularly pleased to see here the children. As you know, I believe in children, and I am very glad that the children of Oyster Bay seem to be all right in quality and also in quantity.

shall just say again my friends, my neighbors, those with whom I am knit by such close ties, I thank you from my heart, and I am deeply touched by your greeting me this afternoon.'
At the conclusion of the speech the president entered the hall and greeted Mrs. Roosevelt and his children, who had been in waiting there for him. While he was holding an informal reception in the hall, the school children were drawn up in front of the building, and, under the leadership of the bands, sang an original song of welcome to the president. Attracted by the singing, the president appeared to the steps and, to the delight of the children, requested them to repeat the song. It was repeated with a vim, the great crowd of the children's elders joining in the chorus. Mrs. Roosevelt stood in the entrance to the hall during the singing.

Earlier in the afternoon, Mrs. Roosevelt had been escorted to the hall by the children and a great procession of residents, not only of Oyster Bay, but of all of this part of Long Island. She then reviewed the procession from the steps of the hall.

At the conclusion of the cerenonies at the hall, the president and his family entered carriages and, still under the escort of the committees, drove to their home at Sagamore Hill.

HAD A QUIET SUNDAY. Oyster Bay, L. I., June 28.—President Roosevelt passed a quiet Sunday with his family at his Sagamore Hill home. During the afternoon some relatives and personal friends called to extend their greetings to the president and his family. The president, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and their children, attended service this morning at Christ church of which Mrs. Roosevelt is a member. At the conclusion of the service the members of the parish paid their respects to the chief executive. It is announced by Secy. Leob that the president will receive few call-ers at Sagamore Hill this summer, and those who hope to see him will be obliged to make arrangements through Mr. Leob in advance of their arrival at Oyster Bay. EXCURSION TO EXECUTION PLACE

Hundreds Visit Scene of the Burning of White, the Ne gro.

REL!CJHUNTERS WERE BUSY

Even Women Carried Away Smal Twigs From Bushes as Bementos Of the Horrible Deed.

Wilmington, Del., June 28 .- Thousands of persons today visited the place where George F. White, the negro, was burned to death last Monday night by a mob for the murder of Miss Helen Bishop. They came from all the small towns in the vicinity, and hundreds journeyed to the execution place from Chester, Pa., and Philadelphia. A trolley line runs to within about threequarters of a mile from the scene, and bus drivers and others owning vehicles did a thriving business carrying passengers to the place and explaining to them the events of the last two weeks.

The burning took place on a freshly ploughed field, about ten feet from the roadway, which is hidden by high bushes. The field has been stamped almost as smooth and hard as asphalt by the thousands of persons who have visited the farm. The only evidence that remains of the work of the mob are three cobblestones, on one of which this inscription has been placed in in-delible ink: "Here is all that remains of White, The bushes behind which the murder occurred have been cut down for a dis-tance of several yards and carried away by relic hunters. Many of those who visited the scene today, among them a number of women, carried away a sprig or branch of the bushes.

Discussion of the events of the last week is rapidly ending, although the affair was the text of some elergymen today. today. The preachers condemned the lynching, notwithstanding the fact that public sentiment is overwhelmingly on the side of the lynchers.

Rev. Robert Elwood, the Presbyterian minister who has come in for much criticism for his sermon of last Sunday night, in which he suggested lynching in case the negro escaped speedy pun-ishment at the hands of the law, did not refer to the lynching or the criti-cisms today. These criticisms were an-swered by his congregation today, when the following resolutions were read during the services:

"We, the officers and members of the Olivet Presbyterian church, Wilmington, Del., realizing the unjust criticism being made of our beloved pastor, Rev Robert Elwood, by a large proportion of the public press, do place ourselves on record in the following resolutions:

"First—We express our firm belief in our pastor's honesty, integrity and Christian character: our appreciation of his ministerial labors in our congregation, and our admiration of his manly, Christian courage as expressed by his pulpit messages and his life in

"Second-We record our belief that his message of last Sunday evening was both timely and true, sensible and scriptural, and in no wise can the actions of the citizens on Monday night be chargeable to that sermon.

a monster incarnate and in so far as the negro race is concerned, seems to give no quarter. The white is a heathen, a fiend, a monstrosity before God, and is equal to any act in the category of crime. I would sooner trust myself in a den of hyenas than in his arms With court, law and officers of law in his hands, the despised negro can expect no mercy, justice or protection. The negro is unsafe anywhere in this country. He is the open prey at all times of barbarians who know no restraint and will not be restrained.

"There is but one part left for the persecuted negro when charged with crime and when innocent. Be a law unto yourself. You are taught by this lesson of outrage to save yourself from torture at the hands of the blood-seeking public. Save your race from insult and shame. Be your own sheriff, court and fury, as was the outlaw Tracy. Die in your tracks, perhaps drinking the blood of your pursuers. Booker T. Washington's charity, humanity advice of forgiveness, love, industry, and so on, will never be reciprocated by white men."

RAILROAD WRECK IN SPAIN.

Fourteen Dead Bodies and Fifty People Injured Have Been Taken From Train.

Thirty Persons Killed and Not Less Than Sixty Hurt According to Maldrid, June 28.-Fourteen bodies and 50 injured persons have been extricated from the wreck of the Bilbao train which overturned at Nejerilla river last night.

According to official information, 30 persons were killed and 60 others seriously injured. Many of the latter will die. Of the 300 passengers on the train, it is stated that only six escaped unhurt. The train, which was composed of two engines and 16 coaches, was crossing the bridge , when the couplings between the engines broke. The second engine left the track and fell, followed by the entire train, into the bed of the river. Fortunately the water was low.

The nearest medical attendance was a mile and a half distant, and those passengers who were least injured aided the others and did all possible until the arrival of relief trains, bringing nurses, doctors and soldiers from Bilbao. The train fell 50 feet from the bridge to the river bed, the coaches piling up in a mass of splintered wood and iron-work. The scene is described as horri-fying. Many corpses were carried down the stream, which was actually red lened with blood. It was found impossible to extricate numbers of the injured who were pinioned under the wreckage. A railway guard was arrested in the act of roboing the dead and narrowly escaped

It is believed that the official figures inderestimate the number killed. Some accounts give the number of dead as 00. The full extent of the catastrophe will be known only when the wreckage has been cleared away. The latest dispatches from Saragossa, near which place the catastrophe occurred, give the number of dead as 90 and the injured as 100. The rescue of the injured from the debris is not yet
