LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Purse Found.—A purse containing a small sum of money is still at the office of the owner. Call and get it.

The Inquest.—Last evening, Coroner Taylor held an inquest at the coroner's office, over the remains of Richard Wink, killed by the caving of a sand bank near the Sixth Ward. A verdict of accidental death, in accordance with the facts, was returned by the jury.

Wasatch Prosperous.—President A. Hatch, of Wasatch Stake, accompanied by Mrs. Hatch, is in the city for a few days. We learn from him that crops are very promising in his diocese, having been slightly damaged by late frosts. He is filling a government contract to supply the Uncompaghe Indians with 800 sacks of flour. President Hatch and wife will probably leave at home to-morrow.

On His Own Account.—Joshua H. Midgley, Junior partner of the firm of Midgley & Sons, house painters and paperhangers, has withdrawn from the partnership and gone into business on his own account. For the present, orders will be received at his residence, in the 12th ward. He is a reliable citizen and a good workman and should succeed in his business.

Park City Murder Case.—The examination of the three prisoners charged with the murder of William Kennedy, at Park City, conducted before Commissioner C. K. Gilchrist, was concluded to-day. The evidence did not differ materially from the statement of the case already published in the News. Ingham was held to answer to the grand jury. Pollock and Casterline were discharged.

Musical.—In our paper will be found the card of Mr. Carl Lind. This gentleman was in this city on a visit about five years ago and returned three months since to make it his home. He is by profession a piano and organ maker and tuner, every part of those instruments being as familiar to him as the alphabet is to people ordinarily. Those seeking his services will find him at his residence, one block north and a half east from the Eagle Gate.

Stealing Fruit.—Brother Laron Pratt, of the 17th Ward, informs us that a number of boys in that locality, whom he knows by name, have, on three occasions, taken advantage of his absence from home, walked into his orchard and taken quantities of choice apples from his trees. This has been done in the face of the earnest protestations of the lady of the house. Only the respect that Brother Pratt has for the parents of the juvenile pilferers has prevented him from causing their arrest on a charge of stealing, but he does not know that that consideration will have the effect of restraining him should a repetition of these acts ensue. Let the boys take warning and desist.

The Work in Kansas.—We have received a call from Elder John M. Thueson, of Monroe, Sevier County. He returned a few days ago from a mission to Kansas, for which part of the country he left here April 12th, 1891. While he labored there about thirty new members were baptized, four of whom by himself. A short time since he was on account of the brethren being mobbed by a party of about fifty armed men in Saline County, Kansas, causing the Elders to abandon that part of the field for the present.

Valuable Information.—The following is a portion of a circular received at the Land Office in this city, from the Department of the Interior at Washington. The information it conveys may prove of value to some people in this section of the country:

Having come into possession of information that large numbers of fraudulent certificates of deposit, purporting to be issued at various U. S. depositaries, for money alleged to have been deposited to cover cost of surveys, and provided for by sections 2401, 2402, and 2403 (as amended by the Act of March 3, 1879), of the Revised Statutes of the United States, have been issued and put upon the market, rendering it possible for innocent parties to be defrauded in their purchase, you will cause the people in your respective districts to be advised of the existence of these fraudulent certificates, and request that all holders of certificates of deposit send them to this office for the purpose of examination and verification, and that certificates to be returned to them without delay, with the certificate of this office as to their genuineness attached.

Complimentary Benefit.—There was a very good-sized audience at the Opera House last evening, on the occasion of the Benefit to Mr. Robert Gorinski. The singing of the beneficiary was the main feature of the entertainment, and he deserved the encore he received on each performance. The selections were excellent and the execution better than upon any previous occasion. We have not room to comment on each performance, but will mention Mrs. Eiegel, Mr. Welke, the instrumental trio, the cornet solo by Mr. Stigler, the vocal quartette, composed of Messrs. Olsen, Liddell, Messrs. Whitney and Spencer, the sextette, Mr. Carille, and the piano solo by Miss Gorinski, as being something more than ordinarily satisfactory. Most of the performances were encored. The audience showed their appreciation by applauding heartily.

We wish Mr. Gorinski bon voyage to Europe and success in his musical studies, which will be principally prosecuted in France.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

WILLIAM JONES, OF WHITE MOUNTAIN, SUDDENLY LOST HIS LIFE.

Wood's Cross was the scene of an exciting and tragic occurrence to-day. About 11:30 o'clock, as the train from the north was approaching the station, a team took fright and ran at a terrific rate along the road eastward. This startled the other team approaching from the other direction, causing them to dash at a break-neck speed toward the railroad.

Mr. William Jones, the owner of the second team, and his wife, were in the wagon to which the animals were attached. This unfortunate gentleman was thrown over the front end of the board, upon the singletrees, and dropped to the ground among the horses' heels.

When found lying upon the road Mr. Jones was in a gory pool, and presented a horrible spectacle. A portion of the front portion of his skull was crushed in, also over one ear, and he was in the throes of death.

After Mr. Jones was thrown out of the wagon the team continued on its mad career, and the life of Mrs. Jones was exposed to imminent danger. Conductor Jacobs saw the situation at a glance and ran the train across the intersection with the road, and the train men rushed up the street to check the frightened animals, in which they succeeded.

The distress of Mrs. Jones when she realized what had occurred was heartrending in the extreme. "My William is killed; I know he must be dead," she pathetically exclaimed. Unhappily no one could contradict her conviction, and she was kindly told to be prepared to learn the worst.

We understand that Mr. Jones was a resident of West Bountiful, about sixty years of age. When the train left the station for the city, he was breathing his last. It appears that no one is to blame for the lamentable occurrence.

Captain Baldwin's Impressions.—This morning we were pleased to receive a call from Captain Baldwin, of Dunedin, New Zealand, who has been traveling for about a year, and during that time been nearly all around the world. He left Egypt only a short time since and returned being in that country when the recent massacres of Europeans occurred.

Captain Baldwin visited Salt Lake City ten years ago, as an agent to obtain information regarding the emigration and colonization methods of the "Mormons," and brought letters of introduction to the late President Brigham Young, and Honorable George Q. Cannon, from whom and others he received great kindness and courtesy, which he remembers with the most appreciative feelings. He also mentions in the same connection, Hon. John W. Young, who accompanied him to California when he left here.

The Captain carried away with him on his former visit more pleasant and kindly feelings than he ever entertained regarding any place he ever called at before or since, and those sentiments combined with a great desire to see Messrs. Cannon and Young and others whose acquaintance he had made, caused him to take a run down from Ogden on his way westward. He feels disappointed, however, at the comparative absence of the freshness and simplicity which characterized the community at the time of his former visit.

We recollect Captain Baldwin distinctly. He is a prominent citizen of New Zealand, where he has very extensive sheep interests. He is a very genial gentleman.

Jay Rial's Company.—On Monday next will be presented Jay Rial's revival of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." This place will be put upon the stage in this city as nearly perfect as can be. It is nothing like the presentation of the company that last played it here. Mr. Rial's company create a sensation wherever they go, and in San Francisco has not only played to immense houses, but hundreds have been turned away nightly, unable to gain admittance. The moving scene of ice, over which Eliza and her child escape, is said to be one of the finest mechanical scenes in use. Besides, a set of entirely new scenery, recently painted, never used before, will be operated on the presentation of the piece in the Salt Lake Theatre. The trained dogs are huge brute, and are not worked by being attached to long ropes, as with other companies, but are let loose and, after performing, are seized by powerful negro attendants, when they reach the flies. The Jay Rial company open at the Theatre on Monday evening, and will play one week, including a Saturday matinee.

Very Short.—A species of pestilence is creeping into the community that is the antipodes of one feature of the Oscar Wilde wing of that popular error. Oscar wore his hair long, so it could flow down in the gentle breeze. The disciples of the new style wear their short, causing their heads to assume the smooth appearance of a Peerless potato.

Some people do not take to this machine cut custom, but it has its advantages. Phrenologists are delighted with a head of the boulder surface type. They can see the Websterian cast of the cranium at a glance, without the necessity of finger manipulation.

It is handy in cases of domestic infelicity, there being no holding on place for the strikers of strife to seize upon and gnaw.

It is handy for those whose hirsute is not of a popular color, as the reduction of the shade exceeding doubtful.

It entitles the short-cropped to a front seat in a circus or ballet entertainment, a privilege generally monopolized by the bald-heads.

A Suggestion.—We have heard quite a number of people express sympathy for the losers by the burning of the Great Western Match Factory and a desire to see them assisted to re-establish the business. These suggestions have been coupled with an intimation of willingness to aid in the matter. We have before us now a note from Mrs. M. M. Larson, who suggests that these suggestions be put upon the generous impulse by placing in the hands of the Bishop of the particular Ward where they reside whatever they may feel disposed to subscribe. The lady begins by donating one dollar herself. The suggestion appears feasible and good, and in any event it would be an excellent thing to aid the losers by the fire in a substantial way, as word sympathy, though good in its place, will not make matches.

A Sad Errand.—D. L. Davis, Esq., of the firm of Barnes & Davis, went to the Church Island this morning for the purpose of breaking the sad news of the untimely death of Richard Wink, which occurred at William Husband's farm yesterday, to his son Almon Wink, who is spending a short vacation from business at that place. The funeral services of the deceased will take place at Sexton Taylor's office at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Relatives and friends are invited to be present.

Cricket.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 21st, 1892. On Monday, July 24th, 1892, the Salt Lake and Wasatch Cricket Clubs will play a match on the 5th Ward Square. This being the fourth game this season. It will doubtless be the most exciting of the year. All lovers of the game are invited. Come one! come all! and see the best game ever played in this city. There will be a practice on Saturday, July 23, at five o'clock, when all members are requested to attend as the nine will be picked to play on Monday.

FROM "THE TIMES."

Editors Times.—Seeing an article in your paper last week from Arnold Parker, I was impressed with the earnestness with which he appeals to you to continue to enlighten the world in regard to the means by which he was so miraculously cured of rheumatism and hip-joint lameness by using Kendall's Spavin Cure. The article to which he alludes so favorably with the real merits of this remedy that I tried it also for several blisters on my own person, and found it the most perfect cure I ever tried for spavins and other blemishes, as it completely removes the enlargement in every instance by continuing its use for several days after the lameness has subsided. The perfect success I have always had with Kendall's Spavin Cure led me to use it on my own person, and for all the family with the very best results as a family liniment. While several of the cures made with it have been almost miraculous, none have been more satisfactory than several cures which I made with it of foot-rot and also sore teats as well as warts on teats of cows. I consider it a sure cure for sore teats or foot-rot in either cows or sheep. With the satisfaction this remedy has always given in every instance, I cannot refrain from saying with my friend Parker that you continue to make known to the world this, the greatest discovery of the nineteenth century.

Yours truly,

JAMES A. CAMPELL.

Herkimer, N. Y., Sept. 10th, 1891. The above letter, with one published last week, encourages me to offer to make our paper one of the most valuable journals in the country and to all our patrons, and we now ask others of our readers who have been similarly benefited by the letter published one year ago from Dr. Bates that they send us for publication, statements which they may wish to make for the benefit of others.—[Ed.]

RENEFACTORS. When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical, but proof of its merits by actual trial had dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.
