LOCAL BRIEFS.

New Vio 'Infer' Here.—Prof. John Stengel of California, a violinist, has removed to Salt Lake City. He was a pupil of Joachim.

Ladies' Nig. Mt.—The first of the ladies' socials for the winter season at the Elks club will be held next Thursday evening. These functions last season met with pleasure & success.

Baptists' Special Service.—There will be a missionary meeting in the Baptist church tomorrow evening with a program which considerably preparation has been made.

Cattle in Ogden Dying.—State Veterinarian A. J. Young has found several cases of pleuric pneumonia among the cattle being kept at the Deaf and Dumb asylum in Ogden. Six have died.

Find Disease at Slagell's House.—City Inspector J. W. Tremper found three well defined cases of leg and lip disease at a local slough house Saturday. In this instance only the mouths were affected.

Honor Visiting Official.—Everett Lodge 151, Fraternal Union of America, will give a reception, class with vocation and spread this evening in honor of F. E. Rose, supreme president, who is to give an official visit.

Meeting Tomorrow Night.—The buildings and grounds committee of the board of education will hold a meeting at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and the board will hold its regular session Tuesday evening at 7:30 sharp.

Try to Find Haskins.—The following telegrams has been received by the police: "Try to locate John Haskins, a railroad man, who last worked at Elko, Nev. James Meloy is dead and his child is very sick. Wire answer to Butte, 747 Utah avenue. (signed) Mrs. John Haskins."

The Latchford Lecture.—Henry Latchford, M. A., delivered a lecture this afternoon, before the city school teachers in the high school building, on "My Personal Recollections of Tennyson, Browning, Victor Hugo, William Morris, with incidental reference to Thomas Carlyle."

Welcome Strangers.—A club is being organized in this city to look after the interests of people from Salt Lake as strangers, and to try and introduce them to the better side of local life. Headquarters are to be located at the Y. M. C. A. The co-operation of the city churches is invited.

Chemists Examine Sheep.—Chief Murray of the bureau of animal industry sent to Washington for chemical examination the head of the sheep recently sent to this city from Lund, affected by the leg and lip disease. The government chemists have returned word that the disease is necro-haemorrhagic.

Reception Next Saturday.—There will be a reception next Saturday at the Deseret News Annex, 100 Main Street, for the delegates returning from the annual meeting of the Women's Home Missionary societies of the Methodist church. A general meeting will be held in the First Church at 4 p.m. the following day.

May Invite Convention.—Pastors of city churches and representative laymen met yesterday afternoon, at the Y. M. C. A., to discuss the proposition to invite delegates of the Laymen's missionary movement of North America to hold their session of next March in Salt Lake. A committee was appointed to consider the matter to report tomorrow evening.

Rhode Island Scholarship.—Rhode Island scholarship examinations will be held at the state University Oct. 19-20. The examinations are for men, and the subjects will be arithmetic, elements of either algebra or geometry, Latin and Greek. At the same time examinations will be given for the women, for the scholarship to be given by the Federation of Women's clubs for Oxford, Cambridge or London.

Prof. McJunkin Here.—Prof. F. A. McJunkin, the new professor of bacteriology and pathology at the University, has just been recommended by the state board of health of New York, and also the University of Michigan, from the medical department of which university he was graduated in 1906. Prof. McJunkin will also act as state bacteriologist and pathologist of Utah.

Burglars at Nibley Home.—Burglars entered the home of Mrs. C. W. Nibley, at 75 north West Temple street while she was at church Sunday evening. They were frightened away before they could get any loot, but when she returned, the police were summoned, and traces of the thieves were found in deep shoe prints on the lawn below a window on the south side of the house, which had been pried up.

Poll Tax Coming In.—Street Supervisor J. T. Raleigh reports that poll taxes are coming in at a satisfactory rate. According to the enactment of the last legislature the amount of the individual tax was reduced to $2 and Mr. Raleigh says that while some people have paid their poll taxes up to date, at least the corresponding period last year, the receipts have not been as large, owing to the reduction.

Musicians Elect Officers.—The following officers were chosen at yesterday's annual meeting of the Musicians' union: H. Klenke, president; W. H. Morris, vice-president; A. Press, secretary; Lorenzo Sharp, treasurer. The following directors were elected: J. P. Fanning, L. A. Thompson, H. S. Nichols, J. M. Weston and J. H. Smith. The reports showed the organization in a prosperous condition.

Students Enjoy Banquet.—The football game in honor of the teams of the Granite and Salt Lake high schools, given Saturday night in the gymnasium, was a decided success. The large hall was packed with students and friends of the high school. The chairman of the evening was D. A. McElroy. Guests were Dr. J. M. Weston and J. H. Smith. The reports showed the organization in a prosperous condition.

New Series of Sermons.—Rev. L. S. Powerman of the Baptist church announced last evening that in response to several requests he would begin next Sunday evening a series of sermons on the Book of Revelation. In the night's discourse Mr. Powerman explained from the example of Ahab, how when a man enters on a course of sin he gives the devil a mortgage on his soul; and the time will come when the devil for closes that mortgage, if he can.

Commission Ends Work Here.—Forty-nine names were added to the list of claimants for pensions for service during the Indian wars as a result of the work of the Indian war commission which closed its session in April. The commission now goes to Tonopah for a two days session, thence to Huntington, Emery county, where they will complete the work before moving on. The commission has already listed more than 1,150 names.

Tarif on Wool.—Secretary Stewart of the Utah Woolgrowers association is in receipt of a letter from the national secretary at Cheyenne, warning the Utah Woolgrowers not to vote to have a tariff on wool. It may be made at the next session of Congress. "It was the National Woolgrowers association, ably assisted by the state and county organizations, and by those splendid workers, Warren, Smoot and Carter in the senate, Gordine, Cole and others in the house, that enabled us to win the bill," said the Tarif.

High Line Tested.—Thomas Hobday, superintendent of the city waterworks, has just completed a preliminary test of the "high line" which supplies water from City Creek to the users in the northeastern part of the city. "We found the mains in very good condition," said Mr. Hobday this morning. "A great deal of repair work has been done on the 'high line' pipes which are of wood, and we expected to have to do a great deal of repair work, but the test already made shows the mains to be in fairly good shape. We will make a full test soon and a thorough cleaning will be made, when a full report of the work will be made."
