

SUNDAY SERVICES.

At the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon Elder Heber J. Grant was the first speaker. He referred to the testimony of the Gospel and in the many manifestations of the goodness of the Lord to His people. The Latter-day Saints, he believed, were ready and willing to labor in the extent of their ability to do that which the Lord required of them. True, many things that we do are not pleasing to the sight of God but we are only human. The Latter-day Saints are looked upon by the world as religious fanatics, but their word, their honor and their integrity are unquestioned. It is the only faith of everyone to maintain this faith. The people have passed through many trials, and have endured much suffering and pain, but it is pleasing to God that there is less of this today, and it will only increase in the future. There are many who are not true to the faith, and they are not happy and they are not doing the will of God. Many complain that they are not blessed with the wealth of the world, but there is not a true Latter-day Saint on earth who would prefer to live in poverty all his life than to be blessed with the wealth of the world. Many who are not true to the faith are not doing the will of God, and they are not happy and they are not doing the will of God. Many who are not true to the faith are not doing the will of God, and they are not happy and they are not doing the will of God.

formed the conference, delivering a powerful discourse and speaking of the testimonies of the Prophet Joseph yet to be fulfilled and the consequences that will follow those who do not heed the word of warning of the President of God. He reminded the people of the many times that the Lord has spoken to them, and that they have been warned from time to time to prepare for a famine and he warned them on Saturday night to prepare for a famine of bread for that time will surely come and perhaps with such suddenness that they will not have time to prepare. Elder Jackson gave a few closing remarks, and urged the people to heed the word of God that had been given to them. Conference adjourned for three months. J. K. Brown, Clerk, NEVADA, AUGUST 5, 1900.
