Prior to his illness he was employed at the Centennial Eureka mine, and at the time of the accident to the cage last week he climbed from one of the levels to the surface by the man way. In doing so he became overbalanced and caught a severe cold, which in time developed into pneumonia, causing his death. Two brothers, a wife and five children survive him.

season, but they have better prospects the present season. Last year the people here realized quite an advantage from their reservoir and will derive great good from it this year also. There is plenty of land and it yields good crops with irrigation. The reservoir site is an admirable one, and its enlargement would be quite easy, while its benefits would be hard to estimate. The excellent range for stock that was once here is now gone, the drought and sheep have done it up.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

VICTOR, IDAHO.

Old Folks' Festival and Other Socials—Ward Organizations.

Special Correspondence.

Victor, Idaho, March 18.—At a meeting a short time ago our Bishop, D. R. Sinclair, suggested that a good church was wanted in a very nice thing to have for the use of the ward; he had hardly spoken the word before his better-half, with an energetic corps of aides, went to work and gathered up a cargo of the good things of the earth, then arranged them in a very enticing manner in the meeting house annex and invited the people to partake of a nice supper and dance that would only cost them the trifling little sum of 40 cents each. Well, after Grandma Egeken had counted the jewels, it was found that over $24 had been raised towards purchasing an organ.

This event was followed a few nights later by a home dramatic entertainment, gotten up solely by the larger students of our district school, which was well received by all respects, the boys and girls doing well.

Next came the old folks' reunion held on President Wilford Woodruff's birthday, March 1st, which was the event of the season, and to make it the happy and enjoyable time it really was for the aged, there was a ready and universal response given the old folks' committee, assisted by a large delegation of young ladies. The meeting house was nicely decorated, and the gathering of old folks, young folks and the veterans were made happy.

Another affair occurred only last Thursday at Sister Kate Hamblin's, when the old folks party was duplicated, given under the auspices of the Relief Society, and the honor of its officers, Sister Amy Cherry, Sister Talitha Avery and Sister Elizabeth Curtis, who have been very faithful in that labor and calling for the last four years.

On Wednesday night, March 20th, a committee of young men appointed by the Bishop are going to give a grand benefit ball in Jones hall for our respected missionary, Elder Pierce Cheney, who is now laboring very earnestly in Belgium.

The Young Ladies' and Young Men's associations conjointly are getting up a theatrical entertainment to take place in the near future.

Elder Wm. Wilson on Sunday, March 18th, tendered his resignation as superintendent of the Sunday school of this place. The Bishop and Sunday school regretted very much that he should take that step, for he has been a very faithful worker in that calling for over three years.

Sisters Emily A. Tonks and Kate Hamblin, State aids in the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement organization, have commenced a visiting tour to the various associations of this valley. Leigh wards, eighteen miles north of here, on Tuesday, March 12th, which associations are doing very nicely, under the guidance of Sisters Homer and Jarman.

Much sorrow is felt by the people over the death of our beloved President Wm. F. Rigby, his long and faithful labor in behalf of the welfare of this people and valley, endeared him to the hearts of all. Few men were so universally respected as Brother Rigby.
