St. Louis, Mo.,—Richard Ives, of St. Louis, arrived here last Friday, and is negotiating with the Vulcan Iron Works for 40,000 tons of iron plates, to be converted into pipes to conduct the water from the Sierra Nevada to San Francisco. The contract will amount to about $2,000,000.

Stated at the French to German Music.

NEW YORK, 30.—A special from Paris states that at the grand concert yesterday at the Cirque d'Hiver, given under the direction of the Parisian, an attempt was made to perform Siegfried's Death March, from Wagner's "Nibelungen." The musicians had no sooner begun than the audience behaved disgracefully by hooting and shouting of "Abas Wagner." The march concluded with deafening and disgusting shouting. Wagner's overture to "Der Freischütz" shared a similar fate, so deep-seated is the hate which the French heart bears towards Germany and German music.

Two Negro Women Fight a Duel with Knives.

LOUISVILLE, 30.—An extraordinary duel, between two negro women, took place in Louisville. Annie Simmons and Mary Boules, having quarreled, resolved to fight a duel with knives. They met, by agreement, in front of the Baptist Church at night, no witnesses being present, and fought fiercely for half an hour. Boules was slashed and gashed horribly in six different places, and her right eye cut out. Simmons was slightly hurt, and has been arrested. The cause of the difficulty is unknown.

Sufferings of the Arctic Explorers.

LONDON, 30.—A narrative of the Arctic expedition is published, which states that after first encountering ice, the expedition was detained several days in Port Payer. It started thence on August 8th, but before reaching the shore of Grinnel Land, the vessels were caught in an ice pack. After this their progress northward was an incessant struggle through chance ice, made in the ice by wind and current, the channel through which the ships moved constantly closing behind them. The Discovery wintered in a well sheltered harbor on the west side of Hamo Basin, a few miles north of Polaris Bay. The Alert pushed forward and rounded the north-east point of Grant's Land, but instead of finding, as expected, a continuous coast of 100 miles toward the north, she found herself on the border of an extensive sea, with impenetrable ice on every side, no harbor. The ship wintered behind a barrier of grounded ice close to land. The floating masses of thick polar ice, 10 to 15 feet high, pressed up quantities of intermediate ice into blocks frequently a mile in diameter, and varying in height from ten to twenty feet. Obstacles of this kind destroyed all hope of reaching the pole by sledges. Before the attempt was made the sledge party was obliged to make a road with pickaxe nearly half the distance it travelled, as it was always necessary to drag sledge loads by instalments. The party really travelled 270 miles, although it only professed 73.

All the cairns erected by the Polaris were visited.

At the boat report in Newman's Bay a chronometer was found in perfect order. Wheat left by the Polaris was successfully grown aboard ship.

When the Polaris bay the Discovery hoisted the American flag and fired a salute. A brazen tablet, with the following inscription, was fixed on the grave of Capt. Hall—

"Sacred to the memory of Capt. Hall, of the Polaris, who sacrificed his life in the advancement of science. This tablet is erected by the British Arctic expedition, following his footsteps, have profited by his experience."

Two sailors of the Greenland sledge party were buried near Capt. Hall's grave. The sufferings of the sledge parties from scurvy were frightful.

The expedition under Markham and Peary, which endeavored to reach the pole, consisted of seventeen persons, nine of whom became entirely helpless, and had to be carried on sledges, three could barely walk and were unable to render any assistance.

The Rain Prevents the Turks from Operating—Tchernayeff's Army in a Terrible Condition.

A dispatch to the Standard, dated Nisch, Saturday, reports that all operations on the part of the Turks have been stopped since Monday. The rain prevents the troops from marching.

A Belgrade telegram to the Standard says Tchernayeff fell from his horse, and is confined to bed. He seems to be apprehensive of disaster, and has warned the inhabitants of all the valleys in the rear of Deligrad, to leave. The state of the Serbian army is indescribably distressing. No force has undergone such suffering since the retreat from Moscow.

The Pan-Anglican Synod.

Nearly every bishop to whom an invitation to attend the Pan-Anglican Synod has been addressed, has either accepted or replied. Some of the most influential American bishops have stipulated that, if they attend, all subjects of interest and importance shall be perfectly free and open to discussion. The Synod will probably be much occupied with matters affecting the Episcopal Church in America.

Tchernayeff Recovered—Defensive Action Looked For.

A telegram to the Daily News from Belgrade, announces that Tchernayeff has recovered, and is expected to arrive in Belgrade in a few days. A decisive action is looked for involving a change of ministry and a direct appeal to Russia for active intervention.

Russia Wants to Exclude Turkey From the Conference.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that Gen. Ignatieff, at a private audience, informed the Sultan that if an armistice were accorded, Russia would be content to submit the question of autonomy to a conference of the Powers. The correspondent remarks that Russia certainly wants to exclude Turkey from the conference, but if Austria liked to persist in opposing any conference at all, this part of Russia's proposals probably will not much embarrass Turkey.

More About the Capture of Djunis.

The Times dispatch from Vienna explains the contradiction concerning the capture of Djunis. It says the position at Djunis consists of a series of entrenchments along the Danubian stream, the key of which is two large redoubts to the north of Djunis. These were taken on the 23d. There may be some positions further up which the Serbians still hold, and which they consider superior to Djunis.

Schooner Wrecked and Loss of Life.

HALIFAX, 30.—The Government steamer, which arrived to-day from Sable Island, reports that during the heavy northwest gale of the 16th, an American built schooner, supposed to belong to Eastport, Me., struck a bar at the west end of Sable Island, and went to pieces, all hands being drowned. Five bodies and parts of the wreck were washed ashore.

TURKEY.

Another Battle—The Serbians Defeated.

BELGRADE, 30.—A battle was fought yesterday, in which the Turks drove the Serbians from Djunis after a day's fighting. Tchernayeff's army is cut in two and completely demoralized. Horvath's command has returned from Djunis after a defeat. A great panic prevails at Belgrade.

Attempt to Revictual Nisch.

RAGUSA, 30.—Moukhtar Pasha has sent a force of Turkish troops by way of the Duga Pass, to endeavor to revictual Nisch.

FRANCE.

That Paris Letter a Fabrication.

PARIS, 30.—Pigaro, to-day, publishes a letter from Du Sommerard, chief commissioner of France for the American Centennial Exposition, declaring that the letter printed in that journal on Friday, attacking the management of the exhibition, and containing other base charges, the authorship of which is attributed to him, is an utter fabrication. Du Sommerard publishes the disavowal in the most formal and express terms, and adds that, if his denial be not sufficient, he is in a position, by documentary evidence, to prove the truth of his statement.

GERMANY.

The Emperor and Peace.

BERLIN, 30.—The German Reichstag, the imperial parliament of the whole empire, opened to-day. The Emperor, in his speech, says Germany's foreign relations, notwithstanding the difficulties of the present political situation, are in full accord with the Emperor's pacific policy. His constant endeavor is to preserve friendly relations with all the Powers, especially those connected with Germany by ties of neighborhood and history, and so far as peace may be endangered among such, it is his friendly mediation. Whatever the future may have in store, Germany may rest assured that the blood of her sons will be sacrificed or risked only for the protection of her own honor and interests.

"Our Decapitated Land Officers."

The unscrupulous sheet that supported Patton in his outrageous proceedings in regard to the Big Cottonwood timber case, thus rises to an explanation—

"Our press dispatches make no mention of the appointment of a new register and receiver of the Salt Lake Land Office, but we have reliable information that the present incumbents have been removed. Special Agent Kaighn, who has been investigating the Salt Lake Land Office, we understand, has found the business in a very involved condition, and it is most probable that upon his report the change has been made. A number of our citizens run away with the belief that our land officers have been removed through Moravian influence. But this is entirely a mistake. Numerous complaints have been made to the President and the General Land Office of irregularities in on local office, and upon these representations, Special Agent Kaighn has been sent to this city to investigate. He has performed his disagreeable duty with delicacy and thoroughness, and whatever report he may have made has been prompted by a sole regard for the best interests of the service, and without reference to the wishes of the Mormon priesthood. We regret that the blow should have fallen at this moment, when Register Patton has gained so much credit by his vigorous dealing with the timber pirate; but strict obedience to law and the orders binding upon officials must be observed, and where delinquency is proved the axe will relentlessly fall. This is a world of change, and we are but pilgrims and strangers at the best."

Perhaps the officials suspended and their friends consider official decapitation for official delinquency, default, malversation, or anything of that kind, preferable to such decapitation "through Mormon influence." We have no quarrel on that question. It may be said, however, that official abuse of the "Mormons" and official malversation are not unfrequently in close company.
