PASSING OF UTAH PIONEERS.

Jesse S. Brown and Mrs. Mary Eliza Hutchins Lay Down Life's Cares.

PUMPING IRRIGATING WATER

Parents Convention—Honorable David Eccles Home—Insane Chinaman Makes Trouble.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 30.—In the death of Jesse S. Brown, which occurred about noon Sunday at his residence, 271 west second street, Ogden loses one of its most respected citizens, and Weber county one of its first pioneers and founders. Deceased was one of the men who brought the first wheat into Weber county and who plowed the first furrow and planted the first grain. He was 75 years of age. He was a veteran of the Mexican war, serving in the Mormon Battalion, and was a son of Capt. James Brown and Martha Stephens Brown.

INTERESTING IRRIGATION EXPERIMENT.

A successful experiment in pumping irrigation was conducted by Francis Ritter and sons on their farm at Riverdale, this county, and their experiment will be of interest to farmers generally in showing what can be done in irrigation by using pumps operated by gasoline engines. The Ritters own considerable land at Riverdale, and have been experimenting with the use of a pump to draw water from the Riverdale Central ditch, but a part of it is above on a little plateau and could not be reached from the ditch without the building of a ditch head much farther up the river and which would be too expensive to be considered even if the loss by seepage of the water would not also make it unprofitable.

On their low land, however, there was a pond fed from springs and seepage that was 18 feet below a plateau on which they have some excellent land, but which could not be irrigated without the use of a pump. By the use of the Ritters have enhanced the value of the land at least $100 per acre, and as there are many other localities similar to the one at Riverdale, the experiment is of great interest and will likely be put into practice by others. The reservoir from which the water was pumped covers two acres and is of the average depth of four feet.

An interesting and important observation made by Mr. Ritter is that the water taken from the reservoir, being much warmer than the water drawn from the river, caused the crops to mature earlier. On a planting to tomatoes the land watered by the warmer water was from six to eight days ahead of the land watered from the canal. This is commercially important since, for tomatoes at least, the bearing period is of great importance. The value of the water pumped covers two acres and is of the average depth of four feet.

Every resolution that I made for New Year's has been broken except the

Husler's Flour

Habit—and, notwithstanding it is only 10 days old, it is already firmly fixed.

United States are resisting this proposition very vigorously, because should the tariff be taken off the Philippine sugar it will work an injury to the home industry. The secretary of the Sugar Producers' association appeared before the committee when Mr. Eccles was there and also opposed the reduction of the tariff on sugar. Mr. Eccles says he fears the committee will be favorable to the taking off of the tariff on the Philippine sugar, but with his fellow sugar producers, hopes that when the matter comes up before the senate it will turn it down. This sentiment is also being considered by the committee on tobacco.

INSANE CHINAMAN ARRESTED.

A Chinaman was arrested yesterday by Officers Herrick and Layne, and will be taken back to Salt Lake today by Sheriff Emery or some of his deputies. The Chinaman is dangerously crazy and gave the police officers a very strenuous entertainment for half an hour. Later he became violent at the sheriff's office and it was all that two deputies could do to overpower him.

The Mongolian was first arrested in Salt Lake about two weeks ago on a charge of attempting to overpower a little girl. He was released on bonds of $500, and lately, it is understood, he got away with a quantity of goods not belonging to him and the officers have been searching for him on a charge of larceny. Yesterday morning complaint came to the police station that a Chinaman was making himself obnoxious at the rear of Ford's on Twenty-eighth street, and Officer Herrick went down with Officer Layne in the patrol wagon and arrested him. The Chinaman fought like a demon and managed to completely tear off Layne's shirt in the struggle. He was turned over to the sheriff's office and placed in the padded cell. He soon began to tear out the lining of the cell, and fought like a tiger when Deputy Sebring and Shaw went in and put the straight jacket on him. He had torn his own clothing to shreds and thrown it from him. The officers say he is of one of the most difficult prisoners to handle that they have ever encountered.

Gained Eight Pounds

The Truthfulness of the Following Testimonial is Vouched for by Smith Drug Co.

"I am pleased to take this opportunity to state that for over two years I have been a sufferer from stomach trouble, until I was told by physicians that my case had developed into chronic dyspepsia, and that the only cure—if there was a cure—could be obtained by going to a lower altitude and drinking freely of mineral waters. I could not afford to do this, and had about given up all hopes of getting much benefit or relief until I saw the Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets advertised as being a guaranteed cure for all forms of stomach trouble. I determined to try this new remedy and bought a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the understanding that if it did not help me I could get my money back. After taking half of the box I was firmly convinced that I had found the remedy for which I had been so long in search, and that I was on the road to recovery. I bought four more boxes of the Rexall Cure for Dyspepsia, and took every box faithfully according to directions, and I am now glad to say that I have a new stomach. My weight has increased eight pounds, and I feel like a new person. Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are entitled to all the credit for making a new stomach for me." P. H. Graves, 311 S. Weber Street, Colorado Springs, Col.
