

CHARLEY ROSS IS AFTER BIG GAME.

Issues Challenge Through J. E. Shaver to Wrestler Farmer Burns Here

FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Will Wager From $500 to $1,000 on the Outcome of a Bout at 168 Pounds.

There is a large element of Salt Lake's sport loving public who delight in wrestling contests between professionals, and they are likely to see plenty of their favorite sport before many weeks roll by.

For several days arrangements have been quietly going on for a contest that will easily eclipse anything of the kind that ever occurred in Utah. J. E. Shaver, who will be remembered as G. C. McLaughlin's manager and backer, when the latter was so thoroughly beaten by Ross in their match at the Grand theater, now announces that he stands ready to back Ross and he has issued a challenge to Farmer Burns, the world's so-called, middleweight champion. Shaver has asked Burns to come here and meet Ross at 168 pounds for the championship and for a side bet of from $500 to $1,000. The Farmer is now at Big Rock, Scott county, Ia. He is now anxiously awaiting a word from Shaver, and he has promised that he would guarantee Burns nothing, but a side bet in any amount up to $1,000, and all the gate receipts if he defeated Ross. He is now anxiously awaiting a final answer from Burns, and he believes that he will accept the terms. This match would be worth going miles to see.

"When I managed McLaughlin I believed I had a world beater, and it cost me considerable money to find out I was mistaken," said Mr. Shaver this morning. "In the match with Ross I soon learned that he was McLaughlin's master, and the master of them all at 168 pounds. McLaughlin has been wrestling over the northwestern circuit for a day or two, and I have come to the conclusion that this man Ross is a world's champion, and I will back him against any man in the world at his weight. I honestly believe that he is the best Farmer Burns at the weight the latter stipulates."

WRESTLING BOUT.

Between Ross and Garvin Has Been Postponed Owing to Accident to Latter.

While training in Eugene Thompson's gym, Garvin, the wrestler, was injured, one of his ribs being sprained. He was working with Driggs, one of Mr. Thompson's pupils, when he sustained the injury. For that reason he asked that his match with Ross, which was scheduled for Thursday night, be postponed. Ross consented and the contest will be set for a later date.

Crack Wrestlers Meet.

Bellingham, Wash., Dec. 28.—Duncan McMillan, champion wrestler of Canada, tonight defeated John Infrad, the German "Strong Boy." John Berg also beat Young Yousof, the Turk.

Arrangements have been practically completed for the match in this city for the wrestling championship of America, between Tom Jenkins, the present holder of the title and Frank A. Gotch, to take place late in January.

Little Fellows Matched.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—Harry Forbes of Chicago and Abe Attell, the California featherweight, who claims the 125-pound championship of the world, have been matched to fight ten rounds before the Indianapolis (Ind.) Athletic club on Jan. 1. The men will meet at 122 pounds, ringside for a purse of $1,500. Straight rules will govern.

BASEBALLISTS COMING.

President Lucas and McCloskey Are Expected in Salt Lake Soon.

Word has been received in this city to the effect that President Lucas of the National League, and "Honest John" McCloskey will be here in a couple of days. It is understood that both players are now on their way to Salt Lake, and will remain here for a day or two. It is quite probable that they will then be able to give out some interesting information with reference to next season's circuit, and the general baseball outlook for the league in which local fans are greatly interested.

BASEBALL MEETING.

Annual Conference of American Association Now on at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—The annual meeting of the American Baseball association began here today. The club owners are unfor a new president, who is to be elected at this meeting, but if the plans of a few leaders in the organization do not miscarry, it is practically certain that J. Ed Griffin, a Cincinnati newspaper man, will be named to succeed President Hickey, who has announced that he will hand in his formal resignation today.

The circuit will remain the same as last year, with clubs at Milwaukee, Indianapolis, Columbus, Louisville, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Toledo. The only change in ownership for next season will be in Minneapolis, Manager

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said, "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery. Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruft, Fairhair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats Newbro's Herpicide, destroys this germ, and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

Foreman and Assistant Foreman Applied to Court for an Injunction. Which Was Refused.

New York, Dec. 28.—Justice Leventritt, in the supreme court today, denied the application of Louis Quanchi and Charles Bailes, respectively foreman and assistant foreman of the stereotyping department of the New York Herald, for a permanent injunction restraining the New York Stereotypers' union No. 1 from interfering in any way with their employment on the Herald, or from securing their discharge or from preventing the members of the defendant organization from working for the Herald.

The plaintiffs, who have been employees of the Herald for nearly 30 years, also asked the court to issue an order restoring them to membership in the defendant union.

A stereotyper named Free was discharged from the Herald and he made charges to the union against Quanchi and Bailes as responsible for this, the result being that both were dismissed from the union.

The stereotypers' organization then notified the Herald, according to the plaintiffs, that unless Quanchi and Bailes were reinstated the union would withdraw its men from the Herald. The Herald refuses to discharge their foreman and assistant, but consented to suspend them under salary until after the court had passed upon the merits of the case.

The court holds that the men's relations with the union make them amenable to the rules of that organization, and that the court cannot interfere and suggest that the plaintiffs can appeal to the general body with which their local union is affiliated, which had been held to be a condition precedent to the right of maintaining an action to invoke the aid of the court of equity.

Collecting Duty on Sugar.

New York, Dec. 28.—Customs officials at this port are busy making collections on sugar and tobacco stored in the bonded warehouses, under the Cuban reciprocity treaty, which has just become effective. Under the new regulations, there is a reduction of 20 per cent in the duty on sugar, tobacco and other Cuban staples coming into the United States.

The withdrawals of cigars in bond after the new duty has been paid were particularly heavy, as most of the dealers had been carrying light stocks in anticipation of the change, and were pretty thoroughly cleaned out by the Christmas trade. They are now restricting for the New Year's sale with 20 per cent advantage.

The sugar withdrawals amounted to about 15,000 tons. There was comparatively little sugar stored in the bonded warehouses, as the importers did not know previously that the sugar could be withdrawn at the lowest rate.

ARMY CAPTURED A LONE ATTORNEY

John M. Glover of Cripple Creek Defied the Military Power Of Colorado.

HE FINALLY SURRENDERED.

Cause of Trouble Was His Refusal to Give Up His Arms When Called On.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Dec. 28.—Considerable excitement was occasioned here today by the action of Atty. John M. Glover, formerly a congressman from Missouri, in defying the military, barricading himself in his office and only surrendering after receiving a bullet wound in his arm.

Col. Verdeckburg, commanding the militia forces in the district, today received a letter from Mr. Glover denying the legality of the recent order for the surrender of arms by the citizens of the district. In his letter Glover referred to Gov. Peabody as "a cheap anarchist." He declared that he had two guns in his office and defied the military to take them from him.

Col. Verdeckburg at once dispatched Maj. Naylor with a squad to capture the attorney and his weapons. The lawyer's office was found barricaded and Glover appeared with a revolver, declaring that he would shoot the first man who attempted to break down the door. The place was surrounded by troops and orders were given to shoot the man if he appeared with his gun again.

Later Glover appeared and several shots were exchanged, the attorney being wounded in the arm, after which he was captured.

COMMODORE GLOVER MISSING

A Warrant in Officers Hands Explains the Whole Thing.

New York, Dec. 28.—Commodore Edward F. Glover of the Knickerbocker Yacht club, formerly president for many years of the Crescent Athletic club, and well known in Brooklyn society, has disappeared.

A warrant was served upon Glover Dec. 15, in which he was charged by a client with grand larceny and obtaining money under false pretenses. Glover was paroled in custody of his counsel. When the case was called he did not appear, and the assistant district attorney declared he had violated his parole. Another warrant was procured but has not been served.

Investigation is said to have disclosed the fact that Glover, immediately after the arrest, drew $20,000 from a bank in Richmond Hill, L. I., and leaving his wife at their country house, went to his office in New York. Since then he has not been seen.

The charges upon which Glover was arrested are to the effect that he, as president of the New York Accident Security company, accepted fees of $1 from persons for which sum his company was to investigate their claims and adjust damages should the clients meet with accident. In this case the client alleges that at first he was told he had a good claim for injury against an electrical company for which he worked, but later was induced to sign off for $25, and that Glover's concern then procured $150 on the claim from the accident insurance company, which protected the electrical concern.

It is said the outcome was an investigation set afoot by the insurance company which already involves a large sum.
