A. H. Andrews & Co." The letter of presentation accompanying it reads as follows: "We have the pleasure no fess than the honor of presenting to you a gavel which is made of woods from every state and Territory in the Union, including Alaska, and the handle part of it is from the old Charter Oak Tree, Hartford, Conn. This gavel is a solid unit, and through the States speaks with one voice. If the delegates from all the States and Territories from which this gavel comes will set it a massier equally united, the business interests of the country will be canserred."

At 12.28 prayer was offered by Rev. Frank Bristol.

The call for the convention was then called the convention to order in its name. He said, Chicago was known as a convention city; it was the field of republican victory; here it was that the immortal patriot, Abraham Lincoln, was chosen. Here the party chose that great chieftain, General Grant. Here it nominated that honored soldier, that great matesman, that representative cithen, James A. Garheid. ICheeral Every action of the party in his historic ground had been followed by victory. Having aucceeded against its opponents on all former occasions it was about to put its house in order for another conflict. As a consequence a vote adopted by the last convention, the present body is largely formed of men instructed by their own constituents, and it was therefore to be hoped that the voice of the people would be largely pulssant in its deliberations. [Applause.] He closed with an expression of a hope for victory, and proposed for temporary chairman the Hon Powell Clayton of Arkansas. When the chairman had concluded and mentioned the name of Mr. Clayton, Mr. H. C. Lodge of Massachusetts proposed the name of John R. Lynch of Mississippi. He said they recognized the claim of the South, and therefore he had proposed this secondam as as one acceptible to the repulican convention.

Silas B. Batcher of New York seconded the nomination of Lynch.

At this point a great sensation was created by a speech from W. W. Morrow of California, in favor of Clayton. At the conclusionial Morrow's speech loud calls were made for George Wim. Curtis, of New York, who responded, advocating the choice of chairman in open convention.

Debate followed on the selection, by various members.

After some discussion, the resolution was adopted.

Hon. W. G. Donran of Iowa, presented a memorial and petition of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union. It bears the signatures of the officers of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in forty-eight States and Territories.

The petition was read and referred to the committee on rules.

Leslie W. Hussell, of New York, presented the following, which was referred to the committee on resolutions.

Resolved, That the committee on resolutions be and they are hereby directed to give a hearing to a committee appointed by the Irish National League of America to present a memorial to of America to present a memorial to this convention on the subject of the ownership of realty in the United States by foreigners. Adjourned to 11 o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Donan of fowa: I hold in my hand a memorial—a memorial by the women of the United States, the Christian Temperance Union; a memorial representing twenty-eight States and Territories asking for a prohibitory amendment to the National Constitution. The memorial is brief, and I ask that it be read at the secretary's desk. It will not occupy but three minutes, and then it can stand referred to the committee on resolutions.

Mr. McClure of California: I move that this memorial be referred to the committee on resolutions without being read. Motion seconded.

Mr. Doran: This is a very small courtesy, which it seems to me is due to the noble women of America who are engaged in this cause. I ask of this convention to delay a few moments to hear the memorial read. [Applause and cries of "read it!"]

Mr. Hoar, of Michigan: If we commence reading every resolution that is offered [Cries of "order, order!" and read it!"] lution. We have no time to debate such a question.

Mr. Hoar, of Michigan. I make a motion that all resolutions be referred without reading to the committee on resolutions, and I will suggest to the chair that the rules which we adopted at my instance provided for it. We adopted the rules of the last convention, and under those rules all resolutions were referred without reading and without debate to the committee on resolutions, and until you change that order and ruling no other is in order here. the most convenient and pleasant resort for transient visitors and tourists that is afforded in Salt Lake City. The Chair: The Chair is of opinion that the point taken by the gentleman from Michigan is well taken, and it would require a suspension of the rules and the convention's consent, to rules and the convention's consent, to have the resolution read.

Mr. Doran? I ask that it be read; I ask for no debate. This is a memorial, not a resolution. I ask unanimous conset; simply that it be read.

Dr. McClure: I object.

The chair: Objection being made, I cannot entertain the subject.

The chairman: The gentleman from Pennsylvania moves that the convention adjourns until to-morrow at 11 o'clock. The question is upon that motion. Those in favor of the motion for recess will say aye.

NEW YORK, 3.—A dispatch from Florida confirms the report of the death by drowning of Gen. E. O. Babcock, Levi P. Lucky and A. Sester.
Jacksonville, Fla., 3.—Babcock and family left Baltimore May 19th on the lighthouse tender, Tharak, a twomasted schooner bound for Mosquite falet, ninety miles below the mouth of the St. Johns river, on the Florida 28th, having encountered adverse winds aff the way. A heavy northeast wind began on the 29th, in the midst of which the! Pharah made St. John's fighthouse and came to anchor off the bar, house and came to anchor off the bar, with two cables out. The pilot was then signalled, and although the sea was running half mast high, one reached the Pharah and Gen. Babcock sert the following dispatch to Dr. J. C. Lengle of this city, proprietor of steam towing tugs on the river: "St. Johns Bar, via Pilot Town, May 30th, 1881. J. C. Lengle, Jacksonville, Fla.: The Pharah sails from here this morning. Please send the Seth Love or Maybe to tow her over Mosquito Inlet Bay." Let her take the Pharah in tow, if overtaken.

The sea ran so high that the tug couldn't get out, and the sea had not gone down this morning. The next news received was the dispatch from Daytoria to the Times-Union, announcing the sad catastrophe. When the tug comes back from Mosquito Inlet, full particulars will be known. The probability is the Pharah anchored off the inlet and the General and his party undertook to go ashore in a small boat, which was swamped in the breakers.
