ance last night is anything to jouge by, it is to laugh. Schreck would whip them both in the same ring at the same time with one eye shut. Here are some reasons why a number of night fans declare that the affair was a frame up: There was a how'l from the Gardner camp because there was only money enough in the house to buy sink-ers and coffee. Then there was a long de-lay. In fact, it was nearly 11 of lock when the boxers entered the ring. It was said that during the wait there was a frame up. During the five rounds that the agony lasted. Stift was either snock-ed down or fell down 10 times. The wal-lops that put him down, with one excep-tion, were overhand swings to the back of Stift's head. The last time he was down it was from a right hook to the jaw. It landed fairly but was not hard enough to punch a hole in a tub of water. The Bift went down and Referee Donald-son counted him out. Stift could not reach Gadner with his bet at anding a few times on Gardner's ribs. As to the condition of the men: There Another complication is that the in-junction against W. H. Lucas gives him a Spokane franchise, although not rep-represented by a club. It is claimed the Tigers cannot come without Lucas' con-sent. It is asserted that, should the Pacific National league collapse, the Northwest league would try to transfer the Victoria learn to Spokane. The above dispatch, in stating that Mr. Williams was not notlined of the dis-bandment of the league, is incorrect, as the league president wired the Spokane president the full account of what had taken place at the meeting Sunday night.

Alleged Boxing Match,

Just one little word is sufficient to characterize the alleged fight at Ogden last night between Billy Stift of Chicago. and George Gardner of Lowell, Mass.

It was certainly a frost whether intended as such or not. There were those present who unhesitatingly declared the thing a "frame up." The "News" does not make that charge, but we do say that it will take a whole lot of explainin' to convince us that the charge is not true. After such exhibitions, it is small won-but landing a few times on Gardner's ribs. As to the condition of the ment There was every reason to believe that the Chi-cage fat boy was in time shape. He had worked for some weeks on the read and in the gym, and should have been in the-top shape. The fight fans say that he should have beaten Gardner to a stand-stiff. Gardner was said to be in first class shape. Yet, at the end of each round, each man went to his corner puf-fing like a locomotive. Gardner did practically all the milling, and at that it was very little. He punches had anything behind them execu-steam. Stiff went to the floor enough hewever, and it will take a great deal of eloquent discoursing to convince the fase that he did not go down of his own voll-tion. From Stiff's performance it is im-nossible to imagine how we ever got a "islon over Schreck. Another suspicious feature about the affair was that Stift was apparently as strong as ever tea reconds after he was counied out. The attendance was very small, proba-bly Sol in the house.
