

TESTIMONY IN THE BROWN CASE

Matter of Separate Maintenance
Before Judge Hall.

SENATOR'S LAW PRACTICE.

Judge Henderson Says It is Worth
$6,000 Per Annum—Defendant
Presents Affidavits.

Further testimony on the motion for temporary alimony in the separate maintenance suit brought by Mrs. Isabelle Cameron Brown against Arthur Brown is being heard by Judge Hall today. Mrs. Brown asks for $300 per month temporary alimony pending the final determination of the suit. Judge Henderson was placed on the stand this morning in behalf of plaintiff and testified that the net income from the law practice of himself and Senator Brown amounted to about $14,000 a year, the latter receiving one-half or $6,500 per year. Mrs. Brown was then recalled and was further cross-examined by Atty. Sam King as to the amount of money she had expended on the Brigham street residence, the law ranch and other property owned by herself and the senator.

DEFENDANT'S AFFIDAVITS.

Defendant then opened his case by offering to introduce a number of affidavits relating to the value of his property in this state, Idaho, Michigan and Nevada. Atty. Varian, on behalf of plaintiff, objected to the introduction of the affidavits and contended that such matters should be brought before the court by the oral testimony of the witnesses or by deposition so that an opportunity would be afforded plaintiff to cross-examine the witnesses. Judge Hall ruled the affidavits out for the purpose of the hearing on the matter of alimony, but allowed the attorney to read the two affidavits of Senator Brown in explanation of his oral testimony given later.

VALUATION OF PROPERTY.

In his affidavit Senator Brown sets out that the Brigham street residence is worth about $20,000, that the law ranch in the same is worth about $3,000, and that his own home in Salt Lake is worth about $2,000. He also states that his 2,500-acre ranch in Idaho is only worth about $25,000, while Mrs. Brown estimates its value in her complaint at $100,000. The affidavit states that the expenditures on the ranch have always exceeded the receipts and that the excess this year was about $5,000. The total value of property now owned by defendant is estimated in the affidavit at about $100,000. He claims that he is now indebted on notes, mortgages, taxes, etc., in the total sum of $35,373.26, his taxes alone being $857.56 this year.

HAS GIVEN HER MONEY.

His second affidavit set out that he had given Mrs. Brown various sums of money at frequent intervals in the past year or more ranging from $50 to $500 at a time, and that he had always paid the household bills in addition to the money mentioned. Senator Brown then closed his case, and the conclusion of his testimony the hearing went over until this afternoon.

PRESS OF THE WHOLE WEST SINGING THE PRAISES OF THE CHRISTMAS NEWS

It is in no wise an over statement of the facts to say that never has the press of the western country been so unanimous in its expressions of praise of a holiday edition as it has of the Deseret News Christmas number. The newspapers of all of the surrounding states, and in some that are more remote, have joined in the grand chorus of admiration for the work. There have been one or two exceptions at home, but that was entirely natural. The Herald, which yesterday issued a very creditable New Year's paper itself, showed its appreciation of the "News" efforts in a handsome and well written editorial that is quoted below. The silence of the "News" other morning contemporary is probably accounted for as it was before, on the ground that it was simply unable to find words with which to express its admiration for an achievement that stands unequalled in the history of western newspaper work.

The Salt Lake Herald: The Christmas edition of the Deseret News is a souvenir newspaper of which not only the "News" but every Utah citizen will feel proud. The Herald has rarely seen a more elaborate production from any newspaper. The matter is of the highest quality, and the illustrations are of the most artistic and accurate work. From beginning to end the Christmas "News" is a masterpiece of art and literature, and it is a pleasure to read it.
