

AMERICANS ARE VERY HOPEFUL.

That the Decision in the Alaskan Boundary Arbitration Case Will Be Favorable to Them.

THE TIMES LEANS TO THIS VIEW

Commissioners Meet in Secret Session To Discuss Questions and Come to a Final Determination on Them.

London, Oct. 12.—The last stage of the Alaskan boundary case began today when the commissioners met in secret session to consider their verdict. Senator Lodge and Prof. Sir Louis Jot, one of the Canadian commissioners were early on hand and War Secy. Root and Senator Turner followed them into the cabinet room of the foreign office where the deliberations are being held. Later Commissioner Aylesworth of Canada, who had been in the country, put in an appearance.

No decision is expected today. While nothing can be known definitely, a very hopeful feeling prevails in American circles. A significant reflex of this appears in today's Times. Dealing with the difficulties encountered in the selection of a new British ambassador to the United States and the irritation which he would have faced both in the United States and Canada if the trial broke up with a disagreement, the Times says:

"We rejoice to say that there is believed to be something more than a possibility that an award may be agreed upon, or rather that the case will not be so answered as to end the matter."

The commissioners will sit daily from 11 a. m. until 1:30 p. m., when they will adjourn for luncheon, and will resume their deliberations at 2 p. m., adjourning for the day at 4 p. m., until a decision is reached.

CANADIANS ARE WORRIED.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 12.—In parliament today Minister Borden asked if the prime minister had taken any steps to verify the accuracy of the report which was published in the Times, one of the commissioners on the Alaskan boundary question. Mr. Borden said the telegraphic report contained certain observations, both with regard to his views on matters now the subject of political controversy in the United Kingdom. Mr. Borden concluded:

"It seems to me rather unusual and I decline to believe that Mr. Aylesworth could have used the language attributed to him."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied that the government had taken no steps to ascertain whether the alleged interview had taken place or not. He added:

"We assume that this interview had not the character attributed to it. Mr. Aylesworth is a man of very great eminence, and I would hesitate to believe, and I think my honorable friend would have equal hesitation, that Mr. Aylesworth would have expressed any opinion on a matter which is sub judice, and in which he himself is one of the judges. The language attributed to him is very improbable and until I hear to the contrary and have some better guarantee for believing that Mr. Aylesworth has so expressed himself I shall believe that this interview, like many others, was not an expression of the views of Mr. Aylesworth."

Mr. Bell of Picton called the attention of the government to a cablegram which said that Lord Alverstone considered that the United States had the best of the case and that he was going to decide accordingly.

Sir Richard Cartwright, in the absence of the prime minister, replied: "I think this is a probable and almost impossible that the government would require the slightest consideration at the hands of the government or any member of this house. I cannot conceive it possible that a person in the position of Lord Alverstone could have committed himself in any such way as is stated in this dispatch."

SEVEN INDIANS CRUELLY MURDERED.

Whisky Crazed Reds on the Flathead Reservation Go On the War Path With Above Result.

Browning Mont., Oct. 12.—Dissemination among several bands of Indians on the Flathead reservation culminated in one of the worst tragedies recorded in this part of Montana in several years. Several Indians were cruelly murdered in their beds and two others wounded. Reservation officers have made four arrests and the accused are confined in the guardhouse here.

Forty chiefs have sprung up since the contrary and have some better guarantee for believing that Mr. Aylesworth has so expressed himself I shall believe that this interview, like many others, was not an expression of the views of Mr. Aylesworth."

White Chief's Last and his family were shot through the head, dying instantly. His wife, awakened by his child, a mere babe and fled from the house. One of the murderers grabbed her and placing a revolver at the head of the babe upon its mother's breast, pulled the trigger, the same bullet killing both mother and child. Two other children were also killed. Susan Big Road and Mrs. J. Little Plume, were also killed. Alice Big Road was shot in the head and died. The parties who were being murdered before his eyes, had his throat cut and an arm pulled off. Alice Big Road and Little Plume may live. The bodies of the murdered were shockingly mutilated.

Agent Monteth and Dr. Martin, the agency doctor, hurried to the scene of the killing as soon as word was received at the agency. Great excitement prevails all over the agency.

Call for Extra Session.

Washington, Oct. 12.—It was announced that the call for the extraordinary session of Congress to meet Nov. 7 will be issued probably in the 20th inst.

Elia Broden Shot and Killed.

Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 12.—Elia Broden, aged 24, of Sedalia, the divorced wife of John Brockway, who is serving a term in the penitentiary for the murder of his second wife, was shot and instantly killed by John E. Mayer, a farmer, unmarried and 30 years of age, near Gravis Mills. Mayer was arrested. The cause of the murder is not known definitely but it is believed Mayer objected to Mrs. Broden returning to Sedalia.

Child Assaulted and Killed.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 12.—Mary Koskitch, aged 13 years, was found dead in a ditch within a few squares of her home in South Wilmington today, and investigation showed she had been assaulted and thrown into the water. From the fact that she had been assisted ing a sick neighbor last evening, her parents supposed she was spending the night there and made no inquiry when she failed to return home. The police are without a clue.

Quiet at St. Andrews.

Washington, Oct. 12.—A cablegram received today from Commander Hubbard, commanding the Nashville, date Colon, yesterday, stated that he had visited the island of St. Andrews and noted the situation there quiet. The Nashville was sent there to investigate the alleged ill-treatment of certain Americans employed on one of the plantations on the island.

Archbishop Kain Dying.

Baltimore, Oct. 12.—The condition of Archbishop Kain is still unchanged. He became unconscious and is in the same condition. At St. Agnes sanitarium, where he has been a patient for several weeks, the physicians report that there are no hopes for his recovery, and that it is evident he is suffering no pain.

HIS CAREER.

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—Because of the serious illness of Archbishop Kain he was relieved of the active work of this archdiocese several months ago by Bishop Glennon of Kansas City, who was appointed coadjutor.

Archbishop Kain is one of the most widely known and most popular prelates in the United States. Born in Martinsburg, Berkeley county, W. Va., on May 31, 1841, of Irish parents, he received in early life the training which made his work in the church such that he forged his way to the front quickly. His preparatory education for the priesthood was received at the St. Charles seminary in Baltimore, Md., where he was graduated in 1862.

He then entered St. Mary's college at Baltimore, which institution was the scene of his higher studies. He was ordained a priest by Archbishop Spaulding on July 2, 1866.

As a priest, his early work was in the territory along the Potomac river. In May, 1876, he was consecrated bishop of Wheeling. He ruled that diocese until June 15, 1893, when he was appointed coadjutor to the Most Rev. Richard Peter Kenick of St. Louis. Upon the death of that prelate he succeeded to the archbishopric of St. Louis on May 21, 1895.

Most Study German History.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—The Wiedepfening, published in Posen, says the government has informed Archbishop Silesius that it is necessary that the students for the priesthood in the seminary at Posen must attend lectures on German history and literature in the new academy, otherwise the seminary will be closed.

Grout Will Make No Contest.

New York, Oct. 12.—Comptroller Grout has finally decided not to make a legal contest to keep his name on the Fusion ticket as a candidate for re-election.

SAN JUAN SOCIALISTS.

Tried to Raise Disorder and Raised Black and Red Flag.

San Juan, P. R., Oct. 12.—Gov. Hunt returned here today from Ponce, where he attended a banquet in celebration of the extension of the American railway to the island. He was met by the anti-American socialists and anarchists had a clash with the police on the plaza of this city. Forty arrests were made and most of the prisoners were convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment, including the anarchist Conde, who was recently convicted of insulting the American flag.

The police was due to the socialists, who attacked the police. The latter ordered the mob to disperse, and on meeting with a refusal they used their clubs freely.

Americans here are particularly incensed at the carrying of black and red flags and a crepe American flag by a mob yesterday as an incitement to disorder. Conde delivered a very offensive harangue, in which he approved of the mob resorting to bloodshed if necessary.

The Americans demand the punishment of all the dangerous socialists and anarchists who have been overheard in the city. They urged that an immediate death blow be struck to anarchism here. The city is quiet today. More of the men arrested for attacking the police will be tried tomorrow.

OREGON RAILWAY BANDIT.

Chas. Hoan Tells of Gang's Movement Before and After Robbery.

Portland, Or., Oct. 12.—Charles Hoan, the 17-year-old lad who has confessed that he was one of the party of four who attempted to hold up a train on the Oregon Railroad & Navigation line near Corbett station on Sept. 22, was brought here today from Clark county, Washington, where he was arrested last Thursday night. He gives an account of the movements of the gang before and after the robbery, and insists that "Bill" Morgan, alias A. B. Miner, was the leader of the gang. Young Hoan says he has an unwilling participation in the robbery, but that he was afraid to leave the gang for fear that Miner would kill him.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but none but Newb's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newb's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

A MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING IN PARIS

Eliza Papesco, a Roumanian Singer, Killed in the Hotel Regina.

RESEMBLES ELLEN CORE CASE.

Frederick Gritgling, Editor of an Art Paper, Mixed Up With This Affair—He Also Knew Eugenie Fougere.

Paris, Oct. 12.—The mysterious shooting of a Roumanian singer, Eliza Papesco, at the Hotel Regina here, where many Americans stop, and in the center of a fashionable quarter in Paris, resembles in its essential features the case of Mrs. Ellen Gore, the American woman who was killed in the apartments of Jean de Rydzewski, the Russian singer, in November last. As cabled to the Associated Press Saturday, Frederick Gritgling, editor of an art paper, reported to the hotel clerk that day that a young woman had killed herself in his room, and investigation showed that the dead woman was Eliza Papesco.

When the body was examined by a physician today a bullet wound was discovered in the base of her skull and another wound was found in her temple. The latter caused the woman's death.

The physician declared it was impossible for the woman to have inflicted the wound at the base of her skull. Gritgling is held on the charge of murder. According to Gritgling, a sister of the dead woman, Gritgling proposed marriage to Eliza, claiming he was rich and saying he was opposed to her going to Bucharest to fill an engagement at the Royal theater there.

It is said that while at Aix-les-Bains recently Gritgling became acquainted with Eugenie Fougere, the demi-monde, who was murdered in her villa there Sept. 18 under mysterious circumstances.

Taft Ready to Assume Office.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Word has been received at the White House from Gov. Taft that he will be here ready to assume his new duties as secretary of war some time in January.

INSURANCE CONSPIRACY.

A Man and Woman Shot Under Very Peculiar Circumstances.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Earl Ellsworth, aged 24 years, was arrested here today as the result of an alleged confession which he made to the police. Ellsworth was arrested at Woodstock, Ill., Benjamin Ellsworth, Earl's father, finding his wife in company with Amos Anderson, shot and killed both, and then, according to Earl Ellsworth, who gave the police the story, the old man committed suicide. Earl admitted having advised his father to kill the couple, and at the time was arrested as an accessory, but was allowed to go, public sentiment generally being in his favor.

An insurance company, however, being liable for $8,000 insurance which the elder Ellsworth carried, decided to investigate further. The tale which young Ellsworth told with the detectives and which was overheard by witnesses seated in an adjoining room, is said to have cleared Ellsworth's mother of the charge of faithlessness and to have left open to doubt the statement that the elder Ellsworth killed himself. It is said there was a conspiracy to obtain the insurance money. Earl Ellsworth and two prominent citizens of Woodstock were involved, and that young Ellsworth's alleged conversation with his supposed friends, who claimed to be helping him to avoid impending arrest, leaves open to grave question the statement that the killing of Anderson and Mrs. Ellsworth was by the elder Ellsworth.

DENVER ELECTION TROUBLES

Judge Refuses to Appoint Elisors To Summons Grand Jury.

Denver, Oct. 12.—District Judge Booth yesterday refused to appoint Elisors to summon a grand jury for the investigation of alleged charter election frauds and then declined to take grand jurors who had already been summoned by Sheriff Armstrong, on the ground that they would be subjected to unfair aspersions should they be required to serve. The court decided that prosecutions in the election cases must be instituted by the district attorney if at all.

NEW REFORM SCHEME.

Austrian and Russian Ambassadors to Present it to the Porte.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 12.—The details of the new Austro-Russian reform scheme are awaited here with the greatest interest. A dispatch from Constantinople says that the Austrian and Russian ambassadors will present their proposals to the Porte today.

The government here is taking the strictest precautions to prevent insurgents from crossing the frontier. One band is reported to have been fired on by Bulgarian troops near Rila today while trying to assist a crowd of fugitives who were being pursued by the Turks. This incident is considered to be evidence of the government's correct intention.

Three Killed in Collision.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 2.—Three men were killed and three others were injured, one seriously, in a collision between Missouri Pacific and Erie freight trains that crashed into each other at St. Louis avenue and Santa Fe streets in this city.

DEAD.

A. L. Johnson, Missouri Pacific switchman.
John Murphy, Missouri Pacific switchman.
George Kirkpatrick, flagman.

INJURED.

Will Austin, negro, compound fracture of the leg, which will be amputated.
R. H. Grant, Missouri Pacific engineer, rib broken.
J. E. Ward, severely bruised.
The Erie train was standing on the crossing when the Missouri Pacific train ran into it, turning over a freight car. This car fell over on a crowd of men on the other side of the Erie train, who were waiting for the Erie train to pass and clear the crossing.
