

A Depraved Wretch.—Dr. McClellan, of Provo, an individual who has figured prominently in several disgraceful scenes of late, has capped the climax of his depravity, by committing an unnatural crime upon the person of one of his own sex. The victim is the boy (Chas. H. Barratt, aged 15, sentenced to 60 days in the Utah County Jail, for committing rape, as told in our issue of Thursday evening. It will be remembered that several months ago McClellan was examined before a justice of the peace at Springville, on the charge of frightening a sick man to death, by brandishing a knife over the invalid's couch, and otherwise behaving in a shameful and disgusting manner on account of having been discharged from attendance as a physician in the case. The justice held McClellan in bonds to await the action of the grand jury, but the latter being unable to furnish the security asked, was remanded to jail. Some time afterward, on complaining of sickness to United States Attorney Van Zile, the latter obtained for him a temporary release and told him to go home and doctor himself, and be ready to come into Court when wanted. Several days ago he was summoned to appear and plead to the indictment against him in the affair with the sick man. He entered the court room drunk and disorderly, was saucy and impudent to Judge Emerson and began giving orders to the court in relation to his case. The Judge could stand his conduct no longer and ordered him into prison, until such time as he was sober enough to make his plea. Sheriff Turner took him into custody, and put him in a cell communicating with the boy Barratt. On Wednesday last, Barratt complained to the Sheriff that McClellan had abused him. Inquiry elicited the disgusting facts, and the Sheriff, by strategy, that same night, caught McClellan in the very act of his revolting crime.

Last Night's Theatre.—The "Lost Ship" and "My Turn Next" were played last evening to a crowded house. The performance was highly appreciated, the comedies of Messrs. Margetta, Evans, Horsley, Hovey and others, keeping the house in a perpetual effervescence of mirth, while the fine scenery of the nautical piece, coupled with its startling situations, and thrilling nature of the plot, kept alive the interest of the audience from first to last. Messrs. Wilton and Taylor had prominent parts and did them in good style. Miss Cogswell was still suffering from a bad cold, but played with life and animation. Miss Grundman in the farce acted well and Miss Vincent, in the first piece, made a fair impression. The selections were just the thing for Conference, and we were glad to see them so well patronized.

This evening will close Phil's series, when the "Lost Ship" will be repeated, with the amusing 2-act comedy of the "Jacobite" as an addition. During the evening the "Sailor's Hornpipe" will be executed by an experienced dancer. Phil's friends and admirers should seize the chance to see him again.

The new Theatre Orchestra, under the direction of Prof. C. J. Thomas, did some fine playing last night, and are also engaged for to-night, when they will render some new and beautiful selections.

Priesthood Meeting.—A very interesting meeting of the Priesthood was held last night, at 7 o'clock, in the Assembly Hall. An article on the Aaronic Priesthood was read by Apostle George Q. Cannon, and remarks were made thereon by President John Taylor, Apostles Wilford Woodruff and Orson Pratt. The meeting adjourned until 7 o'clock to-night at the same place, when the same subject will be further treated upon.

Appointments.—From the Millennial Star of Sept. 20: "Alfred Best is appointed a traveling elder in the Sheffield Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder Henry Margetta."

John J. Jones, who formerly received an appointment to the North-west Conference, is appointed to continue a traveling elder in the Bristol Conference, where he now is—to labor under the direction of Elder Edward E. Brain."

Information Wanted.—Mrs. Armand, of Timaru, Canterbury, New Zealand, wishes to learn of the whereabouts of her brother, John Eplin, who joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints over 29 years ago. He would now be about 53 years of age. If he is alive, his sister would be pleased to correspond with him.

The "Widow."—On Monday and Tuesday next, Mr. Neil Burgess and his company will be here to reproduce the great comical success of the day, "Widow Bedott." The piece has been seen here before, but will be sure to draw good houses again. All who want a hearty laugh, need only to see the "Widow" to be hugely gratified.

Reduction Works.—The Horn Silt Mining Company, of South Utah, are about to erect 50-ton furnaces on Cottonwood, in the neighborhood of the Germania works. The design is to have their ores reduced here, instead of shipping them away to other places, thereby entailing heavy freight expense that can be obviated.

Coming Home.—A letter from Elder John Nicholson states that he will leave Liverpool for home with the company that sails from that port on the 23d inst.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.
As I was the drawer of No. 74 which took the GIFT HANNS made and put before the public by C. J. Gustavson, Esq., I take this medium of thanking Mr. Gustavson for his kindness, and I shall take pleasure in showing the good work displayed on the same, to any one who may desire it.

BARRATT BROS.

ON the first page of to-day's issue will be found the advertisement of Rathbone, Sard & Co., of Chicago, Illa. This firm have recently put on the market an excellent family Cooking Range, called the ALDERMAN, which has been especially manufactured by them for the use of families. It is without doubt one of the best of its class ever offered for sale in this Territory. It consumes less fuel than any ordinary cook stove of the street, and combines all the advantages of cooking ranges costing double its price. There are five sizes from No. 7 upward. They were first introduced into this market, last spring, by our enterprising merchant, S. P. Teasdel, Esq., where they are for sale. There are several of them in use in this city and are giving the greatest satisfaction. The ALDERMAN is manufactured by one of the most reliable firms in America who also offer an extensive variety of Cooking and Heating Stoves. The stoves, etc., have been sold in this Territory since 1868 and have become quite familiar with our citizens. Read the advertisement.
