EVENING NEWS.
Monday, November 23, 1885
SUNDAY SERVICES.
The services in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon were well attended by High Councilor Wm. Edmonds. It opened by the choir singing:
Praise to God immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days.
Prayer was offered by Elder H. W. Naistadt, after which the choir sang:
After we meet again on the
Other side, our redeeming Lord.
The Priesthood of the Nineteenth Ward officiated in the administration of the sacrament.

Elder Herbert L. James, on being called to address the congregation, explained that he did not do so voluntarily, and that he naturally shrank from such an undertaking, but being a Latter-day Saint, he felt he was under a duty to those who were in the Priesthood. He had recently returned from a mission to England, which he started from this city on the 10th of April, 1884, and he supposed that he was called upon to give a testimonial of his faith in the Gospel, and of his belief in the restoration of the Kingdom of God on Earth. He was called upon to give a testimonial of his faith in the Gospel, and of his belief in the restoration of the Kingdom of God on Earth.

When he first embraced the Gospel, the principles seemed so plain and convincing to him that he felt certain he would only have to make them known to his relatives and they would accept of them immediately. He discovered, however, that this was not the case, and he found that he was called upon to give a testimonial of his faith in the Gospel, and of his belief in the restoration of the Kingdom of God on Earth.
