dress on "The Necessity of Missionary Work in Connection with the Sabbath School." He spoke of the great work which is being done in the Sabbath schools throughout the world, and urged upon the officers and teachers to bring themselves to feeling that the Sabbath school work is a privilege ra-ther than a duiy. "We are the stew-ards in the garden of the Lord," said the speaker, "and have under our oure the most precious jewels known to man; therefore lei us as Sunday school workers of the Sait Lake stake of Zion, see to it that our whole duity to the Sabbath school cause is performed cheerfully and thoroughly." Supt. Feit expressed his apprecia-tion of the efforts put forth by the local workers in the interest of the Sabbath school, and spoke of the great good that has been accomplished in this work. The speaker spixed that good that has been accomplished in this work. The speaker stated that owing to labors of an arduous nature.

it had become necessary for Sisters Amy Bowman and Rebecca V. Morris, members of the Salt Lake stake board, to tender their resignations, and it was proposed that the workers of the Sab-bath schools of the Salt Lake stake, honorably release them, with their most hearty appreciation for the labors per hearty appreciation for the labors per-formed by them as members of the board. It was also proposed that hereafter union meetings be commenced promptly at 7:30 p. m. Both motions carried unanimously, Elder Hugh Ireland of the superin-tendency of the Fifteenth ward, read a most interesting paper, the subject of which was, "The Value of Local Board Meetings,"

The departments were conducted as
