TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS and DISORDERED LIVER.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Exactation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, a feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work, and are a perfect

CORRESPONDENCE.

A BILK AND SCOUNDREL.

RICHMOND, Cache Co., Utah, May 5, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

In the summer of 1884, two gentlemen (?) calling themselves Harry Bedford and Harry Groves, and representing themselves as deserters from Fort Douglas, came to this place and expressed themselves as desirous of locating here permanently. Bedford became a member of the Mormon Church in Salt Lake City and was "recommended" from there to this place. He had formed the acquaintance of an estimable lady residing in Salt Lake and had no trouble in introducing himself and friend to relatives of his lady friend residing here.

Soon after their arrival Groves began an investigation of the principles of the Gospel and was soon after baptized into the Church under the name of Irvin Giffs, (his real name is supposed to be Simms).

The pair behaved themselves as become gentlemen during the summer and began to win the respect of the community.

Mr. Bedford, who had been a member of the Fort Douglas Band, joined the Richmond Brass Band, and thus was enabled to introduce himself and friend into social circles. When work shut down in the fall, Bedford removed to Logan for the winter, Groves, or Geffs, remaining at this place.

About this time Geffs conceived the idea of starting a local paper, and received the hearty support of our best men. He immediately set about taking subscriptions. He placed the price at 50 cents per year, and succeeded in getting several subscribers.

Arrangements were made with the Utah Journal, of Logan, to print his paper, and one issue was brought out.

During the day before Christmas our hero partook too freely of King Alcohol, and by night was overloaded and became very noisy and profane, barely escaping a night's lodging at the expense of the city. After dark he assaulted a young lady on the street and made some indecent proposals to her. On Christmas day complaint was entered against him and he was arrested and fined $12. He claimed that he was unable to pay the fine, and rather than see him go to jail, a sympathetic bystander became his security for the amount, after having taken Geffs pledge that he should be reimbursed. Soon after being released from custody Geffs started to Smithfield, saying that he had some collections to make there, and that he would be back the following day.

It might be well to state here that he was still $25 behind on his board bill. Subsequent developments show that, instead of going to Smithfield he went to Logan and collected all the money he could there on subscription and advertisements and then took the train for the north. He wrote letters to his several creditors here stating that he had received a telegram from a relative in Ohio, asking him to come at once and he would be furnished with funds to successfully carry on his newspaper scheme.

The next heard from Geffs was that he was teaching school in Clifton, Idaho. A charge was preferred against him in the Bishop's court here, and a notification sent him to Clifton. He plead guilty to the charge by letter, and piteously plead for mercy, promising restitution for past offenses and honorable conduct in future. The finding of the court was that he should make all wrongs right and renew his covenants which he solemnly promised to do.

His hellish designs were not fully accomplished yet, however, and it was a part of his scheme to profess godliness, while, at heart, he was a fiend incarnate. Being a gentleman in speech and appearance, he became familiar with a young lady of respectability at Clifton; and, under promise of marriage, robbed her of virtue and cast her adrift, leaving her in sorrow and shame. The last heard of him was at Uintah, where he was passing himself off as editor of the Journal. Perhaps, Mr. Editor, if the principal subject of this letter is not in our Territory now, and this will not serve as a warning against him, it will serve as a warning against others of his ilk. If it does, the complete object will be accomplished. H.

NOTES FROM ONEIDA STAKE.

OXFORD, May 4, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

The people of this region are busily engaged in their usual employment of this time of the year, and seem to feel that prospects are favorable for good crops.

On Saturday and Sunday, April 25th and 26th, an unusually good time was enjoyed by the Latter-day Saints at a held in the Oxford meeting house, at which a host of people gathered to partake of the spiritual food which God through his servants, had prepared for them. The first day was principally taken up by reports from the various wards by Bishops or their representatives, Presidents of Quorums, etc. There was present of the Twelve Apostle John W. Taylor, who occupied a portion of the afternoon giving good advice to all. His remarks were very interesting as well as instructive.

On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, the meeting house being too small to admit of the crowd, many people gathered around the doors and windows to hear the Presidency of the Stake and others of our good brethren who occupied the forenoon, and seemed well pleased with the situation of affairs generally in the Stake.

In the afternoon, after the opening services and administration of the Sacrament, Apostle John W. Taylor delivered an address most suitable to the times, and which we deemed spiritual food indeed.

On the following morning, Apostle John W. Taylor, in company with Counselor Sol. H. Hale, the President of the Relief Society and Counselors and others, started on a tour around the Stake, with the intention of visiting every ward. They reached Franklin on Sunday, May 3d, where they were joined by Counselor George C. Parkinson and wife (she being the President of the Primaries of the Stake,) and her Counselors, and continued their tour. They will no doubt have an excellent time.

are being made now and then of polygamists and others. I will relate one which occurred last week in Franklin. A girl about 15 years of age by the name of Emma Jolley was arrested for preventing an officer from entering her father's house to arrest him for polygamy. The officer on approaching the door of the house, told the girl he had come to take her father. She replied that she would not let him in if she could prevent him, unless he showed papers authorizing him to search the house. He did not produce them however, and still presisted in trying to get in. The plucky girl held the door for a time and seeing that he was determined to force his way in, she threw some cayenne pepper in his face, thus winning the battle and saving her father from being arrested. She was arrested and brought here for trial, which occurred to-day before Prosecuting Attorney White, who bound her over in the sum of $500 to await the action of the Grand Jury.

There seems little chance for the "Mormons" to get justice in Idaho, and I presume it is so almost everywhere.

Yours, very respectfully,
A. H. H.

PAROWAN ITEMS.

PAROWAN, Iron County, Utah, May 4th, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

A mass meeting was held here at 1 p. m. on Saturday, the 2d inst. The Declaration of grievances and Protest to be forwarded to President Cleveland were read to the meeting, a large number of speakers fervently indorsed them, declared they knew every word they contained to be true and trusted and prayed that the President would kindly listen to our humble importunities and grant our requests. Fair play is all we ask. A full and complete vote of the house was heartily given sustaining the work of the committee appointed at the late General Conference.

The past winter has been mild and pleasant for the most part here, the spring showery and most desirable for the farmers. Prospects for this season's crops, so far, are very fair, if the rabbits can only now be subdued; they have been cutting down the young grain a great deal. The people have turned out en masse and had four general rabbit drives to the lake; many were killed on the margin and many others took to the water. The boys waded in after them and had quite a time killing rabbits in the water. It is not pleasant work, but stern necessity compels their destruction.

Respectfully, RION.

MADAME BARRIOS

AND PARTY PASS THROUGH OGDEN TO NEW YORK.

Yesterday morning, Madame Barrios, widow of the late Dictator and President of Guatemala, passed through Ogden on her way to New York. The lady was accompanied by her seven children, four girls and three boys, and a party of friends and servants numbering in all twenty-five persons. An Ogden Herald reporter obtained a short interview with Antonio Barrios, the oldest living son of the deceased President, who is a cadet at West Point. He was dressed in a grey uniform, is not very tall, and has a very firm, dignified and resolute appearance.

Madam Barrios is not above the average stature, a brunette, and possesses large black eyes and glossy hair. She is about 28 years of age, and when seen yesterday was attired in a black dress with a small black lace shawl thrown over her head. She married Barrios at the age of 15, and the story of her marriage is quite romantic. Barrios was so charmed when he first saw her that he invaded the convent where she was, carried her off by force and locked up her father till he consented to their union, which consent was very soon forthcoming. It is understood that Madam Barrios and her family are well provided for and they will probably remain in New York City, where the late President purchased some property. Antonio Barrios will finish his education at West Point. He blames Zaldivar for the death of his father, and says when he attains his majority he will return to Guatemala, when probably he will make an effort to avenge the death of his illustrious sire.

The circumstances by which Barrios came to his end are now pretty well known, and it is generally admitted that he was shot by a sharpshooter who was hidden in the top of a tree. He died instantly, and in the melee which ensued over his body his eldest son and son-in-law lost their lives. It is also said that when Mrs. Barrios was spoken to in regard to a monument to her husband's memory, she replied the best monument the government could raise would be a man who would be equal to the occasion and who would carry out Barrio's plans.

Madame Barrios' party went east on the regular train, without any unusual delay. The lady and her suite occupied two palace cars.—Ogden Herald.
