

DEFENDER TO BE NAMED THE EAGLE

Manager Duncan Thinks the Name an Appropriate One.

CREW WILL BE AMERICAN.

Sailor Boys for the New Boat Will be from "All Around," Intelligent, Wiry and Alert.

The New York Herald says: The game of the yacht to defend the American cup has been given much thought by Mr. W. Butler Duncan, Jr., its manager. Mr. Duncan has come to the conclusion that the new vessel, he has not yet fully reached a decision in the matter, but eagle has a national ring about it, and it is not devoid of meaning. Some object to the name on the ground that it is too short for such a big boat, but that is nothing. It really stands for size, strength and speed, and the bird is the national emblem of the United States which is a great deal.

It is Mr. Duncan's purpose to secure an American crew for the new boat. Contrary to the expectations, however, they will not all be chosen from the sailor boys down in Maine, as were the crews of the Defender and the Columbia, but they will be from "all around." "All around," means that Mr. Duncan and his skipper, will select men of experience and intelligence, strong, wiry and alert, qualities demanded in the crew of a boat defending the American cup. There will be more than half a hundred of these, all told.

TOD SLOAN'S STANDING.

It is Discussed by James R. Keene—
Endorses English Ruling.

New York, Dec. 8.—James R. Keene, last night, discussed Tod Sloan's standing in America, since the recent decision against him by the English Jockey club, said:

"It is impossible for me to express an opinion about a matter which will probably come up before me as a referee of the Jockey club. I do not think there is a doubt that the ruling of the English Jockey club is eminently proper and just."

"They probably have some other reasons in the background which they are not required to make public besides those given for the conclusions they arrived at. We have had similar cases to pass on over here. I do not believe he was ordered not to apply for a license solely because he accepted a present."

"I am positive there is no feeling whatever in England against any American, but the English Jockey club, who does his duty and behaves in a proper manner."

Sloan Does Not Care.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—James Tod Sloan, accompanied by a retinue of servants, arrived from New York this afternoon. Sloan professed to worry little over Thursday's reported action of the English racing stewards, declaring that he would be persona non grata if he applied for a jockey's license next season. He declares that he yet expects to ride in England. Falling in this, he will return to his humble starting place in America, or perchance try his fortunes in France.

Sloan will remain in the city until next Tuesday, when he will pay a day's visit to his old home at Kokomo, Ind., returning in time for the Gans-McGovern fight next Tuesday night. Proceedings to the Pacific coast, where he hopes to accept a few mounts.

In regard to the announcement in the Racing Calendar, Sloan said: "Naturally it is a subject upon which I care to say little. I have not been ruled off the track, and if I apply for license I am to be refused. I must wait for a definite announcement. The only change in my plans will be that I shall return to England earlier, try to have a talk with the stewards, and at any rate, ask a hearing."

SPORTS AT BUFFALO.

Games to Take Place at the Pan-American Exposition.

New York, Dec. 8.—The committee on sports of the Pan-American exposition to be held in Buffalo has announced some details of the plans for the games to take place at the exposition. It was said that amateur sports of all kinds would be particularly encouraged as representing the most desirable athletic competitions. In the management of the various intercollegiate events it was the desire of the committee not to carry out the same as the college associations should be invited to undertake as far as possible the arrangements of all necessary details connected therewith. While amateur sports would comprise a large part of the program it was proposed to have such a number of professional contests as would allow visitors an opportunity

TELL THE TRUTH

If I were asked what feature of my business methods had been most profitable, I should unhesitatingly say "telling the truth."—MUNYON.

IT IS THE TRUTH when Prof. Munyon says: "I know that my COLD CURE will break up any cold in twenty-four hours and prevent pneumonia and grip."

IT IS THE TRUTH when he declares: "I will guarantee that my Rheumatism cure will relieve any form of Rheumatic pains, including Sciatica and Lumbago in from two to three hours, and effect a positive cure in a few days."

IT IS THE TRUTH when he states: "I do not believe there is a case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or Stomach Trouble that cannot be relieved at once and permanently cured by my Dyspepsia Cure."

IT IS THE TRUTH when he asserts: "I can produce more than 20,000 testimonials to prove that my Kidney Cure will cure all forms of Kidney Complaint and in many instances the earlier stages of Bright's Disease."

IT IS THE TRUTH when he affirms: "Each of my Remedies is a proved curative for a special ailment. These Remedies, I frankly admit, are not due to me alone. They are the carefully secured results of the constant experiment and actual practice of eminent physicians, skilled specialists and chemists of two continents. Each was a demonstrated cure before given acceptance. That which has cost thousands of dollars to secure is offered to you for a few pennies!"

to witness the athletic skill of the best professionals. The character of prizes that will be offered had not yet been definitely determined upon, but the prizes awarded would be of a value as lasting souvenirs.

Although no definite engagements have been made the following games have been tentatively planned by the committee, and are now the subject of correspondence:

College baseball, college football, the intercollegiate meet, which is usually held each year in this city; the annual track and field championship meet of the amateur athletic union, lawn tennis tournament, in which all the leading American players and possibly foreign representatives may compete; cross country running, lacrosse between leading Canadian and American teams for the championship of the world; cycling, gaelic football, association football, water sports, basket ball, roque, Canadian games, gymnastics, cricket, bowling, professional baseball, New York State school athletics and military manoeuvres.

Nearly all of the contests will be for the world's championships.

SIX DAYS TO SPARE.

Harry West Walks from New York to San Francisco.

San Francisco, Dec. 8.—Harry West, known as "Kid West," who, on August 1st, left New York on a wager he would walk to San Francisco in 125 days, has arrived here six days ahead of time.

West claims to have wagered $5,000 with Charles Macdonald of Kansas City that he would start from New York city without a cent, walk to San Francisco and get there broke, in the time specified.

PREFERS STARS AND STRIPES

Quarantine Joke Writes a Funny Letter to Doctor King.

Health Commissioner King is a man who seldom fails to see or appreciate a joke, no matter whether it is on himself or the other fellow. Since the "smallpox" epidemic broke out he has received hundreds of letters protesting against the quarantine rules and regulations and against the fracturing of them. Some of them berate him for keeping the yellow flag on certain premises up too long, others scold him for not keeping them up longer. A few threaten him with dire destruction if he don't do so and so; others threaten to get his "scalp" if he dares do so and so. The doctor, however, takes things philosophically and sends the letter reads, "since my son was taken to quarantine hospital, I have disinfected his room and the house, have burned part of the furniture, repaired room, kaiserdom ceiling and painted the floor. My family are all well, as I have failed thus far in scaring any more of them into having smallpox, or anything except abnormal appetites, and as my occupation at home seems to be gone, you will kindly order the 'flag' taken down?"

"As an absolute guarantee of immunity from all trespassers on the private domain, and as something insuring perfect seclusion, the yellow flag is to be commended; at least, such is my experience. But I think for a steady thing I prefer the Stars and Stripes."

OLSEN HAS BEEN RELEASED

Out Charge Against Him is That of Petit Larceny.

About 4:15 yesterday afternoon Chief Hilton received the following telegram from Sheriff Daniels of Leadville, Colorado: "Release Olsen; petit larceny."

The telegram referred to Martin E. Olsen, the young man arrested by Detective Sheets on the charge of embezzling $200 from the Blase Drug company of Leadville. It is alleged that the young man stole the $200, but in small amounts, so that no charge, more serious than that of petit larceny could be made against him. Upon receipt of the foregoing telegram, Olsen was promptly released.

TWO WHEELMEN ARRESTED.

They Didn't Know that Mayor Thompson
Had Vetted the Last Ordinance.

Two violators of the bike ordinance were caught violating last evening, by Officer Ed Davies. Will Scheide and O. R. Meredith are the offenders. They were riding serenely along on the sidewalk on East Second South street when Davies pounced upon them and escorted them to headquarters, where they left their wheels for their appearance in court today. Officer Davies has donated his war pig and is hot on the trail of cyclists who persist in riding on sidewalks in restricted districts. They all have the same excuse, to wit: They didn't know that Mayor Thompson had vetted the recent ordinance passed by the City Council.

The excuse is worse than none at

INSURE NEW BUILDINGS.

University Regents Award the Plum to Local Board Companies.

The board of regents of the University met yesterday afternoon and awarded the insurance of the new buildings to the board companies of this city at the uniform rate of 50 cents per hundred on a valuation of $51,000 on the buildings and their furnishings. This is less than the original offer by 50 cents per hundred, which makes a saving to the State of $2,550.

The board has borrowed enough money to purchase material for the deepening of the sound in the new buildings, and therefore bids for that contract will soon be called for. As a means to kill the sound, the floors will be covered with felt and linoleum.

Croxall and wife a piece of vacant business ground, 27x12 1/2 feet in area, facing east on Commercial street, midway between First and Second South. The expressed consideration is $5,500 and the assuming of a mortgage of $1,500.

Josephine Groesbeck Smith and John Henry Smith yesterday conveyed by warranty deed to Henry Phillips, the Pittsburgh millionaire, for a consideration of $2,000, 72x112 feet of ground at the rear of the Board of Trade building, approached from Second South street, west of West Temple. Architect Ware is preparing plans for a ten-compartment brick terrace to cost $25,000, on this site.

The hospital records show over 2,000 days of charity work done last year; 113 free patients were taken care of.

POLITICS IN ARIZONA.

Accusation Against "Mormon" Voters
Shown to be Untrue.

Thatcher, Arizona, Dec. 1.—The Denver Republican of the 21st inst. has the heading, "Arizona's Statehood Aspirations," and erroneously adds the following:

"The defeat of Governor U. O. Murphy, Republican, by Marcus A. Smith, the Democratic candidate for delegate to Congress from Arizona, has been a set back for the statehood aspirations of that territory."

It is also claimed by the Denver paper that out of 29,000 votes cast Mr. Smith got over 10,000, and that the defeat of the Republican candidate is chargeable to the part taken by the Mormon vote of the territory. It says: "Ten thousand Mormons have settled in the upper part of Arizona. They are opposed to the immigration of Gentiles, and are consequently not in favor of statehood, believing that the admission of Arizona would bring thousands of immigrants. Murphy expected a majority of the Mormon vote on account of his woman's suffrage views, whereas it is now apparent that the Mormons voted solidly against him."

Presiding over the "Mormon" people of the Upper Gila valleys, the largest colony in Arizona, the whiter is prepared to say to the Denver Republican that there is not any truth in its statement above referred to, except possibly the returns on the representative to Congress.

As to the vote for Mr. Smith, we may depend he got a majority of his party vote, but not any Republican votes. As to "Mormon" votes, we have none, there are Democrats and Republicans, the former, however, being in the majority; and while perhaps a minority of the "Mormon" people in Arizona, were Democrats, those aligned with the Republicans voted with their party and did not keep them from getting elected to the same. Perhaps some of us may also conclude that if the "Mormons" had known that a Republican administration was to be continued they would have had more sense and sent a Republican representative to Congress.

The gentler sex of both parties, no doubt appreciate the governor's attitude on woman's suffrage; but unfortunately for them they have not much to say about election matters as yet. It may be added also that the Gentile ladies in this county are quite as largely interested in the suffrage movement.

As to the "Mormon" people having been in favor of statehood because of Gentile immigration, this is as unreasonable as untrue. We only need to refer to the many articles, circulars, letters over the signatures of the "Mormon" writers, encouraging settlers to locate in the country occupied by the "Mormons" to disprove any such assertions as those set forth by the Republican. We in Arizona desire it to be distinctly understood that there is no "Mormon" political party in Arizona, and while it is a fact that the majority of votes in this territory are Democratic, they are American citizens, and as such the present administration is theirs.

The modern conquest of the earth is everywhere marked by the extinction of grand, old types of animal life—from man downward. A new volume by Mr. W. L. Selater mentions two large mammals that have become extinct in South Africa in recent times, and several others that are surely passing. The last blue-box was killed in 1796. It is now known from five complete mounted specimens and several pairs of horns that have been preserved in museums. The guanaco is believed to have survived in the Orange colony until as late as 1875. Its frequent confounding with Burchell's zebra making information uncertain. It is thought that the white rhinoceros may still have a few representatives in Zululand, although not less than six were reported killed as recently as 1894. Of the white-tailed gnu and the blebok there were not long ago a few herds preserved in the Orange colony and the Transvaal, and naturalists feel much anxiety concerning the effect of the war upon these animals.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenida, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When symptoms of the croupy child become hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept on hand ready for instant use as soon as the symptoms appear.
