LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 18.—The House and Senate have today passed a bill for the relief of the bankrupt law shall be for the amounts allowed by the constitution and laws of each State in 1871, and that the exemptions shall be valid against debts contracted before the adoption of such constitutions as well as those contracted afterwards, and against the claims of the State or of any State court, was passed.

The American and Asiatic telegraph bill was passed.

The Vice President presented a petition from R. E. Simpson, counsel for the prosecution in the charge against Senator Pomeroy, asking the Senate to allow the scope of the inquiry by the special committee to receive the statements of certain members of the legislature of Kansas, now here, and others who had been summoned, that they were offered money by the agents and friends of Pomeroy to vote for him.

Fredrichsen, chairman of the special committee, thought the resolution ought to lie over till to-morrow.

German moved to refer it to the committee.

Ferry, of Conn., thought if the resolution was not broad enough to allow a full investigation he ought to be enlarged, and that it was due to the accused senator to demand resolution so to make the investigation cover all points of his denial, which was comprehensive and swelling.

denounced York as a rascal who did not dare to petition the Senate in his own name and argued that it was not consistent with the character of a senator to be assailed by such a man in such a way. He warned Senators that their own reputations, jointly and severally, were at stake. A vote with these incentives," said Nye, "we have had enough of them. We are having enough of them. Away with this idea of catering to the morbid appetites of the press! Let us have the truth. There is nothing that human vultures feed upon like conceal investigation.

Conkin took substantially the same ground as Nye, with regard to the extension of scope of the inquiry, saying that it would enable the prosecution to occupy so much of the remaining portion of the session as to leave no time for Pomeroy's defense. He also denounced

York.

Finally, Ferry, of Conn., offered the following which was adopted:

"Resolved, that the committee, charged with the investigation of charges against the Hon. S. C.

Pomeroy, be directed to inquire into any allegations of bribery or corruption by said Pomeroy in his recent election as United States Senator by the legislature of Kansas."

Morton gave notice that he would call up the Caldwell case on Tuesday next instead of Saturday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 18.—On motion of Sargent $10,000 was appropriated for a statue to Senator Baker, of California, for the national capitol.

After progressing as far as the sixteenth page, the bill comes to the judges of the committee arose.

Poland's select committee on the Credit Mobilier submitted their report, which was read by the clerk.

All the members implicated by the report were in their seats, Ames occupying the front seat. After the report was read Poland rose and said the committee did not expect any action to be taken on the report till it was printed, and members had an opportunity to examine it, nor did the committee propose to have it fixed for its discussion until then.

Brooks rose and said he desired to submit to the House in reply to what seemed to him a most partial, unjust and misleading report, two documents which had not been noticed at all by the committee.

The first was the process of the action instituted by McComb in
