LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH. — Jan. 11, 1894.

Anniversaries.

There was a gay old Friday evening in the festive ward of the benefit of the young men who had gathered together annually since the days of yore for the benefit of the ward. An excellent supper was prepared in the meeting house. After songs and recitations came the long期待.

Mr. H. H. Banks, an evangelist from Park City, has been holding revival meetings the past week in the Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the Presbyterians and Methodists. About thirty meetings have been held by them during the week and Mr. Banks goes today to Parowan to engage in the same work there. Dr. W. Ward of Salt Lake has come down to continue the meetings.

In an Eagle's Claws.

Two young boys engaged in a game in the Parowan草原 on Monday night were pulled by a large bird. The boys were in the air for a few moments and then fell toward a boy named John Morrison, when the eagle fastened its claws in his leg. It was immediately taken off, but the wound was a painful one and the boy was a patient in a hospital.

NOTES.

The skies are cloudy and threaten a snow storm.

A number of local miners are on a twelvemonth tour.

All the schools are again in full swing and enjoying a full attendance.

Business accounts will be settled at the Banking office this and the coming week.

Local school houses were all nicely cleaned and repaired before the winter holiday commenced.

Our lady bachelors, many very neatly dressed, gave a very fine and successful performance.

A marriage was arranged by many relatives of ours, a very fine and unexpected occurrence.

Mr. Henry Jones, of Lake Shore, and Misses Johnson, of the place, will today be united in the bonds of matrimony at the home of the groom's parents.

It is reported that corn gold fish have been made in the Mountain Park pond, and the fisherman, particularly the boy that the reporter, Mr. W. H. Price, was talking about, are anxious to have some to give to the others.

Marriage Bells.

The following marriages have been made in the city during the past week: Joseph H. Egert, Lewiston, to Miss E. Whipple, Fairview; Louis Parker, to Charlotte Minsterley, wife of Wadsworth; Alfred Little, son of Wadsworth, to Mrs. Wadsworth; Alfred Parker, of Logan, to Mrs. Parker; Wm. Price to Elizabeth Gregory, both of Parowan.

Gurglin to Gurglin.

Some time last evening John H. Gurglin, a sheaf, from his wife and married a young girl named Nielsen. The groom upon which the marriage was granted was seminary. Yvonne has also been married to us, and we are now awaiting his return to the United States.

Meeting of the A. C. Board.

Meetings have been held in the A. C. Hall, adjacent to the Tabernacle, to discuss the question of the general election. They will be held from afternoon to night.
