The head man in France is the gull-blotter.
They boast of a six-pound bull-frog in Indiana.
The King of Prussia has among his pets fifty white mice.
In Iowa 6,000 acres have been planted with flax this year.
The event in Parisian journalism is the issue of a journal in the Japanese language.

Bangor, Me., felt three shocks of an earthquake the other day.
Spiritual societies, where everybody dances, are held in Akron.
Lord Penzance lately divorced twenty-two couples in two days.

There are only seventy-four Bonapartes in France, says a French statistician.

An English collier kept a keg of powder under his bed, and the other day went after some smoking his pipe.
When he went out he took the keg along with him.

The Speaker's chair of the House of Delegates, Richmond, destroyed at the recent disaster, bore the British coat of arms, which was used in the House of Burgesses when Virginia was an English colony.

The Harvard Advocate says that this is the last thing from an impassioned lover to his mistress:
"Would you were an exclamation point and I the parenthesis (!)."

A correspondent of the Pure New Yorker recommends adding one pint of salt to every paul of whitewash. He says this makes a covering as hard as enamel and almost equal to paint.

A schoolmaster asked one of his scholars in the winter time, what was the Latin for cold. "Oh," answered the lad, "I forget it at this moment, although I have it at my fingers' ends." "Bill," said one apprentice to another, "my boss is a better man to work for than your old man. My boss ain't always around his shop interfering with his own business."

An English trade circular estimates that Great Britain imports 24,000,000 bushels of wheat between the first of April and the first of September, which must nearly all come from America.

"Cesar! go catch my big horse there."
"Yes, sir. What you call he name, sir?"

"Olympus; don't you know what the poet says about 'high Olympus'?"
"I don't know about 'Hio'—but he limps nuf—dat's for sartin'."

We learn from the Japan Gazette that a public library for the benefit of foreign residents will shortly be opened at Yokohama. A scheme is also proposed for the establishment of public gardens at the same place.

A Maine girl once stole an article of small value from her mistress in Belfast. She subsequently moved to Massachusetts, and last week, having endured the pangs of conscience for fifty-two years, sent a letter to her former mistress, confessing the theft and enclosing a sum of money to make restitution.

The direction in which plants twine is not a direct result of the position of the sun in regard to them; the French bean turns from right to left; the hop from left to right, and the common bryony either way.

"The fact is," said an elderly wife, "a man does not know how to straighten up things. He does not know where to commence. I don't wonder," she remarked, in conclusion "that when God made Adam he went right to work and made a woman to tell him what to do."

It is now proposed, instead of hanging felons, that we give them such a shock of electricity as will be powerful enough to kill them instantly, without pain.
Not only is this use for electricity discussed now, but it is suggested that all imals intended for food be killed in the same way.

A hermit of seventy-two, with hair two feet long, looped up with a strip of bark, and wears a sheepskin jacket, buckskin breeches and counterpane cap, and lives in a cave, has lately visited Detroit.

A Chinaman and a Jew had occasion to dispute on some matter of trade.
"So help me gragious!" said the Jew.
"I have not seen so great a rabishal ash vat you lah!" To which the Chinaman rejoined with such trenchant force as to close the colloquy: "Oh! you no goodie man! you kill American man's 'Josh'!"

It is customary, according to the Englishman's Magazine, to subject the young ladies in boarding schools to corporal punishment. The usual method is to strap the offender to an ottoman, or chair, and administer the flagellation with a strap. In a recent case the whippee, a damsel of sixteen, rebelled against the whipper, and the next day, getting a misanthrope (her cousin) to strap the misanthrope down, in the absence of the school, seized the leather thongs and took sweet revenge.

In one word, there is nothing but competent instruction in early life which will give every child the opportunity of making the most of himself.
Therefore, let the inquisitive mind of a child be properly instructed and established in physical, intellectual and moral truth; let him thus understand himself, what he is, why he is here, where he is going, and it is not in human nature to deny that that youth will be better able to begin life's duties, to meet its trials, to enjoy its sweets, and to bear its ills, than children who are denied these natural and friendly helps.

Convention was largely attended today, many delegates having arrived since yesterday morning.

RICHMOND.—The last ten companies of United States troops in Virginia, except the garrison of Fortress Monroe, left to-day for McHenry.

Enthusiasm in Havana over Grant's Cuban message.—Death of General Garcia, &c.—Failure of the largest operator in gold.

NEW YORK.—James Boydone, the largest operator in gold, in Wall Street, notified the president of the Stock Exchange this morning of his intention to meet his engagements. The report of the failure caused a decline of one half per cent in the premium on gold.

NEW YORK, 23.—On the arrival at Port Au Prince, from New York, of the Hayti, two passengers named Grant and Armand were arrested on a charge of having counterfeited money into the country. Several millions of dollars of money were discovered in their state room. They were thrown into prison and will shortly be put to death. The counterfeits were evidently engraved in this country.

The World's Havana correspondent writes that Grant's message on Cuban affairs was telegraphed in full to that city by the Spanish Minister at Washington, and was soon after printed in handbills by the official paper and distributed throughout the city. It produced the greatest joy among the Spanish citizens and volunteers, and the President's name was shouted everywhere with enthusiastic "Vivas."

There was a strong disposition to illuminate the city. Notwithstanding this happy mood, the authorities still keep in prison the American citizen last seized by them, Joseph Duane, and refuse to inform the Consul General Beddle, why he was arrested.

News has been received of the death of General Calixto Garcia, one of the ablest of the insurgent chiefs, who was killed in a recent engagement near Santa Reta. He makes the fourteenth general officer lost by the Cubans since the beginning of the war.

A special, dated Madrid, says, "In the Cortes yesterday, a bill, introduced by Senor Moret, Minister for the Calomes, for the gradual extinction of slavery in all the Spanish possessions, was adopted."

Excitement over the "Redstocking" victory.—Steamboats building.—Accident ally shot.—Colored Masons in session.
Cincinnati on route.

CINCINNATI.—The news of the victory of the "Redstockings" of this city over the "Athletics" of Philadelphia produced great excitement. During the progress of the game the newspaper offices were thronged, and as the game approached a close thousands of people were in the streets, and as the returns came from time to time applause followed. When the final result was announced men swung their hats and cheers went up, as enthusiastic as ever distinguished favorable election returns.

Twenty steamboats are now building here.

The corner stone of the Davidson fountain will be laid on Monday.

Jacob Thompson, of Clairmont county, was accidentally shot by a neighbor last Saturday; he will probably die.

The Ohio grand lodge of colored masons are in session here; eighty delegates are present, including representatives of the grand lodge of New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Twenty-six soldiers of the war of 1812 are here to-night, en route for the celebration at Fort Meigs.

Fire at Jacksonville.—Injury to the Crops.—Anti Coolie Movement in the East.—Probability of Movement being Recalled.

CHICAGO.—At Jacksonville, Ill., last night, the residence of Jephtha Dunlap was burned. W. H. Barnes, well known in that city, was severely injured by the falling bricks.

The weather throughout the northwest countries is excessively hot, the thermometer ranging from 90 to 96 in the shade. There is considerable complaint of injury to the growing crops in the northern part of Illinois, in Michigan and Wisconsin. A St. Paul dispatch says that serious apprehensions are expressed that the wheat crop in Minnesota will be badly injured by the almost unprecedented hot weather.

A New York special says the trades unions of New York are discussing the prospects of the importation of the Chinese as laborers. Several unions held meetings to-night and passed resolutions protesting against the introduction of Coolie labor to New York and vicinity. They have arranged for a grand procession and banquet on the 15th of September for the purpose of showing their strength, and making demonstration against any country except Ireland. Politicians interested in controlling the vote of the working men are urging them to oppose the Chinese emigrants, and are telling wonderful stories about the depravity of the "Celestials."

The Traveller's Washington despatch says there is a well founded report that Minister Motley will shortly be recalled from London.

MISSOURI.

Excitement over a Steamboat race.

ST. LOUIS.—The famous steamer Natchez, Captain Torn Cathers, arrived here to-day from New Orleans in three days and twenty-one hours and a half, the fastest time ever made. A race was made to beat time by the celebrated J. M. White, in 1844, which was three days, twenty-three hours and nine minutes, and which was never beaten until to-day, although many of the swiftest boats which have run this river during the past quarter of a century have attempted it. There was great excitement among steamboat men and the citizens generally in regard to the race, and when the Natchez touched the wharf this evening she was immediately thronged with an excited crowd. A large amount of money changed hands over the result.

MONTANA.

Fatal accident.—Arrested for murder.

HELENA.—While two men were putting in the last blast to the shaft, about 4 o'clock this morning, in the Charles Hendries mine, at Unionville, the blast went off prematurely, and killed one man, named Joe Miller, and seriously wounded the other; the eyes of the latter are nearly bursting their sockets, and it is feared that he will lose his sight.

The sheriff arrested, to-day, a negro named Simpson, charged with the murder of McLaughlin, in Virginia City, Ma., in the spring of '68.

CORK.—Serious riots occurred here yesterday. The masters had recently hired a great number of German tailors, displacing the Irish. Meetings of the Irish tailors were held and a strike was resolved upon at once. Yesterday afternoon the Irish rioters stopped work and soon afterwards rioted began. The strikers attacked the shops and the German employees. The police charged the rioters and succeeded in restoring order. A number of citizens who volunteered to aid the police were stabbed.
Everything is quiet now. Many arrests have been made.

MADRID.—In the Cortes yesterday teller's amendment for immediate abolition was negatived; 48 yeas to 88 nays.

A resolution prohibiting punishment by the lash was offered and carried.
Action on Senor Moret's bill was postponed and the Cortes adjourned to the 31st of October.
