A MAN

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R'Y

By reason of its central position, close relation to principal lines East of Chicago and continuous lines at terminal points West, Northwest and Southwest—is the only true middle-link in that transcontinental system which invites and facilitates travel and traffic in either direction between the Atlantic and Pacific.

The Rock Island main line and branches include Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, St. Joseph, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns and villages.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees Speed, Comfort and Safety to those who travel over it. Its roadbed is thoroughly ballasted. Its track is of heavy steel. Its bridges are solid structures of stone and iron. Its rolling stock is perfect as human skill can make it. It has all the safety appliances that mechanical genius has invented and experience proved valuable. Its practical operation is conservative and methodical—its discipline strict and exacting. The luxury of its passenger accommodations is unequaled in the West—unsurpassed in the world.

ALL EXPRESS TRAINS between Chicago and the Missouri River consist of comfortable DAY COACHES, magnificent PULLMAN PALACE PARLOR and SLEEPING CARS, elegant DINING CARS providing excellent meals, and between Chicago, St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City—restful RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct, favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Over this route solid Fast Express Trains run daily to the summer resorts, picturesque localities and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. The rich wheat fields and grazing lands of interior Dakota are reached via Watertown.

A short desirable route, via Seneca and Kankakee, offers superior inducements to travelers between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Council Bluffs, St. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and intermediate points.

All classes of patrons, especially families, ladies and children, receive from officials and employes of Rock Island trains protection, respectful courtesy and kindly attention.

A SURE CURE FOR THE PILES—You need not suffer from this most distressing disease again in all your life. Emsil's Ice acts as a poultice and lubricator, absorbs the tumors and allays the intense itching at once. No caustic, no acid, no pain. A. McGibbons Esq., 19 Poplar street, Allegheny, Pa., writes: "I had itching and bleeding piles so bad I could not sit, stand or walk without intense suffering. I doctored with many physicians, and tried all the (so called) cures that I ever heard of. In vain (paying out hundreds of dollars), until I used Emsil's Magic Balm, or Ointment. After the first application I enjoyed the best night's sleep I had for ten years, and two boxes have cured me completely." Wherever introduced Dr. Emsil's Balm takes the lead, and has the largest sale of any Pile remedy in the world. Sold by druggists everywhere or sent by mail. 50 cent boxes. CRIMINAL CASES.

Boodler McGarigle Escapes—Vigilantes' Work, etc.

STARKVILLE, Miss., July 25.—Rev. W. H. Gatlin, colored pastor, was shot and killed Sunday by officers who were attempting to arrest him. He bore a good character.

TULLAHOMA, Tenn., July 25.—Dick Hovoe, a negro rapist who outraged a negro woman near Fosterville Friday evening, was surrounded by a body of negro men Sunday at 11 o'clock two and a half miles from Fosterville and riddled with bullets.

M'GARIGLE ESCAPES.

CHICAGO, July 25.—W. J. McGarigle, the convicted boodler, has escaped. All day Sunday every available policeman and detective in Chicago was trying vinly to find the former chief of police of the city. Telegrams had been sent all over the country in the hope of heading him off, but, notwithstanding these efforts towards his recapture, little hope is entertained that he will ever again be in the custody of the people of Cook County, the people at whose unlawful expense he thrived and fattened for years. Sunday evening Sheriff Matson took McGarigle to his residence and while there the prisoner asked permission to take a bath. He was permitted to enter the bath room and close the door. In a few moments the sheriff called for the prisoner, but the

BIRD HAD FLOWN.

Although McGarigle was in the custody of the sheriff on the case for which he was tried and convicted, he was still under bonds of over $60,000 on other indictments. His bondsmen are M. C. McDonald and the prominent merchant, L. J. Lehman. Last evening State's Attorney Grinnell declared unqualifiedly that the bondsmen were yet liable and in case McGarigle was not recaptured the bonds would certainly be forfeited. The novel theory to explain the disappearance of McGarigle was quite generally discussed last evening. The idea was nothing less than that McGarigle had been kidnapped. His former companions in the boodle ring were the persons suspected of making way with him. The motive ascribed is the fear that McGarigle, whom they undoubtedly knew with the state's attorney, would make such disclosures as beyond peradventure would send all the indicted commissioners to the penitentiary and also involve persons not in office but of infinitely greater importance than have yet been brought to book. The states attorney acknowledge last night that the sticking point in the conferences between himself and McGarigle was the refusal of the latter to say he would give information implicating M. C. McDonald. To bear out the kidnapping theory attention was called to numerous suspicious circumstances slight in themselves. But the greatest stress is laid on the fact that a recapture meant to McGarigle a rigorous prosecution on twenty-one different indictments, while the disclosure such as was desired, guaranteed him freedom and no risk from the anger of his associates.

THE INFORMATION

that State's Attorney Grinnell could not keep his engagement with McGarigle was, it seems, communicated to McGarigle before 6:30 p. m. McGarigle was deeply disappointed, and pleaded with the sheriff to be taken home. Anyhow, Chief Clerk Doherty would be there, McGarigle said, to make the final settlement of the ex-warden's accounts, but was not at McGarigle's residence, and last night denied having any appointment with him. This fact, coupled with the statements of the neighbors that a horse and buggy were waiting last night near McGarigle's house, tend to confirm the belief that matters were prearranged. As the residence is within fifteen minutes ride of the pier at Evanston, where a tug might easily have been taken, the inference is drawn in some quarters that McGarigle is afloat in Lake Michigan, safe on his way to the straits of Mackinaw.

THE ESCAPE

of McGarigle gave a fresh zest to the boodle trial and the jam of spectators was great. Two prominent contractors testified in detail how they and the twelve defendants had month after month robbed the county of thousands of dollars. In another instance one of them furnished about $12,000 worth of material for a road to the county insane asylum. To obtain the contract he expended $7,000 among the defendants. The county eventually had to pay this sum, as the contractor added that amount to his bill. The station agents of the Milwaukee & St. Paul road were paid a couple of hundred dollars each to testify falsely as to the amount of material delivered. A milk contractor said his contracts cost him $2,500 each to obtain but in the end it all came out of the county treasurer. Of the defendants, the worst blackened by the day's testimony was Warden Varnell of the Insane Asylum. To-night an officer from Chicago of McGarigle reached Mackinaw Island, and is inaugurating measures to prevent the fugitive from getting through the straits to Canada. It is understood the sheriff is in communication with the commander of the United States revenue cutter and R. W. Johnson, attorney at Milwaukee, and that the Federal Government's only craft on the lake will be utilized in the chase.

To-morrow the Inter Ocean will state that McGarigle will not be safe in Canada. It is hinted the lack of extradition will not prevent his capture in secret by American officers, and hurried return to Chicago.

The Daily News' Milwaukee special says: Captain Baker, of the revenue cutter Johnson, has declined to seize any steam yacht or tug McGarigle may have taken refuge on, the latter not having been a Federal prisoner.

LYNCHING.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., July 25.—For two days rumors have been rife that an organized mob would make an attempt to lynch Lee Schellenderger, the murderer of his little daughter. On Friday night an attempt was to have been made to lynch him, but the sheriff, having been forewarned, the mob was dispersed by the militia. This was supposed to have been the end of the matter and therefore the citizens were rather surprised when it was learned Sunday morning that vigilantes had secured an entrance into the jail Saturday night and hung Schellenberger. Anjeye witness says the mob approached the court house about 2:30 a.m., noiselessly, masked and well armed. The guards being taken completely by surprise were easily overpowered. An effort to break in the

of the corridors was fruitless and the sheriff's office was entered and an opening was made in the floor through which a part of the mob entered and the prisoner was dragged out in the courtyard and a rope fastened round his neck. He declared his innocence of the crime of which he was charged and convicted and requested that his body be buried on the old homestead until he was proven innocent, when it should be removed to the side of his dead father and buried like other people. He never broke down and remained merry to the last. He was strung up, dying with a curse on his lips, as he said: "I'll haunt you if I can." The mob was composed chiefly of German farmers from the vicinity of the murderer's home. They then dispersed and left singing loudly a German song.

VIGILANTES ARRESTED.

BUTTE, Montana, July 25.—Deer Lodge, Montana, special to the Miner: N. B. Ringler, Al Porter, Hugh O'Donnell, Jas. Parten, Wm. Burke, Joseph Mackey, Mike Sullivan and James Hall were brought here to-day via Anaconda, in the charge of Sheriff Coleman, on the complaint of Demars, Talman and Currie, charged with riot in connection with the Phillipsburg vigilantes, who took them from bed, put ropes around the necks of the former two and hung them up for mine jumping. The examination was continued till Wednesday. The men were recognized by the victims, despite their masks, by their voices and otherwise.

NOGALES, Arizona, July 25.—Manuello Vellasso, a Mexican girl aged 16, was

and instantly killed this morning, the ball entering her eye. Conille Guitterza was arrested charged with her murder. She says in taking the gun from the rack the hammer caught on something which discharged the gun killing the girl.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 25.—Daniel Pullion and Charles Cooley, two surface graders on the Cheyenne & Northern Railroad, were shot by Wallace Lank and S. Baker, two rancmen, at 8:30 this morning, near Chugwater station, seventy-five miles north of this city. Pullon will die and Cooley will loose his right leg, with the possibility of death. Lank and Baker were members of a posse hunting for prisoners who escaped from the Laramie city jail on the 19th. Six prisoners, including one murderer and two horse thieves, gagged the jailer and escaped to the hills. Two were captured on Saturday and two yesterday afternoon.

THE TWO OUT

were the murderer Ed. Linn and the horse thief Lee Jones. Linn and Jones were heard of in the vicinity of Chugwater Sunday night. When the deputies rode in sight of Pullion and Cooley this morning they thought they were the escaped prisoners. They shot at them and ordered them to halt simultaneously. The graders were terrified and started to run when they were shot down. When Link and Baker discovered their mistake they were horrified. They rode their horses rapidly northward to escape a mob of one hundred graders and track layers who threatened lynching. The wounded men were brought to Cheyenne.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., July 25.—R. H. Payne, a clerk under Paymaster Putnam at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, was arrested to-night charged with embezzlement of $3,000 of the paymaster's fund.

Some of the leading men of England endorse St. Jacobs Oil.
