The Oregon state commission of the Portland fair is advertising for bids on the buildings and machinery in the construction of the state buildings, and on Oct. 15 bids will be opened on 2,500,000 feet of lumber, $15,000 worth of roofing, $25,000 worth of plumbing, and $10,000 worth of glass.

The management of the state fair has got out badges for the members of the A. A. A. society to be worn at the coming fair. The badges are of light blue silk, decorated with a medallion having a head in the center, and an ivory ball above with "Life Members" printed thereon, and with suitable illuminated lettering on the silk. The entire arrangement is very neat and pretty.

Local clothing and dry goods dealers are proposing to close up their establishments at 6:00 p. m. daily, after Oct. 1 instead of 6:30, thus giving both employees and employers more time in the evenings. Exceptions are Saturday evening, and evenings before holidays. One of the promoters of the movement is Charles Francis Adams (4th), great-grandson of the second president of the United States.

The appropriation of $5,000 made by the city council on last Monday night for boring a 12-inch well near Liberty park to develop the underground flow of water in that neighborhood has been approved by Mayor Morris and work will begin on the well in the next few days. There is enough pipe of the required size in the city which can be secured without having to wait for a shipment and thus delay the work.

Governor Cutler is the pleased recipient of two copies of a "sacred song" entitled "A Vision of Heaven" from W. L. Sheets of Burlington, Ia., with the modest request that the governor have the song given in some local church. As his calendar has not the time to call up all the city preachers, the governor has arranged for the presentation of the song, he would appreciate if some volunteer would step forward.

William W. Matthews, a miner of Park, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the federal court. His assets are placed at $200, while his liabilities amount to $4,231.86. The man failed in his duty, and in September, 1904, the petitioner was sued, and a verdict secured against him for $4,200, with interest at 8 per cent.

Hendry's condition is not at all serious and that he would soon recover.

Dr. PRICES' CREAM BAKING POWDER

PURE—WHOLESOME—RELIABLE MADE FROM CREAM OF TARTAR DERIVED SOLELY FROM GRAPES, THE MOST DELICIOUS AND WHOLE-SOME OF ALL FRUIT ACIDS

Its superiority is unquestioned. Its fame world-wide. Its use a protection and a guarantee against alum food.

Alum baking powders, their true character disguised, are urged with great effrontery upon the public. Their promoters are aware of their unwholesomeness, but the enormous profit in their manufacture, as they cost but two cents a pound and are sold at twenty-five cents a pound, or twenty-five cents for twenty-five ounces, overcomes all consideration upon the part of their makers for the health of the consumer. Alum baking powders retard the digestion of food in the stomach, while cream of tartar baking powder promotes it. These are facts, and they are of serious import to the public.

He also took a fountain pen and some small change. No sound was heard while the burglar was at work and the visit was not discovered until this morning. The matter was reported to the police and a description of the missing property furnished. Detectives have been detailed on the case and hope to recover the property.

KAIBAB INDIANS VERY DESTITUTE.

Smoot-Howell Party Officially Investigates and Finds Sad Condition.

THE REDSKINS ARE RESTRICTED

Plans of Relief Contemplate Annuity Or Farm Settlement—Are Good Workers—Panguitch School.

Special Correspondence.

Kanab, Utah, Sept. 27.—Senator Smoot and Congressman Howell officially investigated the conditions of the Kaibab Indian band, roaming in this vicinity. Their destitute condition was called to their attention by Miss Work, superintendent of the Indian school at Panguitch. The ancient home of the Kaibabs has been at springs along the mountain. Their headquarters at present being at Moencasin springs, 15 miles southeast of here, and just across the Arizona line. Here the "Mormon" Church has secured for them a small farm of eight or 10 acres, and the Indians have fenced in about a mile square of the public domain for a pony pasture. The fence of the pasture will have to come down, in accord with the rules of the department tearing down fences in other states on the public domain.

CLOSELY CONFINED. From Moencasin springs the Kaibabs have been doing their hunting in the mountains north in Utah and on the Buckskin mountains in Arizona; but legislation has excluded them from hunting in Utah for years, and government regulations keep them off the Buckskin mountains, so the winter months find them without food. Settlers have had to supply their wants, which is often done from the "Mormon" thing office in bulk. But whatever way their wants are relieved, the citizens here feel it a burden that should be borne by the general government.

RELIEF PLANS. There are various plans of relief proposed, some favoring an annuity and others a farm where the Indians may work for their living. The Indians are said to be good workers, and a little intelligent direction of their efforts on a good farm would make them self-supporting. On their little farm at Moencasin springs they raise corn and squash for winter food, but the farm is not large enough. There are some 90 in the Kaibab band, which is rather a large family to be supported on an eight or ten-acre farm. Some work is supplied by neighboring ranchers, but work is not very plentiful. At present the band is off in the foothills shelling peanuts, which find a market here at 10 cents per pound.

OPPOSE PANGUITCH SCHOOL.

The Indians here are opposed to sending their children to the school at Panguitch, claiming that the climate there is too cold, and the pupils at the school express the same sentiment. The result is that many run away from Panguitch and come down off the plateau to a warmer climate. The Kane citizens sympathize with the Indians, but the Indian school and farm being located, Senator Smoot and Congressman Howell do not feel disposed to interfere with present plans of the department. They do feel, however, that some relief should be afforded the Kaibab band, and an appropriation will be requested for that purpose at the coming session of Congress.

Goes farther and further. Never stops until you are well. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. A great tonic. Makes rich, red blood, firm flesh. 25 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your Druggist.

The price of admission to the fair will be 35c, owing to the great number of attractions presented.

NOMINEES FOR CITY COUNCIL.

Republicans Hold Their Ward Conventions and Vote on Candidates.

HEWLETT WINS IN THE FIRST

Wood Beaten by Currie in the Second—New Men in All the Other Wards.

At their ward convention last night the Republicans chose the following nominees for the city council:

FIRST MUNICIPAL WARD. Long term—F. J. Hewlett, Short term—S. A. Stanford.

SECOND MUNICIPAL WARD. Long term—J. W. Currie, Short term—J. A. Eckman.

THIRD MUNICIPAL WARD. Long term—T. O. Callister, Short term—E. F. Parry.

FOURTH MUNICIPAL WARD. Long term—A. H. Peabody, Short term—Joseph Johnson.

FIFTH MUNICIPAL WARD. Long term—H. N. Standish, Short term—A. C. Bower.

HEWLETT AND STANFORD. In the first ward A. L. Hamlin acted as chairman and Hyrum J. Smith as secretary, while Theodore Raybould and Fred J. Kegler were elected tellers. Joseph L. Weiler and Will E. Sengerhacker were elected members of the city committee. W. J. Moore a member of the committee on credentials at the city convention; W. S. Taylor, permanent organization and order of business.

Nominations for the council being in order, A. B. Elder was recognized by the chair and named as his candidate the "long" number, Henry J. Wood, county attorney Parley P. Christensen placed in nomination the name of Stephen A. Stanford—"competent, capable, always an active party worker and one who has not only before sought honor at the hands of his party."

The name of Frank J. Hewlett, present councilman from the First, was placed in nomination by Joseph L. Weiler, who said he has candidate many compliments for his good work in the past. Councilman Hoday seconded the nomination of Mr. Davies, but his speech failed of results, as the following table will show: Hewlett, 105; Stanford, 94; Davies, 41. The successful candidates were called upon for speeches and responded briefly. Mr. Stanford merely thanking his friends for the nomination and Mr. Hewlett plying himself in the fact that he had never yet reversed himself, but had always remained firm to his convictions. Then the meeting adjourned.

SECOND WARD MEETING.

The convention in the second ward was called to order promptly at 7 o'clock by E. J. Hurdley, city committeeman. Fred Price was elected chairman and Albert S. Reiser, secretary. After the reading of the call the following committee was named for the city convention: Credentials, J. J. Greenwald and Joseph A. Anderson were elected unanimously.

Nominations for the council being called for, J. J. Meyer presented the name of the present councilman, L. J. Wood; Seth Pixton named Harrison E. Jenkins; J. J. Curtis named J. W. Currie and Fred W. Price presented the name of John A. Eckman. The ballot resulted as follows: Currie, 84; Wood, 62; Eckman, 68; Jenkins, 54. Currie was declared the nominee of the convention for the long term, whereupon Wood and Jenkins were withdrawn, leaving a choice between J. J. Eckman. He was therefore nominated for the short term by acclamation. During the evening Mr. Greenwald made a number of ringing speeches.

IN THE THIRD WARD.

The third ward convention was presided over by state Senator W. N. Willard, while Willard T. Edwards acted as secretary. Going at once to business, Secretary Edwards presented the name of T. A. Callister for the long term. Mr. Callister was nominated by acclamation, after which Edward F. Parry was similarly dealt with for the short term. As members of the city committee, Harry S. Anderson and Walter H. Mitchell were elected, while the following committee was named for the city convention: On credentials, Joseph E. Mullett; on platform, William McMillen; on permanent organization, T. L. Irvine.

SMOOTH SAILING IN FORTH.

The fourth ward convention was held in the Twentieth ward amusement hall, with Glen Miller as chairman and Frank Higginbotham as secretary. But two names were placed before the convention for the council, they being Joseph Johnson and A. H. Peabody. It was moved that the candidates receiving the largest number of votes be made the long-term candidates and the next highest the short term nomination. Upon counting the ballots it was found that Mr. Peabody had received 41 votes against Mr. Johnson's 28, so he was cordially nominated for the long term and Mr. Johnson for the short term. W. R. Hutchinson was then named as president chairman, but he promptly withdrew, and John Higginbotham was then nominated for the position. For secretary, M. E. Cummings was decided upon, while Joseph Sharp and Glen Miller Committee men for the convention were named as follows: Credentials, Frank Higginbotham; permanent organization and order of business, A. B. Irvine; platform and resolutions, L. H. Smythe.

THE CONVENTION ENDORSED THE CANDIDACY OF W. R. HUTCHINSON AS ATTORNEY, AND AFTER HEARING A BRIEF SPEECH FROM MR. JOHNSON, ADJOURNED.

RESULT IN THE FIFTH.

In the fifth ward ex-County Commissioner H. N. Standish was placed before the convention by Atty. Gen. M. A. Breiden. On the first ballot Mr. Standish received 26 votes as against eight votes for W. L. Price, his rival for the long term. For the short term Dr. A. C. Bower was nominated by acclamation. Joseph Coille and William Edwards were elected members of the committee, while convention committees were named as follows: Credentials, M. H. Kriebel; platform, Willard Hanson; permanent organization and order of business, Job Lyon, May, Myton and Parley P. Christensen; permanent chairman and secretary respectively, of the precinct organization. Councilman A. J. Davis acted as chairman, while Horace H. Smith served as secretary.

STATE LAND SALE A GREAT SUCCESS

Special Correspondence. Boise, Idn., Sept. 28.—The big auction sale of Canyon county state lands, as conducted at the capitol building yesterday and the day before, resulted in the disposition of 4,961.14 acres at prices ranging from $10 to $45 an acre, bringing the state the net sum of $143,231.90.

While there were speculative bidders from nearly every part of the state and a few other parties from other states present, in the main the land was procured by bona fide residents—men who intend to cultivate the land and make homes.

The heaviest individual purchaser was ex-Governor Hunt, whose investment representing 520 acres at a cost of $12,700.40. His land ranged in price from $15 to $22 an acre. The highest priced land sold was 100 acres at $1.00 per acre—the appraised valuation. The bidding at times became very spirited. Land appraised at $10 an acre was in some instances bid up to $20.

There still remain 1,000 acres of this land yet to be sold, which, in all probability, will not be put up for sale again until next spring, unless the land board sees fit to grant a special application which might be made.

This land is situated in the fertile Payette valley, under the Boise-Payette canal.

IDAHO STATE FAIR.

The Idaho state fair, now on in this city, has proven fairly to be the greatest ever held in this state. The grounds are crowded every day with visitors from all parts of the state. Special train service has been found necessary to accommodate the heavy traffic.

The exhibits are of the best and represent the industries of the state in almost every line, besides presenting a good exhibition of the finer arts.

Yesterday was pioneer day at the fair. The sturdy frontiersmen of the plains gathered in surprising numbers and, under the careful attention of the committee appointed to look after their every want, they were as plentiful and happy as children. A special banquet and old-time dance was provided for them at the Nubatorium in the evening.

A heavy rain all last night and the threatening appearance of the weather today will, doubtless, interfere with the big races scheduled for this afternoon. Boise Derby day has attracted much attention and many people have come here to witness the races. It is expected that so if the races are not pulled off this afternoon there will be general disappointment.
