LOCAL BRIEFS.

Battalion Sergeant Harrison of the Twelfth Infantry, has been appointed color sergeant in place of the late Sergeant Carroll.

The Utah Society, Army of the Philippines, will hold a meeting at 3 p. m. tomorrow in Judge Tanner's courtroom, city and county building.

The appointment of Andrew C. Ure, who was confirmed as a patrolman by the council Monday night, has been vetoed by Mayor Thompson.

The funeral of H. H. Moffitt will be held from the Second ward meeting house tomorrow, Sunday, at 12:30 p. m. The remains may be viewed at the residence, 808 South First East between the hours of 10 and 11 a. m.

The condition of Apostle Brigham Young has gradually been improving for days, and it is the intention to remove him to his home in the coming week if improvement continues, as his son, Dr. A. C. Young, believes it will.

County Atty. Christensen has decided to not hold an inquest over the remains of the unknown man found in Parley's creek Thursday morning. The body will be kept by Undersecretary Watson until the authorities decide what disposition is to be made of it.

The thick, dense smoke that hangs over the city mornings, presents a gruesome sight from the benches. In fact it is so thick as to almost suggest suffocation, and the spectator naturally wonders how people can breathe such an atmosphere and remain in good health.

The Fort Douglas military cemetery has been "made over anew." The brush and rank weeds have all been cleaned out, the grass cut, and the graves re-enclosed, so that the place presents an attractive appearance. This cemetery contains one general officer, several captains and lieutenants, and chief musicians from the Sixth and Sixteenth infantry regiments.

The tenth annual meeting of the Reapers' club will be held at the residence of Mrs. Stevenson, 112 South First West street, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 21, at 7:30. The guests of honor will be Presidents B. W. Smith, M. I. Horne and S. J. Cannon. All members of the U. W. P. C. are invited. Sept. L. Morris will address the meeting, his subject being "The Dark Ages."

Charles Wardrip, who murdered Hugh Duffy in Sacramento several months ago, and who was captured by the Salt Lake police, was to have been hanged yesterday for the crime, but an appeal taken to the California supreme court by Wardrip's attorney, delayed the execution. A strong effort will be made to prove that he did not commit the crime, although he confessed that he was guilty at the time of his arraignment.

The librarian and members of the faculty of the state university specially interested in the growth of the library, urge the special endorsement of that indispensable part of the institution's plant, or at least a complete segregation of the library fund from the other funds of the college so that its application to its special purpose may never be interfered with. Under the energetic administration of the present librarian, the library is being got into excellent shape.

At a meeting of the Utah Art Institute held yesterday afternoon it was decided to purchase Henry Taggart's picture, "The Harvesters." Admittedly one of the artist's best productions, the picture will be added to the state's collection and will be placed on exhibition among other noted paintings in the office of Gov. Wells. The purchase was made possible by Mr. and Mrs. David Keith recently taking out life memberships which gave the institute the needed funds.

There is considerable activity at the new Catholic cathedral, where a gang of stone cutters have prepared a large lot of stone for setting and as much of this will be put in place as is possible before steady cold weather sets in.

The site of the First Presbyterian church, too, is a very busy place with a large force of stone cutters forcing the work, so that as much stone as possible can be got into place before the weather can work.

There is a small part of the city cemetery on the north side that many citizens say is a standing disgrace. There has been a fire there, which has burned considerable fencing, grave head boards and grass, and in addition, the place has been made the repository for a large and interesting collection of refuse that has been much better days, besides a miscellaneous collection of other rubbish. Then the grave mounds are partly sunken or otherwise out of shape. The place needs immediate attention.

Manager Hunting of St. Mark's hospital, has returned from an inspection of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company's hospital at Pueblo, and is much pleased with the trip. Mr. Hunting is getting data for use in the opening of St. Mark's hospital, which he proposes shall have the latest improvements and conveniences in the hospital line. A valuable feature of the new improvement at St. Mark's will be the complete and satisfactory isolation of the wards.

The lecture by Frederick Warder under the auspices of the Salt Lake Press club on Monday afternoon next at the theater promises to be a largely attended affair as these rare lecture treats have ever been in the past. The lecture will be "Shakespeare and His Plays." The time of commencement is 8:30 p. m. That hour was decided upon in order that school teachers and students might attend. In the evening after the performance of the "Tempest" the Press club and Commercial club will tender the distinguished tragedian a reception at the latter club's rooms.

Mrs. Madeline Lyne, wife of the veteran actor, T. A. Lyne, and once a resident of this city, stopped off in Salt Lake yesterday on her way to California. Mrs. Lyne has been a resident of France for three years past but will spend the winter on the coast. While here yesterday she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Briggs the former being her brother-in-law by her first marriage. Mrs. Lyne says that trade conditions in France are much depressed, due in large measure to American entry into the introduction of American products there.

Miss Emily C. Jessup of this city has entered the junior class of the department of music, Columbia University, New York, passing over freshman and sophomore years owing to previous preparation and experience. Colonel Jessup has for some time been singing in the New York churches, and teaching manual training in the Brooklyn public schools. Her brother, Douglas, formerly an assayer at the Centennial Eureka mine, is taking a full course of mining engineering at the Cooper Union night school, being occupied by day as a salesman for an importing house in New York.

The authorities have decided that there will be an inquest held over the remains of little Dorothy Averett, who was killed by a Jordan bridge car Thursday afternoon, so the body will be shipped to Grantsville, her home town, today for burial. The officials held that it was evident that the affair was an accident and that a criminal action against the street car company should not be prosecuted to a conviction. The father of the child has stated that no action for damages against the company will be started as he is unable to bear such an expense, and for the further reason that the company has agreed to bear all the expenses of burial of the child.

RAVING MANIAC. Disappointment in Love Led to Have Unbalanced a Girl's Reason.

Miss Etta Geffen was brought in from Bingham last evening and lodged in the padded cell at the county jail, a raving maniac. She was at once examined as to her sanity by County Clerk James and Drs. Mayo and Odell and was committed to the insane asylum, where she will be taken today by Deputy Sheriff Sloan.

This is the second time the young woman has been committed to an asylum, she having been committed previously to an asylum in Minnesota. It is said her insanity was caused by disappointment in love, she became infatuated with a young man in New York, who seemed to reciprocate her love. She finally learned that the man was married and brooding over her disappointment drove her insane. She was confined to the asylum and after serving two years was released as cured.

Miss Geffen and her brother came to Bingham about five months ago. Since that time she has been brooding over the affair again and her reason again left her. Her brother brought her to this city for commitment.

HAPPY THOUGH ROBBED. Bingham Miner Lost $15, but Thought It a Good Joke.

Pat Leary, a miner from Bingham, came to town tonight before last and had about $15 which he wanted to spend. He got in with a lot of thieves and grifters and while in a Second South street saloon, the bartender told him he had better shake his newly found friends unless he wanted to be robbed. But Pat paid no attention to the warning. He shuffled off with the grifters in his wake. Two or three hours later he came back, decidedly the worse for liquor and with his pockets turned inside out. A broad and happy smile adorned his rugged features as the bartender asked him what was the matter.

"Sure, devil a cent had I," said he, "fellas of this wad got me in an alley while I was out of town, took me around 'til neck 'til other took me money. But de wad mefnd now, I can go where Iver of wants to and devil a cent can they git."

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY.

Estimable Young Woman Passes Away Without Warning.

MISS HENRIETTA M. KINSEY.

The many friends of Miss Henrietta M. Kinsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Kinsey of this city, were shocked this morning to hear of her death, which occurred yesterday, from heart failure, after an illness of only a few hours.

Miss Kinsey was in apparently excellent health and in the best of spirits the previous evening, when a number of friends, she viewed the eclipse of the moon, and was preparing to visit in Denver with her sister. But yesterday morning she complained of severe pain in the region of her heart, and although medical aid was summoned, the sufferer gradually sank until death came. The funeral will be held from the house, 715 South Temple street, at 4:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Miss Kinsey was a devout member of St. Paul's Episcopal church and a graduate of Rowland hall, where she won distinction both in general scholarship and as an art student, her paintings winning much commendation from artists. She was a cousin of Mrs. J. J. McClellan, and her many genial and lovable traits will cause her untimely demise to be widely mourned.

PUBLIC LIBRARY. Probability That Its Erection Will Begin Next Spring.

The assurance has been received by members of the public library board that work on the John Q. Packard library building will be commenced in the early spring. Before leaving the city recently, Mr. Packard placed the matter in the hands of certain persons to execute the work on an extensive scale.

The persons in charge now have the matter under consideration and plans will be solicited from architects here and abroad. The amount to be spent on the building is not known but it is known that Mr. Packard wishes to make the building a worthy monument to his name. The new building will be located on the lot donated for that purpose by Mr. Packard, adjoining the Alta club on State street, and it, with the other new buildings in process of construction, will give the city a grand and greatly to the architectural beauty of that historic locality.

The members of the board and the reading public will be glad to learn that the library, as the present quarters are entirely inadequate to the demands of the library and are greatly overcrowded.
